community and to those in charge of the linustries of the State. If a field needs cultivating, if the machinery needs to be kept running in order to meet the exigencies of the times work ought not to be suspended in order to make a holiday. But I carnestly trust that throughout the State the day may be made one of consecration and prayer. I do urge that every man who can spare time will turn out on registration day and assist in every possible way in securing a complete registration in every precinct.

"Let the women and the children, together with the older members of the family, go to the place of registration with the boy who is to record his name as a champion of justice to all men of peace for all time."
