

THE COURIER

Telephone No. 5

Asheboro, N. C., April 5, 1917

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Mac Cross—Randleman No. 2 had the misfortune about three weeks ago, of falling and broke her hip bone. She had been up stairs and started down the steps when she fell backwards.

Mrs. W. A. Williams and son Eugene of Randleman Route 3, were in Asheboro Saturday on business.

Mr. S. W. Kearns of Caraway No. 1 was a business visitor in Asheboro Saturday. Mr. Kearns had a painful accident the first of the week. He was unloading cross ties and one fell on his finger and mashed it badly.

Mr. W. N. Bray has moved his family from Central Falls to Asheboro. Mr. Bray has been teaching the past winter.

W. T. Hobson, who is a farmer and stockman, a breeder of horses and mules, at Sedan, Kansas, went West from Randolph county many years ago. He writes The Courier, in sending a remittance for it, saying that he enjoys reading the paper, and that Randolph is his native county; that he lived at Rameaux until after the Civil War, and was a member of the Junior Reserves during the Civil War from Randolph. Randolph and her people are dearer to him, he says, than any other people or place.

The Woman's Club, of Greensboro, called a meeting on Friday of last week and adopted resolutions pledging their support to President Wilson in the pending crisis. The resolution was signed by Mrs. C. P. Langley, president, and Mrs. J. W. Petty, secretary. There were some who sternly disapproved the patriotic action of the meeting but it was the sense of the meeting that the time had come when it was the duty of every citizen to do his or her part in upholding our national honor.

Miss Nettie Newby and Kate Newby have returned from High Point, where they visited Miss Evelyn Jones.

Miss Virginia Henley, of High Point, visited friends in Asheboro a few days last week, returning to High Point in a car.

Messrs. Taimage Rochelle, Rodney Snow and Frank Henley, of High Point drove down in a car Saturday, returning to High Point Sunday.

Mr. and A. Maness and children and Mr. John Maness visited Mrs. W. K. Dickens last week.

Rev. Edwards of Rockingham preached two interesting sermons in the Baptist Church Sunday.

Frank Birkhead, Jr. who is named for his grandfather has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Birkhead in South Asheboro.

Mr. D. M. Sharp of Liberty was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. Claude Bray of Bennett is at the Asheboro Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Bray is improving nicely.

Mr. Vance Garrett of Yadkin College is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Holder on Sunset Avenue.

Lieutenant Hal Walker sent yesterday in Greensboro acting as recruiting agent for Company K. He secured several new members for Company K.

Mr. S. H. Spoon of Archdale has been in Asheboro this week attending court. Mr. Spoon is a successful farmer in his section.

The Courier is in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. H. Nance of Wichita, Kans. in which he announces the death of his wife on February 22. Mr. Nance has a number of friends in Randolph who will sympathize with him in his loss.

Mr. Everett Newby who has been at Kings Business College, Raleigh, has returned to Asheboro after having completed his course.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Presnell, son Arthur Presnell and Miss Clara Pugh went to Greensboro Sunday to see Misses Clarice and Grace Presnell who are students at the State Normal College.

Mrs. C. W. Cranford was hostess to the members of the aid society of the M. E. church Tuesday.

Mrs. L. C. Phillips visited relatives in Thomasville the latter part of last week.

Mrs. A. C. McAlister and daughter returned last week from a visit to relatives in Greensboro, Fayetteville and Winston-Salem.

Mr. C. L. Amick and family visited relatives at Pleasant Garden Sunday.

Mrs. Jesse Presnell returned Saturday from Fayetteville where she visited her son Cleveland Presnell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hammer and children are in Asheboro for a few days.

Misses Etta Reid Wood and Clara Belle Morris will leave Friday for Aberdeen where they will spend Easter with relatives and friends.

Mr. Newton Williams was married Saturday to Miss Allie Upton at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Upton in Moore county.

