

Macfie-Brodie Drug Co.

(INCORPORATED)

Everything to be found at a first class drug store.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

J. C. Sales, a well-known traveling man from Fletchers, was a business visitor to Brevard Monday.

Miss Lucy Holden of Pisgah Forest is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Nicholson.—Jackson County Journal.

Mrs. J. R. Owen, of Mars Hill, N. C., is spending some time in Brevard visiting her many friends here.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edmund Woodbridge, of San Jose, Costa Rica, on July 19th, a son—George.

The appearance of the residence of Mayor T. W. Whitmore has been greatly improved by a fresh coat of paint.

Marriage license has been issued for Baxter Fowler (20) and Miss Florence Holden (20), both of Boyd township.

Solicitor Michael Schenck spent Monday in Brevard, coming here to represent the state in a trial before the recorder.

W. P. Whitmore, Jr., of Hendersonville, is spending some time with friends and relatives in Brevard this week.

G. O. Vincent, of New Orleans, one of the most prominent bankers of Louisiana, is spending several weeks at Rockbrook Farm, the country home of S. M. Macfie.

Welch Galloway spent Wednesday in Waynesville looking after the interest of some of his clients in the Haywood Superior court, which is now in session in Waynesville.

Sam Early and Miss Prudie Bantler, both of Hogback township, were married by Esquire T. C. McCall Thursday, July 15. Only a few friends were present at the ceremony.

The descendants of David Forsythe and their friends will hold a reunion at Neal's Camp, Franklin, Ind., on July 31st, to which Recorder J. A. Forsythe and family are invited.

Thos. M. Beezely, an aged resident of the East Fork section was buried at East Fork church last week. We trust we may be able to give a fuller account of his life in a subsequent issue.

Dr. R. S. Morgan severed his connection with the Macfie-Brodie Drug Co., last Friday and on Saturday took charge of the drug store at Rosman, which he recently purchased from G. H. Paxton.

Mrs. R. G. Dawkins, mother of Mrs. A. W. McDaniel, and Miss Edith Taylor, a cousin, both of Toledo, Ohio, have been spending some time with Rev. and Mrs. McDaniel. They will leave Friday for their home.

The regular July communication of Dunn's Rock Lodge No. 267, A. F. & A. M., will be held Friday evening at 8:30. There will be work in the Fellowcraft degree. All members and visiting Masons are urged to attend.

The proceeds of the box supper at Rocky Hill church, Cedar Mountain, on Saturday night, July 21st, will be applied to a normal singing school to be held at that place beginning December 20. This is done so as to make the tuition for boarding pupils as cheap as possible.

W. H. Duckworth has sold his meat market on Main street to S. E. Allison and C. C. Young, who will take charge August 1st. Mr. Allison has resigned his position with the Brevard Light & Power Co. and will take charge of the market. He is no novice at cutting meat, having had considerable experience in the past.

Miss Katie Payne, Miss Barelay and Miss Elwang, all of Louisville, Ky., are spending two weeks at the Hunt Cottages.

While engaged in play in the Franklin Park last Thursday afternoon Percy Verdery, the young son of A. M. Verdery, Jr., attempted to jump a ditch landing just on the edge of the bank, breaking his leg. The injury proved to be very painful but at present the process of "knitting" is under way, and it is thought that in a few days will be well again.

Miss Rosa Allison was called to her home near Charlotte last week by the death of her father, who in drawing a bucket of water from a well was struck on the head by the windlass. Mr. Allison only lived a few hours after the accident and his daughter did not reach home before he died. Miss Allison has a large number of friends in Brevard, who deeply sympathize with her in this hour of trouble.

HENRY N. CARRIER

J. A. MILLER, Jr.

MILLER SUPPLY COMPANY UMBER

Our stock of Building Material is very complete. We have the Cortright Metal Shingles, Clinchfield Portland Cement and Ivory Cement Plaster agency. We carry Lath, Pine Shingles, Red Cedar Shingles, Doors, Sash, Glass, Blinds, Mantles, Moulding, Sash Weights, Sash Cord, Nails, Fletcher White Lime, Plaster Hair, and building material in general. Our Yard and Warehouses are just across the Railroad from the Depot. Our Mill is near by and we can make anything you may need. Come and see us at our office in the Old Laundry Building. No job too large, none too small. We give all mail orders prompt attention and deliver all orders as prompt as possible.

MILLER SUPPLY COMPANY

PHONE 155

BREVARD, N. C.

SUMMER SPORTS

THE STORE FOR SPORTING GOODS

KEEN KUTTER

If you are planning a fishing trip, you cannot find a more complete assortment of fishing tackle, lines, rods, reels poles and bait of all kinds than you find here.

If you play base ball, we sell the leading makes of gloves, balls, masks and bats.

Tennis balls and racquets---roller skates---no matter what sport you like, we have every thing you may need. Our prices, too, are considerably lower than you pay elsewhere.

FARMERS' SUPPLY CO.

HARDWARE

Brevard, North Carolina