MASONS VISIT ASHEVILLE

Quite a large number of Brevard Masons attended the special communication of Mt. Hermon Lodge No. 118, A. F. & A. M., of Asheville, last Monday night. The local men, for the most part, made the trip through the country in automobiles returning home after the banquet which was served immediately after the degree work was finished.

This special meeting of Mt. Hermon Lodge was in the nature of a house warming, the Asheville Masons having only recently opened their fine new cathedral at the corner of Woodfin and North Main streets. This new building cost about $30,000 to build and is especially designed for the use of the Masonic bodies.

The work of conferring the Master Mason's degree by the Asheville team was first class in every way, and its impressiveness was emphasized by the use of some of the Scottish Rite scenery. The musical features of the degree were made very impressive by the use of the new pipe organ and a well drilled male choir.

After the degree work the entire number present, more than six hundred, were escorted into the dining room on the main floor of the temple where the Ladies of the Eastern Star order served a delicious luncheon, after which a number of speeches by prominent Masons of Western North Carolina were listened to with interest.

Those going from the local lodge to this meeting were Thos. H. Shipman, master; R. S. Morgan, junior warden; Thos. S. Wood, treasurer; D. G. Ward, secretary; Ora L. Jones, senior deacon; C. O. Robinson, junior deacon; T. J. Lemaster, Tyler. The following members of Dunn's Rock Lodge and local Masons also were present: J. A. Miller, Jr., Henry N. Carner, C. M. Doyle, C. M. Cooke, Jr., J. W. McMinn, J. M. Allison, W. E. Bishop, E. G. Harleston, W. O. K. King, Clyde Ashworth, J. S. Broadfield, M. M. Chapman, P. C. J. E. Loftis, R. L. Gash, J. B. Brinson, J. S. Silverstein, A. J. Verdery, Jr., F. E. Shuford, E. F. Gillespie, B. E. Paxton, J. W. Burnett, O. H. Paxton, A. N. Jenkins, A. H. King, W. W. Mason, Dr. J. Y. McKinney, Carr Whitacre, and Messrs. Dindig and Harris of Pisgah Forest.

LAUNDRY OPENS MONDAY

The Brevard Steam Laundry and the Brevard Ice plant will be open for business next Monday under the management of J. S. Broadfield. Mr. Broadfield has installed a number of new laundry machines in the new building near the depot, recently erected for the laundry, and is now prepared to turn out the work in best class condition.

Mr. C. C. Harwell, an experienced landowner of Northville, will be in direct charge of the laundry work, and with his experience there should be no trouble in getting results.

Mr. Broadfield estimates that all who purchase ice books this year will be able to take advantage of the laundry work and that the laundry will be a saving of 1.00 per cent over the price in January, 1913.

Rival Authors.

Charles Reade's famous novel, "The Cloister and the Hearth" was referred to by its author as "a good medieval story." One-fifth of the material in "The Cloister and the Hearth" first made its appearance as a serial in Harper's Weekly in 1889, under the title "A Good Fight." At the same time, Reade was the author of "The House of Hargrave," likewise "A Tale of Two Cities" was being serialized in the same journal. Reade, not entirely satisfied with the agent's offer, wrote the Harpers in regard to payment: "A Good Fight" is a masterpiece. "A Tale of Two Cities" is not a masterpiece."