Mrs. Fred Cox, of Lexington, and Miss Hester Stuart were in Greensboro yesterday on their way to Seagrove where they will spend the Easter holidays with their parents. Miss Stuart has been in school during the past year at Elon College. She will accept a position there in a short time with the Christian Sun publishing house.

Mr. Ashley Smith, of Denton, formerly of Randolph county, was in town yesterday. Mr. Smith had just recovered from a case of typhoid fever.

Mattie Birkhead, Asheboro, Noel Neal, Asheboro, and Mabel Prosser, of Worthville, sent in puzzle No. 17 this week, which was a turkey. We are very glad to get answers to the puzzles and hope that more of the children will answer them.

Chrysanthemum Show at Liberty

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will give a chrysanthemum show and an exhibit of canned fruit in the fall, date will be fixed later. Everybody is invited to come and enter their flowers or canned fruit at ten cents each and get a nice premium. The following is a list of the premiums:

- No. 1. Largest flower of any color, $5.00 gold piece, given by B. M. Browner.
No. 2. Second largest flower of any color, $2.50 gold piece, given by D. G. A. Foster.
No. 3. Largest white flower, $5.00, by C. P. Smith, Jr.
No. 4. Second largest white flower, leather hand bag, given by John W. Curtis.
No. 5. Largest yellow, cedar chest, given by Home Lumber Company.
No. 6. Second largest yellow, water set, McPherson & Company.
No. 7. Largest red, set of silver teaspoons, Gilliam and Patterson Hardware Company.
No. 8. Second largest red, $1.00, A. E. Dark.
No. 9. Largest bronze, porch chair, Pickett Stick and Novelty Works.
No. 10. Second largest bronze, 5-lb box of chocolate candy, Pickett & Hornaday Wholesale Company.
No. 11. Largest pink, $5.00 hat, Miss Lizzie Cameron.
No. 12. Second largest pink, lamp, Stroud Bros.
No. 13. Largest cream, $5.00 hat, Miss Florence Owens.
No. 14. Second largest cream, six cans of Wesson cooking oil, R. C. Reitzell.
No. 15. Largest lavender, rocking chair, S. J. Buckner.
No. 16. Second largest lavender, $1, Dr. Delacy Foust.

Can Fruit

- No. 17. The best can of peaches, setting of white orange eggs, Midnight Poultry Farm.
No. 18. Best can of apples, 48-lb sack of flour, Liberty Milling Company.
No. 19. Best can of pears, $1.00, Dr. T. F. Ashburn.
No. 20. Best can of tomatoes, setting of half orange eggs, J. Rom Smith.
No. 21. Best can of cherries, $1.00, Dr. J. D. Gregg.
No. 22. Best can of berries, Landmark towel, Miss Julia Smith.
No. 23. Best can of plums, $1.00, J. H. Johnson.
No. 24. Best can of beans, set cups and saucers, H. J. Frazier.
No. 25. Best can of beet pickles, $2, G. B. McLinnoch.
No. 26. Best can of cucumber pickles, set of plates, W. J. Frazier.
No. 27. Best can of mixed pickles, $1.00, J. G. Reitzell.
No. 28. Best can of sweet pickle peaches, picture, Farmers' Union Store.
No. 29. Best can of pickle pepper, $1.00, S. C. Frazier.
No. 30. Best can of fig preserves, box of stationery, Liberty Drug Co.
No. 31. Nicest cake, $1.00, Dr. F. A. Shepherd.
No. 32. Nicest pound of butter, rug, Patterson Store Company.

Miss Elizabeth Smith of Rameaux Hostess to Bachelor Maids Club

Saturday evening, March 31, Miss Elizabeth Smith entertained at a social meeting of the Bachelor Maids Book Club at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Watkins, in honor of her house guests, Misses Lorena Burgess and Beulah Brady of Greensboro, and Mr. Mike Newland, of Burlington.

Progressive hearts was played at six tables, Miss Jessie Whitehead winning the prize, a box of stationery. Mrs. Watkins presented Misses Burgess and Brady with dainty crepe de chene handkerchiefs. Music was furnished by the Victrola.

