Mr. Jas. Pearsall, we are sorry to say, is on the sick list this week.

We are glad to state that Mr. J. F. Owen, the harness maker, who has been suffering with Rheumatism, is able to be at work again.

The city authorities should see that the turpentine stills and saw mills are well looked against fire before they are allowed to run in the corporate limits.

Last Friday morning was the coldest of season, the thermometer registered 4 below zero.

The good people of Dunn did not fail to see after the poor, sick and needy, during the recent cold snap.

On the 18th Gov. Carr and other State officers were inaugurated. The legislature gave $500 for the inaugural expenses.

The New Bern Journal devotes one wide side to the announcement of the Fish and Oyster Fair which commences in that city Feb. 20th and holds five days.

Miss A. L. Young, who for some time has been in the Railroad office here, left last Friday for Elm City, where she visits friends.

Mr. Rufus Jernigan will open a first-class barbershop next door to Cos. McDonald's this week.

One of our young men the other night while talking to his best girl during a spasmodic convulsion told her in a raffish way, she was sweet enough to eat, and the young lady replied she could eat.

THE TIMES wishes our town every success and we recognize the public spirit of some of the business men, but there are some benefactors that would greatly promote our town if the people would come together on them.

THE TOWN OF GRIFTON can lay claim to more division than perhaps any small place on the continent.

The annual report of the county officers will be found in another column this week.

Rev. Mr. Simmons will board at Dr. J. H. Daniel's, Mrs. Simmons arrived yesterday evening.

Winston had the misfortune of an other big fire Monday. A large furniture establishment worth $40,000 went up in flames.

Mrs. Kate Williams and child, and Miss Bessie Robinson of Warsaw, are visiting the family of Mr. Jas. Peassall.

On account of the snow and bad weather Rev. Mr. Newton failed to fill the appointment announced last week.

Unless we see a better bid soon the TIMES considers the offer from the Chatham man as the best and think he is entitled to the Court House.

The average circulation per day of The New York World for the year was $30,462—a figure unapproached by any other newspaper printed in the English language.

The total number of advertisements printed during the year was 890,975, an increase of 107,369.

We have quite a number of little accounts against delinquent subscribers and would appreciate it highly if they would come in and settle up.

Our legislature is gradually but surely moving along, no bills of very great importance have been passed yet.

The travelling men are out on their Spring trips, and no place on the Short Cut has the pleasure of entertaining more of them than our town.

Last Friday morning was the coldest of season, the thermometer registered 4 below zero.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the General Assembly now in session for the purpose of forming a new county from parts of Harnett, Johnston, Sampson and Cumberland.

Supreme Court Justice J. Q. Lamar died Tuesday evening at Macon, Ga. his native State.

In Memoriam.

On Tuesday evening at two o'clock after a long and painful illness of nearly four months Rev. R. A. Johnson departed this life.

For 20 years one of the most prominent and highly respected ministers of the Cape Fear Conference of the Free Will Baptist church, his life was spent in striving for the elevation of his fellow man and the glorifying of his Creator.

Born and raised in Johnston county, four years ago he came to Dunn and established his carriage manufactory and up to the beginning of his illness his success was uninterrupted.

Dunn loses one of her best and most progressive citizens, the widow a kind and affectionate husband, and the bereaved children a loving and indulgent father.

THE TIMES tenders its heartfelt sympathies to the widow and orphans in this their hour of bereavement and commends them for consolation to Him who doest all things well.

Burned to Death.

ROME, N. C., Jan. 24th, 1893.

On the night of the 19th of Jan. 1893, Wiley Peacock, wife and infant, his little brother and his cousin, a colored, were burned to death and the house which they lived in.

The said Wiley Peacock was a tenant of Jeremiah Lee. Owing to the extreme cold weather and deep snow there was not much passing, and it was not found out until the morning of the 22nd.

It was decided that the origin of the fire was accidental. Some of the near neighbors said that they saw the light of the fire about 11 o'clock, supposed it to be log heaps as Mr. Lee was clearing.

The bodies were all found very near where they were sleeping except one of the little boys who was lying near where the door was.

The remains were taken up and placed in a neat box and nicely rapped and buried.

The said Wiley Peacock was a good, faithful and peaceful citizen, and a good hand to work.

Public Debate.

There will be a Public Debate at the Dunn Academic Institute Tuesday night Feb. 7th.

Negative—C. H. Dollar, C. C. Fordham, B. K. Mason.

The public are cordially invited to attend.

H. H. McKAY, Secretary.

Miss McDonald Killed at Greensboro Jan. 19th.

Miss Lina McDonald, a teacher in the Normal and Industrial school of Greensboro, was run over by the train Monday evening on the C. F. & Y. V. railroad.

She seems to have been on her way, at lunch hour, to visit a friend about 1 1/2 miles from the Institute, and to shorten the distance was walking down the railroad when the train came along, and she failed to get far enough off the track to escape.

She was well known in the State as a teacher. She graduated at Peace Institute some five years ago, and had taught in Winston, Shelby, Concord and the position she then held in Greensboro.

She was a sister of Miss Katie McDonald who once taught here and is well known in our town and her many friends in this community will bear of her death with much regret.

The State Road Congress

met in Raleigh on Jan. 19th, '93. Gov. Carr as his first official act, opened the Congress. More than 300 delegates were present representing 80 counties.

Dr. H. B. Battle permanent chairman and Dr. H. B. Battle permanent secretary. Gov. Holt addressed the Congress in appropriate words. Many papers of great value were presented and resolutions looking to the improvement of public roads were introduced and referred to a committee on resolutions composed of two from each congressional district.

After full consultation, this committee made their report, the following being a summary. That the public roads should be maintained both by taxation and by those subject to road duty, also by the convicts from the various counties through the county authorities or the penitentiary—the expense of maintaining them to be borne by the counties or as the legislature may direct.

The plan of the National League for Good Roads was outlined and the organization and establishment of a State Association and Township League to co-operate with the National League was left with the following committee, Messrs. C. H. McNamee, J. W. Wilson, F. H. Busbee, J. A. Holmes, W. E. Ardrey.

was determined on some change looking to the improvement of the public roads of the State. The personal of the body represented the best men of the State.
