DOUBLE WEDDING
The M. P. parsonage at Coleridge was the scene of a quiet wedding last Thursday night when Miss Lecta Cheek became the bride of Mr. Bernice Smith, and Miss Rosa Garner the bride of Mr. J. F. Deaton. The ceremony was quietly and impressively performed by Rev. R. L. Melton in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The young people are very popular among a wide circle of friends at Coleridge where they will make their future home.
Liven Up Your Torpid Liver.
To keep your liver active use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They insure good digestion, relieve constipation, and take up the whole system—keep your eye clear and your skin fresh and healthy looking. Only 25c. at your Druggist.

LIBERTY NEWS

Miss Annie Lou Smith, of Dillon, S. C., is among the many visitors in town for the holidays.

Mr. D. H. Cameron, who had a stroke of paralysis Dec. 16th, is some what improved. Mr. Cameron was struck while down street and had presence of mind enough to find the way home and was able to walk about two hundred yards. He also knew what had happened to him at once and told his family as he walked in home that he had a stroke of paralysis. His physician, Dr. Shepard, thinks he will be able to get out again.

Miss Hazel Reece, music teacher in Biscoe graded school, is home for the week.

Mrs. A. A. Wagner was here last week from Sanford to be with her father, D. H. Cameron, who is confined to his room.

Dr. Earl Bowman, of McDonald, N. C., spent Xmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. Josie Bowman.

Dean Thompson, who teaches in the western part of the State, is a welcome visitor in our town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Steed, of Raleigh, are spending some days in town with relatives.

Miss Mary Griffin, who teaches school near Kernersville, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dark.

Miss Nellie McCowan, trained nurse of Greensboro, visited friends here last week.

Dr. J. W. Coltrane, who has been in Baltimore the past summer at the Medical College, is home on a visit for two weeks. Dr. Coltrane will finish his course this spring, 1916, if his health permits. For two years his health has been such that it was impossible for him to finish his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Teague, of Raleigh, are visiting relatives for the holidays.

Liberty has spent a very quiet and enjoyable Xmas. Everybody seemed to wear smiles on their faces since Santa Claus passed through leaving numbers of Xmas gifts in each home for both young and old.

Miss Maude Staley, niece of Bill Staley, underwent quite a serious operation at St. Leo's Hospital last week. Last reports were that Miss Staley is getting on nicely and Dr. Staley thinks she will return home soon.

Miss Allie Curtis is home from the State Normal College, Greensboro, for the holidays.

Miss Eugenia Rush, who has been in training at Washington, N. C., is home on a visit. Miss Rush finished her course two years ago in Washington and has been doing work in Greenville since that time. Thursday she leaves for Texas where she has taken work in a hospital.

Misses Hazel and Emily Reece were visitors in Greensboro last Friday.

Mrs. W. Hardin, of Julian, came down Monday to spend a day or two with her father, D. H. Cameron.

Miss Mary Bowman, assistant teacher at Coleridge, is spending Xmas week at home.

BARKER-FARLOW

The M. P. parsonage, Randleman, was the scene of a very enjoyable occasion Dec. 22nd, 8:30 p. m. when Mr. A. M. Barker and Miss Julia Farlow were united in marriage, Rev. J. B. O'Brian officiating. Both the contracting parties are of Randleman and will make their future home here. The groom is a widely known business man throughout the surrounding counties and is held in high esteem by all who know him. The bride is a lady of refinement and is very popular among a large circle of friends.

The ceremony was witnessed by only a few relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Their many friends wish for them a long and happy life together.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way. The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in gualac, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex,"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FARMER NOTES.

The Christmas tree, which was under the management of the Sunday School on Friday night last, was enjoyed by all the little folks, and the older people found the children's fun very pleasant. A short program of songs and recitations was given, and Rev. C. F. Stedman made a talk to the children.

We do not realize how many of the Farmer young people are away in school, teaching, or in business until they come home for Christmas. Among those who spent the holidays with home folks are: Misses Mary Horney, Maggie Parrish, Kate and Cammie Nance, Kate Dorsett, Gertrude Ridge, Lura Kearns, Dorothy Hubbard, Clyde Kearns, Junnita Kearns, Maude and Alma Lassiter, Mittie Russell, and Betty Bingham; and Messrs. A. B. Macon, Fred Fred Kearns, Conrad Horney, A. J. Macon, Elbert Kearns and Micajah Bingham.

Mr. W. C. Kearns and wife, of Richmond, Va., spent Christmas with Mr. Kearns father, Mr. J. H. Kearns.

Mr. Everett Vuncannon and wife, of Ellerbe, visited at Mrs. Fannie McDaniel's Sunday.

Among the Christmas visitors in Farmer were Miss Christine Carrier, of High Point Conservatory of Music, and Mr. P. N. Constable, of Durham.

Miss Sallie Hulin is visiting in the Cannon section.

Rev. J. B. Trogdon and family are visiting relatives in Franklinville township.

Mr. Frank Newby, of Asheboro, visited his sister, Mrs. Gideon Macon, during the holidays.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Asheboro People Know How to Save it.

Many Asheboro people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is an Asheboro citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. A. F. Parrish, Academy St., Asheboro, says: "I was troubled by my kidneys for years and though I tried different kidney medicines, I never found anything equal to Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always given me fine results. Ever so often I take a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have kept my kidneys in good shape and made me feel better in every way."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Parrish had. Parson-Barnes Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
