ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

I take this means of announcing myself a candidate to represent this county in the lower house of the next general assembly, subject to the action of the democratic county convention. If nominated and elected I will endeavor to further the best interests of the county and my fellow citizens. Respectfully,
FRANK L. DEVANE.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Representative of Transylvania county in the next general assembly of North Carolina, subject, however, to the action of the county democratic convention.
G. W. WILSON.

FOR SHERIFF

Responding to the solicitation of many friends in various sections of the county, I have decided to become a candidate for the office of sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic county convention. If nominated and elected shall strive to fill the office with credit to the county.
F. E. SHUFORD.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Transylvania county, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention. During the four years which I have been Sheriff I feel that my official acts have generally met with the approval of my constituents, and should I again be nominated and elected, it shall be my aim and ambition to render to the public such official service as will still meet the approval, not only of my Democratic friends, but of the entire citizenship of the county. Respectfully,
C. C. KILPATRICK.

After consulting with my friends I have decided to enter the race for the nomination for Sheriff of Transylvania county on the Democratic ticket. I therefore desire to announce my candidacy subject to the will of the Democratic County Convention, and to ask the support of my friends throughout the county. If nominated and elected my every endeavor shall be to further the best interest of my county and her citizens. Respectfully,
C. C. YONGUE.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

After many solicitations from numerous friends and Democrats of Transylvania county, and after thoughtful consideration of the matter, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the pleasure of the Democratic convention, which will be called to nominate county officers. Whatever my friends in the various parts of the county may do for me will be appreciated, and if nominated and elected will strive to fill the office to the best of my ability. This March 16, 1908. Respectfully,
Z. W. NICHOLS.

At the request of many, many friends all over the county I announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic convention. It will be my object, if nominated and elected, to serve the people faithfully.
T. S. WOOD.

Having been born and reared in Transylvania county, I have always endeavored to make a true and faithful citizen. Never having been honored with a county or state office, I take this opportunity to ask the good people of my county to nominate me as County Treasurer at the next Democratic county convention, and I shall ever be grateful to them and faithful to my duty. Respectfully,
W. L. AIKEN.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.

At the solicitation of my friends I announce myself as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds of Transylvania county, subject to the Democratic convention.
B. A. GILLESPIE.

I wish to say to my friends that I am again a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention. This is made in response to inquiries from every section of the county as to whether I would again be a candidate, and whether nominated or not, I feel somewhat flattered with having been solicited by so many prominent citizens to again make the race. Sincerely,
M. W. GALLOWAY.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Revs. J. C. and J. R. Owen went up to the Lake Monday.

Tinsley Bracken of Rosman paid a visit to town and this office last Monday.

Miss Mary Erwit of Spartanburg S. C., is visiting at the home of O. L. Erwin.

The first excursion of the season to Lake Toxaway took place last Wednesday.

Burnette Rowe, representing the L. C. Smith & Bro. typewriter, was in town several days this week.

I. C. Tinsley & Son have moved their meat market from the Miller block to Aiken & Smith's old stand.

Houston R. Harper of the Toxaway Inn and a former newspaper man made a visit to this office last Saturday.

Miss Kathleen Erwin returned last Saturday from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Spartanburg, S. C.

A government fish car went up last Wednesday attached to passenger train No. 8. The destination was Lake Toxaway.

Theodore Loftis has accepted the position of bowling alley manager at Lake Toxaway, and went up last Tuesday to enter upon his duties.

A. H. Caldwell, roadmaster on the Transylvania line, was at Rosman Tuesday cleaning out the reservoir which furnishes water for the town and railroad.

Rev. J. C. Owen came in from Louisville last week. It is his intention to spend the summer in this county. Mr Owen's friends will be glad to know of his return.

The fine Jamieson property in North Brevard, consisting of a large house and 3-acre lot, was recently purchased by T. B. Cray, through Welch Galloway as agent.

J. E. Crayton and family of Charlotte, are stopping with T. D. England. He made the trip from Charlotte in an automobile, going via Anderson, Seneca and Wallhalla S. C., on his trip to Brevard.

