WHAT IS TRANSPIRING IN AND ABOUT RALEIGH.

Raleigh on a Big Building Boom-Auditor Sanderlin Improving--New Tobacco Factory --Miscellaneous. BY OUR RESIDENT CORRESPONDENT.

RALEIGH, September 12, '91. Raleigh is certainly on a building boom. A party who applied to a contractor a few days since to build a house, was told by the contractor that he had more work than he could do, and could not get hands enough to carry out the contracts he already had. This looks as if the demand for more houses is going to be supplied.

PRETTY STORES. Many of the Raleigh stores will present a handsome array before the Exposition is upon us. Messrs. Tucker are having their front stylishly painted in olive green and gold. It is very at tractive. Messrs. Stronach are also having their front handsomely painted.

A NOVELTY. Mr. J. I. Thompson will have a nove advertising scheme for the Exposition. He will give magic lantern views with accompanying advertisements. The pictures will be thrown on a canvass in front of Metropolitan Hall and are said to be similar to those which have so often been seen at Madison Square in

It has been suggested in connection with the approaching grand musical festival at the approaching Exposition that it be made a permanent autumn festival and that it be held in Raleigh every fall. It should by all means be done. Raleigh is itself a musical centre and would itself lend strong aid in making the occasion a success.

THE NEW PLUG FACTORY. The plug tobacco factory of Mr. Phil. Taylor will be 40x80 feet and four stories high, with a large basement. There will be employed from 50 to 75 hands. foundation and basement.

WANT MONEY. Governor Holt this morning received a very large photograph of the Confederate soliders' and sailors' monument, which is partially erected, at Richmond. The Governor is requested to urge the Legislature to make an appropriation for the purpose of placing a memorial stone in the monument, at a cost of something like $1,000. The Governor is the other Southern States will do. STILL IMPROVING.

Auditor Sanderlin is getting along quite well, though slowly, being yet very sore after his terrible falltat Third creek. His left side cannot yet be touched without giving him great pain. He is bruised nearly all over his body and limbs. He had his bed made up in the sleeper so that his feet were toward the engine. That saved his life.

PAYING UP.

The bondsmen of ex-Sheriff Rogers met vesterday and made an assessment to meet the shortage. They assessed themselves $2,400 and found they had $506 on hand, making $2,906. This leaves $1,000 yet due which will be paid by October 1st,

SAW A DUSKY GHOST.

Country Folks Stupefied by an Apparition on a Roof. BURLINGTON, N. J., Sept. 11.-A girl sonnambulist at Springside, a suburb of Burlington, furnished a foundation for a first-class ghost story that set the whole neighborhood agog. A week or two since a boy named Gamble, passing the residence of Joel Atkinson at a lonely part of the road at a late hour, was startled by seeing a tall female form enveloped in white parading around the edge of a French roof with stately step, holding a letter in her hand. With hair ereet and bulging eyes Gamble ran home and told the harrowing tale to unbelieving ears. A few nights after two Asay children were frightened by similar spectacle on the roof, and Gamble's sister, a night or two later, scurried home bleached and breathless and told of seeing the apparition sitting on the edge of the roof dangling its legs over the eaves.

of the masquerade on his mansard, and darkly hinted that his house was haunted. He pooh-poohed the story, the mist and eventually disappeared. and a watch was set. For several nights the vigil was in vain. Last night, however, the supposed spook, sporting a long white garment, was seen to climb out of the dormer window and reach the roof. Everybydy but Atkinson was frightened. He entered the house and going to the attic discovered that his to be at the Bethany Faith-Healing domestic, a colored woman, was the she returned to her room of her own that city, after he had personally conaccord, and then awakened her and told her of her mighty adventure. Six Hundred Condemned Buildings Thronged With Tenants,

NEW YORK, Sept. 11 .- Six hundred buildings are recorded on the books of the fire department of New York as "condemned." In every instance an official notice was posted upon the front door of each building, headed by these words, "This building is condemned," and in every case that warning was promptly torn down or another bill pasted over it before the Inspector had turned the corner. In every one of these business progresses as briskly as ever. This is the class of atructures that tumble down and make Park place disasters.

The Finest Ship-Yard In the World.

Sometime ago when the Manufacturers Record stated that the ship-yard at Newport News, Va., built by Mr. C. P. that would set that power into good Huntington, at a cost of $3,000,000, was the finest ship-yard not simply in America but in the world, some of our readers could scarcely believe that this was true. That Virginia had the best patch. ship-yard in the world was to them incomprehensible. Last week Mr. Irving pump. W. Scott, president of the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, which built the United States Cruiser Charleston. and Mr. C. H. Cramp, the Philadelphia ship-builder, returned from a tour of inspection of all the great ship-yeards in Europe. In an interview published in the New York Press, Mr. Scott said: "I visited the great ship-yards of Hamburg, Barrow, Belfast and Glasgow-that is to say, the Dutch, English, Irish and Scotch yards.
