William Randolph Hearst

As a Candidate for President on The Democratic Ticket He Would Be a Winner.

Washington Correspondence of the SYLVAN VALLEY NEWS.

There have lately turned up here many friends of the Hon. William Randolph Hearst. They seem to be the most enthusiastic bunch among all the politicians who have discussed this thing of the next democratic candidate with me. They all seem to be saturated with the idea that Mr. Hearst is the only man who can win and they are willing to give a reason for the faith that is in them. In the first place they say that Mr. Hearst is the only proprietor of a great daily newspaper in the North who loyally supported the ticket in 1896 and 1900, and who fought as hard for the ticket as any man on the ticket. They claim that any man nominated in 1904 who did not loyally support the ticket, or who even, was lukewarm, will be defeated next year for the reason that the loyal democrats in the states of New York, Connecticut and New Jersey will vote the socialist labor ticket which will give those states, absolutely essential to democratic success, to the republicans. They claim that Mr. Hearst, who has endeared himself to the laboring people of the country by fighting their battles at all times, can carry every center of industrial activity in the country, thus assuring democratic success in the states of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois and California, which means democratic victory in the nation, and they say that victory is what they are after. They say that a man who has the business interests at stake as those possessed by Mr. Hearst, whose payroll amounts to over $4,000,000 a year, and who has never had a controversy with a single man ever on that payroll, can not help being a satisfactory candidate to the thousands of conservative business men of the country who did not support the ticket in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900.

They advance the claim that he is the very apotheosis of anti-trust, the only man in the country who has ever gone after the trusts with his own money and made them tremble, and that the trust question will be uppermost in the next campaign, hence their man is a democratic platform in himself. That he is the very embodiment of Jeffersonian and Jacksonian democracy. That he is a man who can hold all the votes that Bryan got and add to it the vote of labor regardless of past political affiliation, also the vote of thousands of men who are in business and whose business is jeopardized by the corrupt trusts of the country. That he is absolutely independent of the trusts and the money interests of the country, and that he possesses the money personally to give the party the greatest campaign ever waged in the nation and can duplicate every dollar of fat fried out of the trusts by the republican campaign managers. That he is young, an able executive, a philanthropist, a humanitarian, an honest lover of justice to the people. In short, they claim he can win if nominated.

That is about a fair consensus of opinion of democratic politicians who have lately visited the National Capital and talked to me concerning the next presidential campaign from the standpoint of a democratic candidate for president. CHARLES A. EDWARDS.

Union Meeting.

Catheys Creek Church having extended a cordial invitation to the union meeting to convene with them Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 28th to 30th August, inst., this is to give notice that the invitation is accepted and the following program is suggested:

Friday, 28, 11:00 a. m.—Sermon by Prof. Hall, of Broad Valley Institute. Intermission. Organization. "Why the difference in the ardent outbursts of public worship in the past and the apparent absence of emotion of the present day?" F. M. Jordan, A. H. Garren. JUDSON CORN,
J. M. HAMLEN,
For Committee.

Old Soldiers Reunion.

There will be a reunion of the "Boys who wore the grey," on Saturday, Aug. 22. It is hoped that every member of Transylvania Camp U. C. V. and all other old soldiers of the sixties, will turn out with their families and lunch baskets and have a "high old time." Those who shouldered their guns in 1861 are yearly answering to the last notes of the bugle, and very few are left for our annual reunions. Surely they should turn out once each year and devote the day to memories of the "Lost Cause." *

The Death Penalty

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality when burns, sores, ulcers and piles threaten. Only 25c at Z. W. Nichols' drug store.

THROUGH BRIDGE TRAIN TAKES PLUNGE

Accident on Denver and Rio Grande Road.

14 PASSENGERS ARE INJURED.

Heavy Fall of Rain, Almost a Cloudburst, Weakened Eridge and Under Weight of Train the Structure Collapsed—List of Casualties.

Buena Vista, Colo., August 15.—At 10:30 last night the Denver and Rio Grande passenger train No. 1, which left Denver at 9:30 a. m., went through a bridge near Nathrop, 8 miles east of here causing the injury of 14 passengers.

