The Republicans of the 3rd Congressional District met in Convention at Fayetteville on Friday, Sept.
9th, Hiram Brown called the convention to order. On motion a committee on credentials was appointed.
Hon. Ralph P. Fuxton was made permanent chairman of the convention.

The committee on credentials reported no contesting delegations.

On motion to hear from the candidates five responded, Mr. S. T. Buchanan and Mr. A. M. Clark of Moore, Mr. Monk of Sampson, Mr. O.
J. Spears of Harnett, and Rev. Edward Bull of Craven, after which the candidates were put in nomination.
Mr. Clark of Moore, was nominated on the 1st ballot for Congress.
This nomination was then made unanimous.

Messrs. Oscar J. Spears and E. V.
Cox of Harnett, were placed in nomination for Presidential Elector, Mr.
Cox withdrew and Mr. Spears was elected unanimously.

With a vote of thanks to the chairman the convention adjourned.
Mr. Clark, the nominee for Congress, is a native of Connecticut, and has been seven years in N. C.

Every township in Harnett ought to organize a Democratic Club. Let the chairman of each township call a meeting and organize and go to work.
Best good can be done in the clubs.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

22 WHITE MEN AND 64 NEGROES
IN ATTENDANCE.

The Republicans met in convention here in the Court House last Saturday to select delegates to the Republican State convention. There were present 22 whites and 64 negroes. The convention was called to order by Mr. P. T. Massey who called on Mr. J. R. Coats to preside over the convention.

Mr. Coats said that he was glad that the Republican party could meet once more in Johnston county, and although they were few in number; their principles were right and would eventually succeed and wished for the time when they would again have the power in the State; the time would come when their enemies, the Democrats, would have to lick the dust, as it were, at the feet of the Republicans.
He applied a scriptural passage to himself and said "that where two or three are gathered together in thy name, lo, I am with you."

The next business was the selection of a secretary. (We suppose the bosses had neglected to fill this place in their caucus.) John Beckwith, colored, moved that J. W. Byrd, colored, be made Secretary, and Freeman Ennis, col, seconded the nomination.

We would that we were able to describe the look on the chairman's face when this nomination was made.
He looked the crowd of whites over again and again but he could not see J. M. Byrd. He was one that did not want a negro secretary. He feigned that he did not hear the nomination made and sat in the chair as still and deaf as a mute. He was in a quandary. He knew not what to do. Three or four minutes passed and the boss, P. T. Massey, whispered to him and he put the question, and Byrd was elected secretary with but one dissenting voice and that was W. T. Cox of Bentonsville. He voted no. He don't take any negro secretaries in his.

A committee of four white men and one negro were appointed to select four delegates and four alternates to the State convention. They reported as follows: delegates, D. W.
Fuller, J. R. Coates, J. B. Dupree, Rev. W. T. H. Woodard (col); alternates John Sanders, Joseph Langston, J. W. Byrd (col), A. W. Smith (col).

John Beckwith (col) moved that the delegates be instructed to vote for the putting out of a State ticket, and made the only speech of the occasion, giving very good reasons for his position.

John Sanders opposed the motion and said if they wished to aid the Democratic party to do what John Beckwith said; the Republicans need help now and their only hope was to act with the People's party.

P. T. Massey also opposed the motion; he was in favor of uniting with the People's party; they could not hope to gain anything by a State ticket they needed some help to watch the Democrats, and the People's party would help them; and he moved that the delegates be instructed to oppose a State ticket.

No one seconded John Beckwith's motion and the chair was about to rule it out because it had not received one, finally a negro seconded it and the chair put the question and it was voted down. Mr. Massey's motion was then put and was carried.

The convention was completely under the control of the white bosses and John Beckwith was the only negro who would dare to assert his rights. The negroes could easily have controlled the convention if they had stood up and wanted too, but they sat still and let the minority rule.

The roll of townships was called and only 9 answered. Clayton, Cleveland, Boon Hill, Wilders, Oneal's and Wilson's Mills were not represented.

Among the white men were six office holders, P. T. Massey and H.
M. Barnes Revenue officers; John Sanders, judges; Joe Langston, store-keeper; J. D. Massey and Wm.
Gurley. Post-masters, —Smithfield Herald.

The negroes of the South are the biggest cranks in the world. Ask them who are their best friends, who gives them work to do, who they live among, and they will tell you the white Democrats, and yet they walk right up to the poles and vote again t the white peoples interest and welfare.

One feature of Montana's mineral display will be a genuine brick of gold worth $230,000.

N. C. R. vs. THOMAS LONG

Thos. B. Long is the nominee of the People's party on the State ticket for Auditor. Mr. Long was the agent for the North Carolina Railroad at Salisbury from August 1868 to October, 1869,—a little over a year. He had given a bond in the sum of $10,000 for the faithful and honest conduct of the duties pertaining to this trust. The Railroad Co. discovered by and by that their agent was not making full and complete returns of the proceeds of the office.
He was dismissed from service, and an investigation instituted which developed the fact that he had been unfaithful to the employing company to the tune of several thousand dollars.

An action was instituted by the company to recover the amount of his defalcation. The suit was brought in this, Alamance, county, it being the domicile of the company, and upon trial a verdict was rendered by a jury for the sum of $5,951.94 against the defendant Long in favor of the plaintiff company. All the records of the proceedings, judgment and all, are now on file in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Alamance county. And the judgment has not been satisfied to this day.

Several years ago, when said T.
B. Long began to aspire to political honors, he went to Col. Thos. M.
Holt, then President of the N. C. R.
Co., now Governor of our Commonwealth, and asked the company's best terms for the adjustment of the matter. Col. Holt proposed to remit all interest and to accept fifty cents on the dollar as full satisfaction of judgment. Mr. Long said the proposition was liberal and satisfactory, and that he would pay it off. Already, several years have elapsed and Mr. Long has not paid a penny of it.

Such is the record of the man former Republican whom the People's party has nominated for the office of State Auditor, whose business it is, briefly stated, to manage the finances of the State, how long would it be before he would bankrupt the State? A defaulter to manage the finances of the State would be a public disgrace and calamity. The people who believe in honest government and faithful public servants should see to it that only honest and capable men are nominated and elected to office.—Alamance Gleaner.

Senator D. B. Hill has perfected arrangements with Mr. Cleveland and the Democrats of New York to open the campaign this week in Brooklyn and will canvass the State for Cleveland.

The leaders of Republicanism of Harnett went up to the State Convention and opposed a State ticket but of no avail, some still bigger bosses said we must have one. So our men came home with heads down knowing they are gone with their party this year where the "wood vine twinneth."

While searching for relics for the woman's section of the Illinois building, a valuable piano was found that is over 200 years old, as far as known there is only one other piano like it in this county, and that is at Mount Vernon, the home of Washington; it is needless to say that the old piano will be sent to Chicago.

The head of the Third party has pulled off Dr. Exum, has instructed the chairman, Mr. Wilson, so says the Charlotte Observer, not to make any more appointments for him, that between the Republicans and Democrats, he preferred the Democrats.
Col. Harry Skinner who has forced the Third Partyites more than once this year, gives them a last death blow. By saying he will not enter the field against the Democrats in this campaign.

Over $50,000 in special premiums has been offered by different live stock associations, to say nothing of scores of gold and silver medals and other special prizes. The Expon-sition company has appropriated $150-000 for live stock premiums. The live stock exhibition will open with a dog show on June 12th, which will be the greatest kennel exhibit ever held. All entries in the cattle and horse division from the United States and Canada must be made before June 15th, 1893. This will prove of great interest to farmers and all those who are interested in live stock.
