Cures Throat Trouble.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 6, 1902.
To-lo-tan Company, Knoxville, Tenn.
Dear Sirs—I want to contribute my mite towards the upbuilding of your wonderful remedy, To-lo-tan. My wife has been a constant sufferer from throat trouble for several months and found no relief until I was induced to try a package of your To-lo-tan. It seems to work like magic. She has taken one bottle of the tonic and used the spray only a few times, and she feels so well she has discontinued its use almost entirely.
To-lo-tan is a wonderful, and I feel that I can say of it as my friend said of its medicine.
Very respectfully,

Mr. Bryan's Prosperity.
The fact that Hon. W. J. Bryan has just completed a home at Lincoln, Neb., is being received with a great deal of pain by a number of papers throughout the north and east. These papers lay particular stress upon the fact that this house has twenty rooms, and that Mr. Bryan is not only a free silver man, but an energetic opponent of the trusts. They hold to the axiom that any man who sympathizes with the poorer classes should remain poor himself and leave to others the accumulation of riches. It is said that Mr. Bryan has already accumulated between $150,000 and $500,000 worth of property, and that his annual income is $100,000. This condition of affairs is not only a disgrace to the paper and other sources of information, but it is a disgrace to the people.

This condition of affairs is not only a disgrace to the paper and other sources of information, but it is a disgrace to the people. The plutocratic organ has no ill feeling against his money well-earned sweat and blood of the people.

ness. The pity of it is that most great fortunes in this country are not in the keeping of such men as he.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Roosevelt Greets Indians.
Washington, February 13.—A delegation of distinguished Indian chiefs headed by Chief Joseph, of the Nez Percés, and including Chief Ahiokkat, Chief Poyoptalike and Chief Andrew Whitman, of the Colville reservation, in Washington; Chief Jesse Dirk, of Oregon, and Chief Andrew John Aczneca, of New York, called on the president today. The Indians, robed in gorgeous blankets, were introduced to the president by Gen. Leonard Wood and Col. H. L. Scott, who accompanied them on their westward trip.

Loftis Locals.
Editor Sylvan Valley News:
Hello, correspondents. I thought as I had not written for awhile I would come again.

J. A. Gillespie spent Sunday night with relatives here. The farmers of our community have begun their work. They say it won't do to let the plow stand. Mr. Salts went to Brevard Saturday on business. We are pleased to say that Ola May, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hunt, who has been quite ill, is convalescing.

Quite a large congregation was disappointed at Rocky Hill Sunday on account of having no preacher. Miss Bertha Bane and brothers, of Lead, N. C., were pleasant visitors at the home of J. C. McGaha Monday night. Hurrah for Jim Crow. He can wear a smile if he wears the crown, especially if it is a little brown one. Many south. [Name] and Car.
