

THE COURIER

Asheboro, N. C., November 16, 1916

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. W. L. Welch Bear Creek was a business visitor in Asheboro Saturday. Miss Kelsey Coltrane spent Sunday at Ellerbe. Miss Maude Fox spent the week end in Randleman. Mrs. A. A. Spencer, of Carthage, is visiting relatives in town this week. Mr. D. Auman, of Brower's Mills, was in Asheboro Tuesday on business. Mr. E. W. Brown of Ramseur Route 1, was in Asheboro Monday. Mr. J. M. Routh Gray's Chapel was in Asheboro Tuesday on business. Mrs. R. E. Powell returned Friday from Henderson, where she has been visiting her sister. Mr. Ruffin Cole, of Seagrove, was in town Monday looking after purchasing some mules. Miss Lucile Rush, a student of the Charlotte Conservatory of Music, was a week end visitor at home. Mr. R. D. Cotaran, of Winston-Salem, was a week end guest of relatives in Asheboro. Mrs. Jean Rush returned last week from Troy where she visited her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Vuncannon, Mechanic and little curly headed boy were in Asheboro Monday. Two car loads of material are on the Norfolk Southern tracks for the new station. Mr. S. N. Allen Seagrove No. 2 was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday. Several Randolph county people expect to attend the State Sunday School Convention at Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garner and Miss Cox, of Seagrove, were in Asheboro Tuesday shopping. Mr. S. G. Richardson, of Seagrove Route 1, was in Asheboro Tuesday on business. Miss Mary Lou Stroud has been visiting the Misses Cox, returned to her home in Chapel Hill Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Cox and little son were visitors in Asheboro Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lucas Seagrove were in Asheboro Monday for some dental work. Miss Moletta Craven spent last Saturday night and Sunday at the home of her parents near Ramseur. Hog killing time is here. Several large ones were butchered this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Macon Greensboro were in Asheboro on their way to Farmer where they will visit relatives. Mrs. Dan King Sanford is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wicker on Main Street. Miss Pearl Kivett who will teach at Bethel Grant Township left Sunday to begin her school. Tige is barking and threatening to bite. His bowwow will not scare any one. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shamburger Hills Stere were visitors in Asheboro today. Mr. O. D. Lawrence Seagrove No. was in Asheboro Monday to see his daughter who is in the Asheboro Hospital. Miss Marietta Berry, who has been visiting at Ellerbe for the past few weeks, returned home Monday morning. Miss Mary Spencer, of Carthage, passed through Asheboro Friday en route to Salisbury where she will teach school near that place. Mr. Frank Henley High Point was a visitor in Asheboro Sunday. Mr. Henley has a position with the Southern Railway in High Point. Misses Lena Cole, Pollie Hughes and Josephine Cross attended the Chrysanthemum Show at Franklinville last Saturday night. Messrs. Lacy Lewis and Idyl Ferree returned Monday from Rockingham and Raeford where they had been visiting. Mrs. Mattie J. Caveness, Gulf, who is at present with her son at Ramseur Route 1, was in Asheboro on business today. Mr. Ed Hatch Hamlet was in Asheboro last week visiting relatives. Mr. Hatch was for several years a citizen of Asheboro and has a host of friends who welcome him back. Mrs. Brona Coble, who has assumed management of the Joyland Theater, assures the people of Asheboro that she will make the movie a place which will equal the best.