At ten thirty the guests were shown into the dining room where a delicious ice cream was served. Those present were Misses Beulah Brady, Lorena Burgess, Pauline Allred, Madge Moffitt, Jessie Whitehead, Lee Craven, Ophelia Barker, Lizzie Forrester, Pauline Smith, Nellie and Mabel Spoon, Edyth Scott, Elizabeth Smith, and Messrs. Mike Newland, J. L. Lambert, Glenn Scott, Orren Forrester, Nuby Phillips, Luce Black, I. D. Wagger, Egbert Baldwin, Woosley Marley, E. Q. Seawell, and Herbert Smith.

News From Caraway Route 2

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hunt, March 30th, a daughter. R. J. Wood, J. M. Yates, J. C. Ridge and others made a business trip to Asheboro last Monday. C. H. Hill has ordered a new Ford car.

Velney Nance and Emily Miller, of Farmer, were visitors at J. C. Ragan last week. J. C. Ragan has gone to Greensboro, to purchase goods. Mrs. Arthur Harris is ill at her father's P. R. Yates at present. Rev. Mr. Davis, of High Point, filled his appointment at Pierce's Chapel last Sunday. Rev. J. M. Varner filled his appointment at Mt. Tabor last Sunday. Jasper Surratt had a calf to run mad or supposed to be, that was bitten by a mad dog, that passed through recently.

Piney Grove ball team played ball at Farmer last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snider, of Asheboro Route 2, visited John Gallimore last Saturday and at R. E. Snider's Sunday. Sam Pickett and family, of Asheboro Route 2, visited relatives through this section last Sunday. Cicero Wood, of Thomasville, visited M. L. Wood last week.

Providence Items

"Hurrah for spring with all her beauties." Miss Edith Macon is at home after teaching school at Millboro. To Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Neece, a daughter, Virginia Dare; also to Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Cox, a daughter, Pauline, Feb. 23. Mrs. Delinda Foust, of Grays Chapel, spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Neece. Last week Mr. E. D. Frazier killed seven hogs, the largest weighing 250 pounds. Providence school closes next Friday.

CHURCHES WILL OBSERVE EASTER

M. E.'s Will Observe Easter Sunday

Special Easter services will be held next Sunday morning and evening at the M. E. church. The pastor, Rev. Ira Erwin, will deliver a sermon on "The Resurrection," and special music has been planned. The order of the service follows:

- Prelude—"Easter Morn."
Hymn—Christ the Lord is risen today—Congregation.
Prayer.
Anthem—Cavary—Choir.
Offertery—Selected—Miss Lucile Rush.
Hymn—I know that my Redeemer lives—Congregation.
Sermon.
Anthem—The Lord is risen indeed—Choir.
Doxology.
Postlude—"Ancient of Days"—Organ.
Night
Prelude—Gloria in Excelsis—from Farmer's Mass in B Flat—Organ.
Anthem—Fling wide the Gates—Choir.
Hymn—All hail the power of Jesus' name—Congregation.
Prayer.
Chorus—No shadows yonder (Holy City) Choir.
Scripture reading.
Violin Solo—Angels serenade—Mrs. S. B. Stedman.
Chorus—They that sow in tears shall read in joy—(Holy City) Choir.
Chorus—For thee Oh! dear, dear country—Choir.
Vocal solo—Selected—Miss Lucile Rush.
Hymn—Hark! ten thousand harps and voices—Congregation.
Chorus—List! the Cherubim Host—(Holy City) Choir.
Chorus—Great and mighty are thy works—(Holy City) Chorus.

Easter at Asheboro M. P. Church

During the absence of the pastor, there was no preaching at the Asheboro M. P. Church Sunday morning, but the pastor and his family, are expected to return tonight. "Sunday night of this week (Good Friday) the first Easter service will be at the M. P. church when the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered to which all Christian people are invited to attend and participate.

On Sunday morning the Children's Day service will be at the M. P. church at 11 o'clock a. m. The exercises will be held instead of the usual sermon by the pastor. The exercises will be conducted under the direction of Miss Essie Ross.