Passenger trains No. 7 and 8 have been lengthened by the addition of a new coach which is of the standard line type. Travelers over this line during the summer will have accommodations of the best.

W. L. Boggs of Liberty S. C., has a large crop of peaches which are now ready for market. Through the kind remembrance of T. H. Galloway, brother-in-law of Mr. Boggs, the News force has had a taste of those peaches and unhesitatingly pronounce them best of the season.

E. W. Carter and W. T. Smitdeal of the Southern depot, have temporary ownership of an automobile. They are not yet in full control, and though elated with hopeful prospects of luxurious transportation, they still have indications that their walking days are not yet over.

The delegates to the State Convention from this place kept coming back one by one, and every one as he came was at once the center of attraction for awhile. It was a relief to see them back safe and sound—except for hoarseness—and a source of great pleasure to hear them fight the battle over again.

Dr. J. S. Norman of Lumberton N. C., has accepted a position with Allison's drug store as assistant pharmacist. Dr. Norman comes most highly recommended, having graduated with honor at the Northwest University of Chicago Ill. He has also passed the North Carolina State medical board, and having had practical experience for ten years, is fully capable of filling any and all positions in the drug business.

J. A. Forsythe has been laid up for several days with an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. M. J. Orr has gone to Mills River to visit her father William Kimsey, who is seriously ill.

W. W. Hamlin returned this week from a visit to his son Jones Hamlin at Greenville S. C. He reports crops in fine condition in our sister state.

Coleman Galloway has been laid up for several days with a sore and swollen foot. The trouble was the result of poisoning from some unknown source.

R. P. Kilpatrick has started work building F. E. Shuford's house on Maple street. The location is a fine one and the building will be a credit to our town.

Leroy Ball of Asheville is in Brevard, having the contract for furnishing the new school house with plumbing and heating facilities. The work is now being carried on under Mr. Ball's supervision.

W. E. Bishop has been at work extending the water main on Maple street as far as the corner of Zachary avenue. This will accommodate the Price and Jenkins cottages, as well as the new one now being erected by F. E. Shuford.

At his office on Thursday, July 9th, our County Superintendent of Schools Prof. T. C. Henderson will conduct admission examinations for the A. & M. College at Raleigh. The College officers in charge of admission urge that all who expect to enter in September be examined at this time.

St. Philips church, the third Sunday after Trinity, July 5, 1908. Morning prayer, communion and sermon at 11. Subject, "The Original Source of Power." Sunday School at 4; Pastor's class at 4:45. Tuesday, July 7th Woman's Auxiliary at the rectory; Friday, evening prayer with address at 5:30.

A citizen interested in the general welfare suggested Wednesday night that, in view of the protracted dry spell and its promised continuance, the town authorities be urged to have the streets sprinkled. Wednesday night and Thursday a higher law than the town authorities intervened, and the work was better done.

The South Carolina Press Association, which has been in session this week at Gaufney, S. C., will pass here, July 4th on a special train bound for the Lake, where they will remain over Sunday. This is a good time for our board of Trade to distribute information about this section, to be used by the editors in their home papers.

Mrs. W. S. Price and Miss Rose Shipman gave their Sunday school classes an outing last Tuesday afternoon on Dr. McLean's lawn. Refreshments suitable to the season, such as cold drinks, cake and ice cream were served, and the young people were given a pleasant afternoon. M. J. Orr was present and contributed to the pleasure with music.

A number of leading democrats in Brevard signed a telegram to be sent to the county delegation at the Convention, while the battle was at its fiercest over the gubernatorial nomination. The telegram read: "Never go to Kitchen." And it seems that the western counties generally stood by their man, as his vote at the last reached its highest mark.

Dr. J. K. S. Case of Greenville, S. C., is visiting among his old friends in Transylvania for a summer vacation. He is the same jovial "Doc" that we used to know so well in the years that are gone. He has been practicing medicine in Greenville for the past twelve years and has built up a large and lucrative business, and a summer rest among our mountain breezes and ice-cold springs has been richly earned and will do him a world of good.
