a very few years ago, that our county was going down, the property was not increasing in value fast enough to increase the tax levy to pay the debts contracted by the republicans. In fact the republicans had to levy special taxes to meet the current expenses in order not to exceed the constitutional limit and even with the high rate of taxation. and with the special tax they left the county badly in debt and the democrats had to settle hundreds of dollars of back debts, and along with the debts the republicans left an expensive law suit for the democrats to attend to. The democrats have encouraged colonist tickets to points in investors by exhibiting good Washington, judgment and honesty in governing the county and by progressive and businesslike methods in attending to the finances.

Never before was Transylvania in such fine condition and it is in a large manner due to the honest and efficient manner in which the affairs of the county have been managed by our pres-
