CARR LUMBER COMPANY PROPOSES NEW ROAD

(Boylston Items.)

While Brevard people are talking and rejoicing over the tannery that is going to be built, Boilston people are boasting of a railroad that Mr. Carr of Pisgah Forest is figuring to make, leading from Pisgah Forest through Boilston and up Dry creek and on to the government land. Mr. Carr was in our section last week and said he was going to work on the railroad soon. We also hope for "4 B" Boilston soon.

Hurrah for the four "B's."

Messrs. Charlie Hollingsworth and Coy Sims have gone to Dalton, Ohio, to work in an ammunition factory.

Rev. Earnhardt of Etowah took dinner at the home of Vance Smathers Friday.

C. S. Smathers killed a beef and also a hog Thursday.

Vance Smathers and Harvey English are logging for Sutton Wilson of Enon.

Mrs. Ona Smathers Garren of Henderson county spent a couple of days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smathers.

We are all glad down our way to hear of the "4 B." Brevard, also of the good work Joseph S. Silverstein is doing.

Chestnut wood is still passing through our section to Blantyre.

Mrs. Rachel Lee, daughter of Henderson county was with her father on Sunday and Monday.