Messrs. M. P. Cox, H. C. Cox and Pinkney Baldwin, of Asheboro Route 1, were in Asheboro Monday on business. Misses Grace and Clarice Presnell and Harriette Hammer, students of the State Normal College Greensboro were guests of home folks Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturdivant and daughter, Miss Mary, and Mrs. Ellen Brown Star were in Asheboro shopping Tuesday. Mr. Sam Walker has given the contract to Mr. Thomas Lassiter for a 5-room house on Church Street, in front of Mr. Charles Fox's residence. Rev. J. L. Midgett, Elise, Moore county, were in Asheboro Saturday. Mr. Midgett was much impressed with Asheboro, saying it was one of the most up-to-date towns in the state. Mr. Charles Hamlin was in Greensboro Saturday. He says there was a big celebration there Friday night in honor of President Wilson's re-election last week. Miss Lizzie Lowe Asheboro No. 3 was in Asheboro Tuesday shopping. The Southern depot is undergoing improvements. Water is being put in and the inside walls are being painted. Mrs. M. C. Spoon Ramseur was in Asheboro the latter part of last week the guest of Mrs. Oliver Henry. From here Mrs. Spoon went to High Point where she will visit her brother. Mrs. Lee Phillips and Mrs. J. N. Garrett, of Lexington, were here last Tuesday for the funeral of Vivian Holder. Mr. L. M. Holder, of Winston, was also here. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman, Mr. Clinton Auman and Mrs. G. E. Stuart leave their homes at Seagrove today for Burlington where they will attend the State Sunday School Convention. The friends of Rev. Sidney Robinson, pastor of a Kingston, Mass., church, are interested in the announcement of his engagement to Miss Frances Lord, of Plymouth, Mass. Mrs. H. M. Crutchfield was in Asheboro Saturday visiting her son, Dr. G. Crutchfield, who returned to Guilford College with his mother for Sunday. Mr. E. R. Yow has moved his family from Mr. Presnell's house on Cox St. to the residence formerly occupied by Mr. F. Ingold, near the old court house. Mr. Ingold has moved to Mr. A. E. Byrns' residence in North Asheboro. Mr. Wiley Byrns has accepted a position in the station, that of a press man in the place of Mr. Calvin Frazier. Mr. Frazier has the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. A. C. Moton. Mrs. Fred Cox, Lexington and Rosa Stowe High Point passed through Asheboro Tuesday on their way to Seagrove where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. King at Fairgrove church. Mrs. C. B. Ingram wife of Dr. Ingram Mt. Gilead died suddenly at her home Monday night. Mrs. Ingram was the mother of Henry Ingram who was in school in Asheboro a number of years ago. The break of the press causing delay of part of the last issue of The Courier has caused a delay of The Courier of one day this issue. After this, no accidents happening, we think we shall be able to come out promptly on time. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ross and daughter, Miss Esther, went to Jackson Springs Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ross returned Monday and Miss Ross remained for a while with her brother, Mr. George Ross. Those who objected to the blowing of whistles on last Friday night saying that it disturbed some of those who were sick, no doubt had reference to some of the foolish Republicans who were sick because of election bets they had to pay. Mrs. J. W. Hadley, chairman of the Flower Committee, desires through the columns of The Courier to thank her committee for their splendid cooperation. She also extends gratitude to all who aided in any way to the success of the Chrysanthemum Show. Mr. George Ross, who has had charge of the Derbe farm near Jackson Springs, has accepted a position as manager of the Jackson Springs property. The hotel has been leased for five years by Mr. Leonard B. Tufts, and the lease having expired Mr. Ross will secure some one to run the hotel. The Courier is in receipt of a letter from Mr. H. B. Parks, son of Mr. L. T. Parks, of Columbia township. Mr. Parks has recently taken a six months course in Lynchburg, Va. He is now one of the field secretaries of the State Yonn Men's Christian Association of Kentucky, located at Stone, Ky. The cold wave from the Rocky Mountains has reached us, and the thermometer this Thursday morning is away below freezing point and ice is half an inch thick and more, although the brisk wind has prevented any frost. So we have November 16 the first cold weather of the season, and the first killing frost. Vegetables have been green and growing until now.