Letter from New Market

Mr. Editor: Was very much pleased with an article in your paper of March 22, about an "Infirm Man of New Market Township." Would like to know who wrote it so I could shake hands with him and congratulate him. I was interested in the "Medicine Peddler" business at one time and made good after paying privilege tax. "An Infirm Man" has made money paying the tax and I do not see why we are deprived of this source of revenue.

Planting potatoes and gardening is the theme here now. Mrs. Sarah Lofin and children visited her mother Mrs. Ann Miliken Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bristow have moved to the I. T. Stout place in Sophia.

Mr. John Adams began repainting Mr. B. F. Snider's residence Monday. Mrs. Civilla Lowe is attending court this week. Miss Cora Edwards visited at Mr. Jesse Berry's Sunday evening. Mr. Baxter Snider had "a close shave" Sunday when he came in contact with Mr. Tom Connor's razor. Miss Ruth Coltrane who has been at home since leaving the hospital, returned to Guilford College Saturday. Listen for wedding bells. Rev. John Nance reached a splendid sermon at Mount Olive Sunday afternoon.

Mr. C. J. Coggins, "An Infirm Man of New Market township", has driven home a new Ford car from High Point. His many friends hope he will soon overcome his infirmities as he has a full line of drugs on hand recommended to cure any ill but a broken heart. Mr. D. V. Davis is erecting a handsome new barn.

Miss May Davis and Mr. Cecil Tarow were out together last week trying to buy calves and exchange eggs. Look out, preachers and J. P.'s. Mrs. Edith Barker, of Greensboro, spent the week end with friends and relatives on the route. Mr. J. H. Bristow has purchased a Ford. Get your hair curled, girls! Mr. Walter Davis has purchased a new buggy. Mr. W. B. Lowe was seen going towards Randleman Sunday evening. A habit with him it seems. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bristow and Miss Lucy Lowe motored to the entertainment at Oak Shade Saturday.

Miss Mayme Coltrane is at home from Oak Shade where she has spent a successful year teaching. A good number of our young people are planning to attend the Moravian Sunrise service at Winston-Salem Sunday morning—"Sammy."

Mrs. Barbara Allred Pugh Dead

Mrs. Barbara Pugh died at the home of her son Mr. A. H. Pugh Tuesday near West Chapel, two and a half miles west of Asheboro. Mrs. Pugh was 85 years of age. Funeral was held at Patterson's Grove in the eastern part of the county yesterday.

day. There will be a play Saturday night, entitled: "Those Dreadful Twins" Everybody invited. Miss Mary Skeen has returned home after teaching school at Poplar Ridge this winter. Quite a number of the young people attended the school closing at Millboro Saturday and Sunday night. Miss Hazel Barker is on the sick list. Misses Mary Smith and Mabel Pickett spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Percy Siler. Miss Edith Macon has returned from her school but is now confined to her room with measles.

Spring and Summer Millinery
I now have a complete line of Millinery Goods at reasonable prices. New and most up-to-date goods received weekly. Mrs. Millard H. Allred American Queen Corsets

See Miss Cameron For a Becoming Hat
that makes you a perfect woman. Any woman will find hats in our millinery display that will double her attractiveness. Our hats are of the best styles combining with the latest features with a touch of jaunty allure that is absolutely stunning. Come in and try on one of them and wear your first choice home; first choice is always the best. We can give you good service, and gladly show and tell you all the new ideas in trimmings. You will find prices are the kind that fit every woman and child's pocketbook. Yours to please, Miss Lizzie Cameron Liberty, N. C.

I Am Handling the Best FERTILIZERS on the market and will give the farmers of Randolph county best possible prices. See me before buying. J. A. HOLDER

Bargains! Bargains! For bargains in dry goods and notions go to D. N. Hamilton's Cash Store

Special Joyland Theatre Saturday Frank Sheridan in Verile Play of Camp Life The Struggle Coming Thursday, the 12th: Liberty See it and learn where your soldier boys went and why