The most seriously injured: Mrs. Hopkins, Albion, O., bad cut over left eye and internal injuries. Mrs. Lather, Pittsburg, face badly cut; slight internal injuries. Mrs. G. Knapp, Milwaukee, badly lacerated leg.

Mrs. J. P. Knapp, Milwaukee, right leg broken.

Fred Riser, San Francisco, badly bruised about the head and face.

Mr. Benning, Corydon, Iowa, slightly injured about face and head.

C. Conley, Eldorado, Kansas, severe bruises about head.

J. D. Smith, Muscatine, Iowa, slight injuries about body.

B. O. Brown, New York city, sprained knee.

R. O. Naville, Washington, right arm badly injured.

The wreck occurred on a bridge weakened by the flood, which was almost a cloudburst.

The first engine of the passenger passed the bridge and the second got over excepting the tender. The baggage car went through and was smashed to kindling wood. The baggage man jumped and was not injured. The smoker and chair cars were turned partly over. The passengers injured were mostly in the tourist sleeper that was turned on its side in the ravine. The dining car and two sleepers remained on the track and the diner was converted into a hospital car.

A wrecking train with a number of physicians was hurried from Buena Vista at 11:30 o'clock and it was not until 3:15 this morning that the injured were brought here. That many were not killed outright was marvelous.

On the Colorado and Southern near Schwanders, 6 miles west of here, a wreck was reported at 3 o'clock this morning. The engineer and fireman are reported seriously injured.

Further details have not been received here.

Puts an End to It All.

A grievous ailment oftentimes comes as a result of unbearable pain from overtaxed organs. Dizziness, headache, liver complaint and constipation. But thanks to Dr. King's New Life Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Z. W. Nichols, druggist.

Captain Lamson Dead.

Portland, Ore., August 17.—Captain Roswell H. Lamson, United States navy, retired, is dead; aged 65 years. He was the first naval cadet to be appointed from Oregon, but was a native of Iowa.

Senator Heyburn's Romance.

Philadelphia, August 12.—Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, is here awaiting the day set for his marriage to Miss Geraldine Yeatman, sweetheart of his boyhood, and divorced wife of a doctor, who lives at Kennett Square, Pa. The wedding is to take place on Wednesday.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and injected morphine, but the child kept getting worse. I then gave him half a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and in half an hour he was sleeping and soon recovered.—F. L. WILKINS, Shell Lake, Wis. ## Execution Sale

North Carolina—Transylvania County.
In the Superior Court.
State Bank of Commerce for the use of Z. W. Nichols, Trustee, for the benefit of M. D. Cooper.

J. R. Zachary.

Notice of Execution Sale.

By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the superior court of Transylvania County in the above entitled action in favor of the State Bank of Commerce, and assigned to Z. W. Nichols, for the use and benefit of M. D. Cooper, against J. R. Zachary, I will on Tuesday, the 1st day of September, 1903, at 12 o'clock M., at the court house door of said county, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution and costs, all the rights, title and interest which the said J. R. Zachary, defendant, had at the time of the docketing of said judgment in the following described tract, piece or parcel of land, situate in the said County of Transylvania, adjoining the lands of W. A. Gash, J. L. Bell and others, beginning at a stone near J. H. Duckworth's corner and measuring 24 poles to a nail on the jumping branch thence up and with said branch to a maple in the DeVane line thence North 75 degrees E 25 poles to a holly tree in the line of J. H. Duckworth's line thence south 26 degrees East 11 poles and 20 links to the beginning. Containing 24 acres more or less, excepting however the homestead of the said J. R. Zachary, which has heretofore been allotted to him and which is included in the above described boundary and for description of which reference is hereby made to the return of the appraiser filed in the superior court clerk's office. Also excepting the following parcels of land that have heretofore been conveyed out of said boundary to-wit: One acre to W. P. Whitmore by S. E. Lucas; ten acres to J. L. Bell and wife by J. R. Zachary and wife; and three acres described in a deed from DeW. Gash and others to T. L. Gash. Recorded in book No. 16 at page 66 of the record of deeds of said Transylvania County, which said tracts excepted as aforesaid will not be sold.
This the 15th day of July, 1903.
J. C. KING, Sheriff.