List of Flowers and Prizes for Chrysanthemum Show. No. 1.—Largest single bloom on potted plant, any color, two similar gold pieces, Bank of Randolph—won by Mrs. H. H. Kennedy. No. 2.—Second largest bloom on potted plant, any color, table runner, Mrs. L. M. Fox, won by Mrs. Oscar Redding. No. 3.—Best single bloom, white, set of plates, Wood Cash Clothing Co., won by Mrs. Will Skeen. No. 4.—Best plant, single bloom, yellow, set teaspoons, J. M. Caveness, won by Mrs. H. H. Kennedy. No. 5.—Best plant, single bloom, pink, piece enameled ware, Cox & Lewis Hardware Co., won by Mrs. A. R. Hix. No. 6.—Best plant, single bloom, bronze, two pairs silk hose, Hamilton Brothers, won by Mrs. C. T. Lofflin. No. 7.—Best general collection of potted plants, linen table cloth, Woman's Club, won by Mrs. J. M. Caveness. No. 8.—Second best general collection of potted plants, piece of fancy work, Mrs. W. A. Underwood, won by Mrs. J. T. Wood. No. 9.—Best ostrich plume plant, six blooms, counterpane, Wood & Moring, won by Mrs. H. H. Kennedy. No. 10.—Best plant, white, 12 blooms case peaches, Asheboro Grocery Co., won by Mrs. J. M. Caveness. No. 11.—Best plant, six blooms, white, 48-pound sack flour, Asheboro Roller Mill, won by Mrs. H. H. Kennedy. No. 12.—Best plant, white, 3 blooms, $1 bottle toilet water, Asheboro Drug Co., won by Mrs. J. M. Caveness. No. 13.—Best plant, yellow, twelve blooms, case peaches, Lexington Grocery Co., won by Mrs. W. A. Coffin. No. 14.—Best plant, yellow, six blooms, 48-pound sack flour, Southern Crown Milling Co., Mrs. J. M. Caveness. No. 15.—Best plant, yellow, three blooms, piece china, McCrary-Redding Hardware Co., won by Mrs. Oscar Redding. No. 16.—Best plant, pink, 12 blooms, piece fancy work, Mrs. W. D. Stedman, won by Mrs. Will Skeen. No. 17.—Best plant, 6 blooms, pink set linen napkins, Mrs. J. W. Hadley, won by Mrs. C. T. Lofflin. No. 18.—Best plant, pink, 3 blooms, box Symphon-Lawn Stationery, Standard Drug Co., won by Mrs. A. R. Hix. No. 19.—Best plant, black hawk, 6 or more blooms, cassarole, Mrs. M. C. Hammer, won by Mrs. Dr. Swain. No. 20.—Best plant, bronze, 6 blooms, crex rug, R. C. Johnson, won by Mrs. Will Skeen. No. 21.—Best plant, bronze, three blooms, table, Hoover & McCain, won by Mrs. C. T. Lofflin. No. 22.—Best plant, cream, 12 blooms, cut glass pitcher, The Courier, won by Mrs. W. A. Coffin. No. 23.—Best plant, cream, six blooms, pair bed room slippers, Coffin Hardware, won by Mrs. W. A. Coffin. No. 24.—Best plant, water, six blooms, water set, won by Mrs. Dennis Beard. No. 25.—Best plant, Lillian Bird, chair, Asheboro Chair Co., won by Mrs. Clint Hayworth. No. 26.—Best plant, dairy variety, lamp, W. W. Jones, won by Mrs. L. M. Fox. No. 27.—Best plant, button variety, 3 packages sweet peas, J. T. Turner, won by Mrs. Oscar Redding. No. 28.—Best general collection cut flowers in vase, table, Home Building & Material Co., won by Mrs. D. Lewis. No. 29.—Best vase, white, 10 blooms, chair, Randolph Chair Co., won by Mrs. C. T. Lofflin. No. 30.—Best vase, yellow, ten blooms, piece reed work, Miss Esther Ross, won by Mrs. Dr. Asbury. No. 31.—Best vase, pink, ten blooms, 5 pounds French Creole Coffee, J. C. Hannah and Son, won by Mrs. D. Lewis. No. 32.—Best vase black hawk, 10 blooms, one half dozen cans pink salmon, J. J. Turner, won by Mrs. Dennis Beard. No. 33.—Best vase, cream, ten blooms, piece fancy work, Mrs. D. Lewis, won by Mrs. W. A. Coffin. Ferns. No. 34.—Best collection of ferns, piece fancy work, Mrs. O. W. Rich, won by Mrs. L. M. Fox. No. 35.—Best sword fern, 100 engraved visiting cards, The Bulletin, Mrs. Captain Smith. No. 36.—Best fern, Asparagus spengeri, bottle maple syrup, W. D. Stedman & Son, won by Mrs. Capt. Smith. No. 37.—Best fern, Asparagus plumosus, 3 White Lookout Loaf Cakes, A. O. Ferree, won by Mrs. S. L. Hayworth. No. 38.—Best fern, baby breath, jardiniere, O. R. Fox, won by Mrs. L. M. Fox. The woman's Club wishes to extend thanks to the people who so generously donated the prizes and to all who contributed in any way to the success of the Chrysanthemum Show. Randolph County Medical Association. Randolph County Medical Society met in regular session here Tuesday with Drs. Asbury, Fox, Miller, Hubbard, Tate, Moore and Craven in attendance. A number of very interesting papers were read and discussed. Randolph county has one of the ablest, most enthusiastic medical societies in the state and we feel sure it is doing much good. The delay in getting out the paper last week on account of the press having broken down causes us to be behind some this week and we have been obliged to leave out some county correspondence which will appear next week.

