

KILL the SCRUBS

Raise Chickens That Pay

It costs no more to keep a good Wyckoff Egg-Producing Leghorn than it does scrub fowls. Eggs for sale at $1.50 per setting of 15, or $7.00 per hundred. Day old chicks $15.00 per hundred. Write, phone, or better still, come and see the flock of 2400.

S. M. MACFIE, Rock Brook Farm, BREVARD, N. C.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. James W. Hayes spent the week end at Marshall on a visit to his father.

Mr. J. L. Bell left Monday for Davidson and expects to be away for some time on business.

Mr. L. B. Ledbetter of Davidson River is having erected a dwelling house near the railway station.

Mr. R. H. Zachary left this week for Wrightsville, Ga., where he has extensive lumber interests.

Mrs. Goode Chatham spent Monday in Asheville on a shopping trip, returning home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Oulla of Florence, S. C., are visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. King.

The Union Bible class will meet Friday afternoon at 3:15 at the home of Mrs. Chas. B. Deaver, on Main street.

Mrs. A. H. Caldwell, son Archibald and daughter Isabella, who spent the winter in Tucson, Arizona, returned home last week.

Mrs. Florence Spencey of Brevard is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Callahan, of this city. Spira Journal.

Miss Steacie Snelson and Mrs. John Cantrell and children are on a visit this week to Mrs. M. M. Snelson of Marshall, Mrs. Cantrell's mother.

Mr. J. C. King was taken to Asheville Sunday for hospital treatment and underwent an operation rendered necessary by his long illness this spring.

Mr. Julius Gluzener of Calvert came home from school at Mars Hill last Saturday for a few days visit, returning on Tuesday to enter the summer school.

According to a statement in Monday's Gazette-News the owners of the Franklin hotel have given a five-year lease on the hotel to a first class hotel man of Jacksonville, Fla.

May 10, Memorial Day, was observed by the bank, but the post office did not close. The postmaster was so busy serving his country that he forgot about celebrating till too late in the day. A truly remarkable phenomenon!

Dr. M. C. Brodie and wife arrived from Greens, S. C., last Friday. Dr. Brodie has bought a half interest in Macfie's drug store and will give his personal attention to the business.

Presbyterian church services: Sunday school every Sunday morning at ten o'clock. Preaching next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock by Dr. R. C. Reed of Columbia, S. C. Visitors are cordially welcomed to these services.

The fire alarm at eight o'clock Monday morning caused a rapid procession of autos and pedestrians in the direction of the Hunt cottages, which were supposed to be in flames. There was nothing more serious, however, than a burning chimney.

Miss Allie Belle Cloud, who is training for the profession of nurse in the Grady hospital in Atlanta, was operated on for appendicitis at that place last Saturday. Very favorable reports of her condition have since been received by her parents here.

Miss Flora Duckworth returned home Monday afternoon after the year's work at Mars Hill college. Miss Duckworth has specialized on music this year and has made quite an enviable reputation as a vocalist.

The threatening weather Tuesday morning prevented a fishing party from going to the Whitewater river section in search of the speckled beauties. Messrs. C. M. Cooke, Jr., A. H. King, J. W. Burnett and J. M. Allison had arranged to make the trip, and will doubtless go as soon as the weather permits.

The need of an uptown office for the Western Union telegraph service is being felt more and more as the town grows and business demands increase. Brevard certainly needs such an office, distinct from the railroad office, and the opening of the summer season is a good time to bring it to the attention of the telegraph authorities.

With the sale of eleven new automobiles within the last two weeks, Brevard streets have taken on the air of busy city thoroughfares, and every few minutes amateur drivers may be seen learning the art of steering under the direction of some veteran driver. The popularity of the Ford is now being contested by the Maxwell.

Mrs. J. A. Forsythe went to Atlanta on Wednesday.

Mr. R. L. Gash visited Hendersonville last Monday on legal business.

Mr. R. R. Deaver left last Thursday morning for a visit to Augusta, Ga.

Mr. J. W. Smith visited his sister, Mrs. Edmundson, at Mills River last Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Lamar Lewis left last Sunday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Lewis, of Walhalla, S. C.

Mr. Robert H. Breese of Raleigh spent the week-end here on a visit to his brother, Mr. W. E. Breese, Jr.

Messrs. L. F. Rhame and Laval Kennedy of Atlanta are visiting at the home of their uncle, Mr. Walter M. Cloud.

Mrs. J. W. Howard of Florence, S. C., has opened for boarders the house on Broad street, formerly owned by Colonel Middleton of St. Augustine, Fla.

Mr. H. W. Ownbey, who has been off duty ever since the railroad accident about two weeks ago nursing a broken ankle, is able to be up, though not yet to walk without crutches.

Brevard Lumber Co.

BUILDERS' MATERIAL

Everything in the Building Line of the very best, at the lowest prices. Come and see us.

Write or Phone 120

See FRANK JENKINS, Manager

SEE US FOR LOW PRICES.

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA

MAJESTIC RANGES ARE MADE IN ALL SIZES AND STYLES

ON LEGS IF DESIRED

MAJESTIC NEVER-BURN COOKER-STEAMER-CHEESENER-ADD-BURNER-HEAVY STIMPENSON MARBLEIZED KETTLE 12 OZ. ALL COPPER TEA KETTLE 14 OZ. ALL COPPER COFFEE POT

HEAVY MARBLEIZED PUSSING PAN-1 LARGE NEVER-BURN WIRED-DIPPING PAN-2 SMALL NEVER-BURN WIRED-DIPPING PANS-2 SMALL DUMP PANS CAN ALSO BE USED AS ROASTER

Beginning Monday May 17th and lasting throughout the week, we will hold at our store in Brevard a demonstration of the Majestic Range, anyone buying a range during this week will be given a set of cooking ware with same. You are invited to call and see the range and meet the Majestic demonstrator and let him show you the stove. Hot Coffee and Biscuit Served.

FARMERS' SUPPLY CO.

HARDWARE

Brevard, North Carolina