RAMSEUR NEWS

Several of our folks were visitors in Greensboro last week.

Mr. W. O. York went to Liberty on business last Saturday night.

Mr. O. R. Chisholm, of New York, and his mother of Sanford spent Sunday at Ramseur. Their many friends were delighted to see them again.

Rev. H. C. Byrum filled his first appointment at the M. E. church here last Sunday, preaching a very convincing and helpful sermon to the text, "I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and him crucified."

Miss Hattie Brooks of the place was happily married to Mr. George Pickett, of near Siler City, last Sunday night at the home of Mr. Charles Brooks, the bride's brother.

Mr. C. F. Moore, of Severe, N. C., visited his brother, H. B. Moore, here last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Brower, a daughter.

I. F. Graves, Dr. Tate, Duffie Wilson, J. M. Masley, J. D. Hardin and others killed 500 pounds and over porkers last week.

Dr. C. S. Tate went to Greensboro on business Tuesday.

The board of stewards of the Ramseur and Franklinville charge met in joint session here last Friday night to make plans for another year's work. The meeting was a very enjoyable one to all present.

The Sunday schools of our town are preparing splendid programs for Christmas occasion. We are looking forward to a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS.

Rev. W. O. Johnson delighted his congregation Sunday morning with a splendid sermon.

Mrs. Emma Phillips and Mr. T. A. Slack visited relatives at High Point last week.

Clarence Parks made a business trip to Greensboro Tuesday.

Messrs. W. R. Hughes and H. P. Black went to Greensboro last Wednesday and purchased an up-to-date saw mill outfit which they expect to put in operation in the near future.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Burrow—a son.

Mrs. W. A. Gasters, of Portsmouth, Va., is spending some time with her Mrs. W. D. Pender.

Mrs. W. C. Jordan and daughter, Miss Fred, went to Greensboro on a shopping trip one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fox, of Randleman, are visiting the family of Dr. T. I. Fox this week.

J. R. Lutterlob made a business trip to Greensboro Tuesday.

W. C. Jones spent Monday at Greensboro on business.

Prof. D. M. Weatherly attended the Laymen's meeting at Greensboro last week and returned home Saturday in his automobile which he purchased while away.

Mr. W. D. Pender, our splendid depot agent, is not only efficient in his work and polite to every one he meets but takes great pleasure in keeping his office decorated with pictures and the most delicate winter flowers that he can secure and his last selection, which he is very proud of, is an imported variety of the narcissus family. Mr. Pender thinks the new variety will prove quite a boon and will be delighted to show them to all lovers of fragrant flowers.

Mr. H. T. Parks recently slaughtered a 454 pound hog which was one of the largest yet slaughtered in this community.

FARMER NOTES

Dr. Weaver, presiding elder of the Greensboro district, M. E. Church, South, preached two able sermons here on Saturday and Sunday mornings. The quarterly meeting for the circuit was held on Saturday afternoon. The weather was so unfavorable that the audience was small.

Rev. J. B. Trogdon and wife entertained a few of their friends at supper on Thursday night of last week. Those present were Rev. C. E. Stedman and Mrs. S. R. Stedman, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kearns, Misses Linnie Shamburger, Adna Lamb, Callie Vuncannon and Hope Hubbard, and Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard. The supper was enjoyed by all, as was also the social and music which followed. Mr. Trogdon expects to move his family to his farm on Asheboro R. F. D. No. 1, in the near future, as he was sent by the recent conference of the M. P. church to Richland circuit. He and his family have made many friends since coming to Farmer and we regret to see them leave.

Mrs. Louisa Macon was recently elected superintendent of the Concord Sunday school, and Mr. T. C. Russell was appointed a steward in the church. The play which was recently given by a group of Farmer pupils and outside young people was taken to Denton where it was given before a good sized audience on last Friday night. The proceeds were divided between the Denton high school and the Farmer school.

Mrs. Fannie McDaniel made a business trip to Asheboro Saturday, and spent Saturday night at the home of her father, Mr. J. M. Vuncannon, on Route 2.

Mr. James Hammond has recently moved to the farm belonging to Mr. G. T. Macon, in order to get the benefit of the school for his children.

A nice monument has recently been erected in the Dorsett plot in the cemetery here to the late I. M. Dorsett and his son, George W. Dorsett. It is one of the nicest now in the cemetery, and is the work of the Barboe Marble Works, of High Point.