Messrs. L. F. Ross and M. W. Parrish Hostesses to Randolph U. D. C. The Randolph Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy was entertained by Messrs. M. W. Parrish and L. F. Ross at the home of the latter yesterday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Miss McAlister, Mrs. O. W. Rich, first vice president, presided. Mrs. Rich read an account of the battle of Atlanta, following Mrs. J. A. York gave a most interesting sketch of the life and work of Gen. Hood. The election of officers resulted in the following: Honorary president, Miss May McAlister; president, Mrs. John T. Moffitt; first vice president, Mrs. O. W. Rich; second vice president, Mrs. J. V. Hunter; recording secretary, Mrs. W. A. Underwood; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Asbury; treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Ross; historian, Mrs. W. D. Stedman. On account of the loss of some towels and sheets belonging to the Old Soldiers' Home, in a laundry fire in Raleigh, the president of the State U. D. C. has asked that each chapter make a donation; a committee was appointed and box will be sent Friday at 4 p. m. Articles will be received and packed at The Courier office at 2 p. m. Friday. Any contributions from any one will be gratefully received. A delicious salad course was served by the hostesses, assisted by Misses Lillian and Mabel Parrish. Tom Roseman Did Not Vote. Mr. Editor: Tom Roseman, who made political speeches in Randolph either for love of his party or to hear his head rattle, as because he was paid so much per, failed to vote, so the report comes from his recent home. Those who know the record of Mr. Roseman will not be surprised to learn that he did not vote at his home, where he is known. VOTER. Hughes Poem. Come all you "Hughesites" If you want to hear The story of how the election did go, Woodrow Wilson is the complete name. In the White House office where he won his fame He has been our President for the last four years. In spite of all the Hughesites' sneers; They fought mighty hard, but all in vain, For Woodrow Wilson is our President's name. CHORUS: Woodrow Wilson who still holds his office; Woodrow Wilson is the rounder's name. Woodrow Wilson has been re-elected for the President's office Where he won his fame. Hurrah for Wilson! (Tune, Casey Jones.) —J. F. A. Ramseur, N. C. Card of Thanks. Through The Courier we wish to thank the people of Asheboro for their kindness and sympathy through the illness and death of our daughter, MR. and MRS. J. A. HOLDER. Randleman Route 3 News. Mr. Clarkson York went to Greensboro last week on business. Misses Margie and Aggie Lovett spent Sunday visiting friends in Worthville. Miss Effie Croker, of Worthville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Lena Allred. Mrs. Isaiah Rich spent part of last week visiting her son, Mr. Grady Hall, at High Point. Mr. Cicero McMasters and family, Randleman, have been visiting at the home of Mrs. McMasters' father, Mr. Orlando Davis. Messrs. Ed and James York, of Greensboro, are spending a few days with home folks. Mr. Floyd Redding and family spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Redding's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schrest, Randleman Route 2. Mr. Ed Davis and family spent last Sunday with Mr. Davis' father, Mr. Orlando Davis. Mr. W. C. Williams went to Randleman last Saturday. Mrs. Bart Prevost and children, of Randleman, spent a few days recently visiting her father, Mr. Orlando Davis. New Center School. New Center school opened October 10. November 16 closed the first month of the work with the following pupils on the honor roll: Third Grade—Clarence Cole. Fourth Grade—Hal Garner, Helen Garner, Eula Craven. Sixth Grade—Alma Cole. Seventh Grade—Mittie Johnson. ANNIE COX, Teacher. A Card of Thanks. We wish to express our appreciation of the kindness shown us by our friends during the sickness and death of our wife and mother. J. A. KING and Children. No. 666. This is a prescription prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c

Have You Seen Our New Lot Of Fresh Fruits and Nuts We Have Them Oranges, grape fruit, mountain apples and all kinds of nuts Ladies have you used our red and green Marachino cherries? They are fine with desserts and salads. Just received a first shipment of Backwheat flour. Our usual quick service. Come and see us. A. O. Ferree

Stop Look and Listen! The Rexall Inner Tubes for your auto tires are the ones that will take you there and bring you back they are tried and sure. Do you want service? If so call for Rexall Inner tubes at Standard Drug Co. Asheboro, N. C.

R. C. Johnson Is--The Man The Old Miller Stand--The Store Rainy cold weather suggests good shoes, good rain coats and umbrellas. We can please you. We can fit you. Don't forget our Ladies' coats, skirts and dress goods, and men's and boys clothing. R. C. Johnson

JUST THINK ABOUT IT Your money will buy more goods, quality considered at W. W. Jones Cash Store, Asheboro, N. C. Come and see my line of shoes for men, women and children clothing and hats and caps for men and boys, dry goods and notions, trunks and traveling bags. Also New Home Sewing Machines. Mr. Reid Hannah has accepted a position with this store. W. W. Jones WANTED—Local representatives to sell line of guaranteed hosiery to wearer. References required. Address Box 327, Winston-Salem, N. C. WANTED—One good hand who knows how to farm and care for stock. Apply to "S," care of The Courier, Asheboro, N. C.