LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

B. J. Wilson of Selica was the guest of W. T. Bosse last Friday.

Mrs. C. R. Sharp and son Sherrell of Calvert spent the day in Brevard last Wednesday.

Dr. George A. Robertson of Louisville, Ky., is on a visit to his aunt Mrs. John F. Henry.

Rev. R. G. Tuttle will preach at the new school house at Selica next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

F. L. D. Thomas and daughter, Miss Bertha, of Buck Forest spent Friday night of last week at the home of Mrs. J. J. Miner.

Miss Vera House, of Balsam Grove, formerly a student at the Brevard Institute, was a visitor to Brevard several days last week.

Capt. and Mrs. Beecham of Baltimore, Md., who have been summering in Brevard at the Henning Inn, left Wednesday for Hot Springs.

Clothing made by the International Taylors is advertised in our columns this week by M. J. Glazener & Son of Rosman. See their ad.

Mrs. R. S. Fuller, of Altamonte Springs, Fla., who has been spending the summer at the Henning Inn, left last week for her southern home.

Mrs. Marge A. Glover and daughter, Miss Leora, who have spent the summer with our photographer, E. H. Glover, left for their home at Wekiwa Springs, Fla., Tuesday of last week.

The average attendance of the graded school last month was pulled down by the scarlet fever scare. Over two hundred pupils are enrolled in the second month, and the number is still increasing.

N. S. Patrick, of the American Machine and Manufacturing Co., of Charlotte, N. C., who has had the contract for putting in the pipes for the steam heat at the Transylvania Cotton Mill, left Wednesday for Charlotte.

Miss Osie Miner entertained a number of her friends last Friday night with a candy breaking. About twenty guests were present and the enjoyment was without limit. A candy breaking, it should be explained, is a social where partners draw lots for kisses. It is an occasion much dreaded by young ladies, but submitted to in charity.

Tuesday morning dawned clear as most of the days during the golden weather of the past few weeks, without sign of fog or haze. During the morning a mysterious smoke began to cover the country, and in mid afternoon the sun appeared a ball of red fire, shorn of his beams. The sudden arrival of these vast volumes of smoke caused considerable surprise and comment and the opinion was hazarded that the Michigan or Pennsylvania forest fires might be the origin of it.

A piece of human flotsam left by the receding waves of a circus drifted on our shores last week, and reproduced, to the delight of the curious, the tricks learned and practiced in the big show with the bicycle. His wheel was made to do unheard of things. He reared the fore wheel in the air, and flew around on the rear wheel. He stood on his head in the saddle, and rode about with his feet in the air. While in motion he detached the front part of the machine, threw it away, and rode on the remainder. Leaning a twenty-foot ladder against a telephone pole, he carried his wheel to the top round, mounted and rode down the ladder. And many other wonderful things were done by the little man, whose back was bowed to just the degree favorable to handle a bicycle.

T. W. Whitmire advertises free pool tickets in this issue.

The News enters this week among its advertisers the firm of Thornton & Minor of Kansas City, Mo.

Gene Aiken of Rosman was in Brevard last Saturday circulating among his old friends and acquaintances.

The town is now without a night watchman, owing to the resignation of T. O. Duckworth from that position.

Miss Addie Thomas of Buck Forest has the thanks of the News office for a box of apples received Wednesday.

Farmers have little more time than other folks to rest. They are now breaking the ground for the coming crops.

Ed Mackey, who has been holding down a position with the steam heating force at the cotton mill, left Tuesday for Clyde, N. C.

A great many people visited Brevard Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week to attend the county Baptist Association.

Misses Kilpatrick & Loftis will move their stock of millinery goods from the Dunns Rock building to the store room occupied by C. B. McFee in a few days.

There is to be a box supper at Round Top school house this (Friday) evening. An invitation is extended to the young people of this community to be present.

Remember the box supper for the benefit of a public school library at the graded school building next Monday night. The object is a worthy one and we urge a liberal patronage.

Tommie D. Clayton remarked last Saturday that he cast his first vote when he was sixteen years of age. "It was the best vote I ever made," he said. "It was at Malvern Hill, for Jeff Davis and Zeb Vance, and was cast in Charles Osborne's hat." This was an early start, and in the right direction.

Registration is going on apace at the different precincts. Now is the time to be entered upon the permanent roll. In the coming election many young men will vote for the first time. They should bear in mind that the ballot is a sacred privilege, never to be trifled with if they would keep their manhood unstained. He who sells his vote sells his manhood, and he who buys another's vote, parts with his own honor for nothing.

Selica and Rosman are contending for the location of the State High School for Western Transylvania. The county board of education, being unwilling to decide the question, it has been referred to the state board for settlement. Both districts have recently built new school houses, of which they are justly proud. The school at Rosman is already well under way, with Miss Nannie Jordan and Miss Kitty Zachary as teachers.

J. J. Miner returned to Brevard last Saturday after an absence of seven weeks. He had been to Kansas City, Mo., to Chicago and to St. Charles, Michigan, where he visited his father, a man now nearing the century mark. Mr. Miner was busy shaking hands with a number of people as soon as he arrived. He had in his hand a bamboo walking cane, with Filipino carvings upon it. A bystander, handling the cane, heard something rattle inside. "That must be a fishing rod you've got in there, judge," he said. "You just better bet it is," replied the judge, and unstopping the end of the cane he produced several joints, which goes to show that neither hospital treatment nor family reunions nor wearing a derby hat and smoking five-cent cigars can subdue the ruling passion.

Frank Tinsley of Pelzer, S. C., who has been employed putting in the steam pipes at the Transylvania cotton mill, returned to his home Tuesday morning.

"The Wasp" has flown to parts unknown, and we hope the stings it may have left behind are none of them so deep as to be incurable. As bee stings cure rheumatism, so the sting of "The Wasp" was intended to purify the political life-blood of our county.

The Odd Fellows of the 18th District comprising the counties of Buncombe, Madison, Polk, Henderson and Transylvania, are taking great interest in the convention called by the President of the District, J. A. Forsythe, to be held at Black Mountain, N. C., on October 28. A fine program has been prepared, a banquet will be served and a team will put on several degrees. Connestee No. 237 sends as delegates, J. W. Hamet, T. D. Neely and Milan Nicholson. All scarlet degree members in good standing will be welcomed.

Revs. R. G. Tuttle and J. E. Starnes report a pleasant trip to Little River and Laurel Creek. The first feature of their trip was a preaching service at noon on Tuesday at the Laurel Creek school house. There was a good congregation out, consisting of school children and others. After preaching they went to the home of F. L. D. Thomas where they partook of a bountiful dinner. At night there was another preaching service at the home of Mr. Thomas which was well attended and which every one seemed to enjoy. The preaching was followed by some enjoyable singing in which the daughters of Mr. Thomas and others took part. Mr. Thomas kindly invited both of the gentlemen to come again and visit with him the beautiful falls near his home, an invitation of which they are both anxious to take advantage.

Had a Close Call.

Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom Hotel, Vaughn, Miss., says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three bottles affected a complete cure." The fame of this life saving cough and cold remedy, and lung and throat healer is world wide. Sold at T. B. Allison's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
