Asheville Letter

NEWS NOTES FROM THE MOUNTAIN METROPOLIS OF INTEREST TO NEWS READERS.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

With several capital cases on the docket at this term of Superior court and with a fight in progress concerning the approaching election for or against a two thousand dollar bond issue for good roads. Asheville people have a variety of subjects to discuss but in addition to these things of local interest the eyes of the whole country are turned toward this city due to the fact that a millionaire and his wife are suing one-another for divorce and the stage settings are in this city although both parties are non residents here. The case in question is that of the well known millionaire Commodore Merrill Beecher Mills and his wife Mrs. Lila Mills and the case is being tried out west but most of the star witnesses are Asheville people of social standing. The divorce proceedings are the culmination of alleged misconduct of Mrs. Mills while on a visit to Asheville last summer and also the claim of the husband to the effect that a certain Asheville gentleman, whose name has not been disclosed alienated his wife's affections during her stay in this city. When the announcement was made that the trouble was all due to Mrs. Mills visit to this city and that a prominent Asheville man was at the bottom of all the trouble between the millionaire and his wife considerable interest was manifested in the case. Since it became known that an Asheville man was the correspondent in the case the Asheville people have been speculating who the young "Sport" could be but the commissioners in the case who are taking down the testimony of the various witnesses have so far held the hearings behind closed doors and only people who are directly interested in the case as witnesses are allowed in the court chamber. Commodore Mills secured the foundation for his divorce proceedings here in Asheville by employing detectives and sending them to this city and as soon as this was discovered by Mrs. Mills she is said to have imported detectives from New York and had them shadow the other men employed by her husband. With all of these efforts on the part of the principals in the case to bring out charges and counter charges and with the setting of the case in our usually quiet city the Asheville gossips are bubbling over with the knowledge of who is the man in the case. Up to the present writing about twenty-five young men of good families are talked of as the right man] by some of those busy bodies, but it is hard to tell who's who and what's what.

As stated in this correspondence the city board have decided to increase the liquor license from one thousand dollars per year to two thousand but the matter has been changed so that there is only an increase of two hundred dollars in the license tax and the sum of twelve hundred dollars has been decided upon.

One of the largest real estate deals closed in this city for some time is the sale of the Golf Club Grounds at the terminus of the Charlotte street car line. The property was purchased from the

Don't You Like This Town?

You live here. Your business interests are here. Your home is here.

You are reading a Mail Order Catalogue. That indicates that you are not spending your money in this town. You are spending it with strangers in a big city. That city has no use for this town except to get your money.

This town has use for your money. If spent here, your money will help to build up the town. It will help to build up your own business.

In the long run more of your money will come back to you if you spend it at home than if you send it to Chicago or some other large city. You spend a dollar with Smith, up the street. Smith spends it with Brown, around the corner. Brown is just as likely to spend it with you as with anybody else. Did you ever think of that?

All of us have to spend money. There is an art in spending it where it will do the most good. If spent so that it will circulate around this town and community, it will help this town and community. You belong to this town and community. Therefore it will help you. Isn't that good logic?

Suppose you think it over next time you pick up the Mail Order Catalogue.

Dream Happenings.
"We haven't that article in stock," said the druggist.
"Can't you give me something equally as good?"
"No, sir. There isn't anything equally as good."

"Why do you cease talking?" inquired the visitor to the opera box. "Do I interrupt a tete-a-tete?"
"Oh, no!" replied the charming hostess. "But the curtain is up. Conversation now might disturb the audience or perhaps those on the stage."

"Missus," began the cook, "I have been with youse now a year. I hopes my services pleases."
"They do, Marie Antoinette. You may consider your position quite secure."
"Thank yez, mum."—Washington Herald.

A Sorry Prospect For the Future.
Dupre had been rather a naughty boy on the street car, and after they reached home his mother corrected him in the good old fashioned way, though not anything like so severely as he imagined.
"Now, Dupre," she said, "I hope you will remember what happens when boys do not obey their mothers and next time we are on the cars that you will sit quietly, as mother tells you."
"Yes, m-m-mother," he sobbed. "I w-will-if I am e-e-ever able to s-s-sit down anywhere a-a-again."—Woman's Home Companion.

False Alarm.
Fraulein Laura had put a stopper on the poet's protestations and refused his suit, and the poet, in a great state, drew his knife out of his pocket.
"For heaven's sake," shrieked Laura, "don't kill yourself! I will listen to you!"
"Good!" said the poet, returning his knife to his pocket. "But I was only going to sharpen my pencil to write you a farewell poem."—Lustige Blatter.

With 228 newspaper men reporting the Thaw trial, the public can rest assured of getting the whole truth and then some more.

Neighbors Got Fooled.
"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed, and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This king of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by Z. W. Nichols, druggist. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

The resolution of the Tenn. legislature regarding Senator Carmack, indicated that the people are already sorry they didn't reelect him. Carmack is the most brilliant man in the U. S. Senate.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Pack estate for the sum of twenty-six thousand dollars by Dr. C. V. Reynolds, D. C. Waddell and C. C. Millard. The property purchased amounted to about 120 acres and it is said that the plat will be cut into building lots and converted into a residential park.

Work on the new street railway whose charter was recently granted will shortly begin. The line will start at the corner of North Maine and College streets and run to the top of Sunset Mountain opening up a new territory and also the old Overlook park which for a number of years was classed among one of the chief attractions of this city for the visitors who come here in the summer months. The new company has made a statement that they will reduce the usual five cent rate in the following manner: They will sell six full fares for 25 cents and then in addition to that will give a coupon with each 25 cents worth of tickets. When five of these coupons are held by a person the company will issue one round trip ticket from the city terminus to the top of the mountain and return.

Up to the present writing Judge Boyd has not handed down his decision in the Toxaway Hotel Company's proceedings in which the company contends that it can not be adjudged bankrupted. It is understood that although the company is having trouble with its creditors and that the company's management are making preparations to open up their hotels in the Toxaway Country and it is stated that the business will be conducted under the same management. President Burrows who is in the north at the present writing announces that the Toxaway Inn will be opened the first of April and booklets to that effect are now being distributed. It is also said that the other hotels of the company will be opened later in the season.

He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at Z. W. Nichols, druggist.
