Mr. Street Overseer:

I take my pen in hand to drop you these few lines to let you know that I am still alive after many and various wounds from the barbed wire fences, and also after severe falls over the stumps in the middle of the sidewalks on Main street. My greatest trouble is cold in the head, caused by my hat being knocked off several times by the low hanging limbs on some of the trees over the sidewalks, and I hope this letter will find you the same; also that the barbed wires, stumps and branches will also find you the same as they found me.

Between the barbed wires, the boughs and the stumps
The traveling public get many hard bumps:

'Tis your duty with nuisances, well known as these,
To abate them at once and the citizens please.

Let me hear from you real soon.
Call a meeting of the street hands and give them my love. Your old friend,
P. B. PUBLICO.

P. S.—This is a private letter to the overseer. Please don't any one else read it. P. B. P.
