THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1894. Editor, Business Manager, DUNN, N. C.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

THE TIMES job office is the place to send all orders for printing done.

Advertisement that catches the eye is the best. Several of our young men are off to Fayetteville Fair this week.

Our paper is delayed this week on account of the freight.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Racket Store in this issue.

Don't forget to remember THE TIMES when you come to the show Friday.

We wonder if any of the Pops will be just when they get to Raleigh, and if so the market house for the Capital.

Wary-Ann Butler may make a good Senator, but we think he is a bitter pill for the Republicans to swallow.

A cotton yard is being built near the school. This is an improvement that our town has long needed.

Remember we also do Imbussing work in our office. We have just turned out a lot of this kind. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Now boys get up the girls and have a good time next Friday, for Sparks' show will be in town. Ho! for the show.

The new Baltimore Job press has been running regular ever since it arrived. Send in your orders.

The longest through freight train that has ever been seen, passed here last Sunday morning. It had 52 cars.

Rev. W. C. Newton, of Wake Forest College occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

There is a good deal of turpentine being brought to Dunn just now. Our farmers seem to be "in it" even if our town is slow.

Read that new "ad" of Gaine & Jordan's watch. They can fix that old watch you have hanging to you.

Since the election the people have all gathered to work. No politics to talk about. The politicians who had so much to say before the election are dumb as a post.

Did you see our type last Saturday evening? Well he received a handsome box of flowers from a fair young maiden, which made him grin from ear to ear.

Madam Eamon has it all about that one of our young professional gentlemen will join that happy state of matrimony sometime in the month of cold December.

Look out boys! you will hear the happy peals of a wedding march break forth in our town in a few days. The Times is always correct in these announcements.

We always appreciate any little local happening that may be of interest to our readers. It is impossible for us to be on the street much and attend to our office affairs. We appreciate anything from a friend.

Subscribers—please remember THE TIMES office is always glad to get a load of wood. These are cold mornings and when our friends call on us we are forced to give them a coal receipt without our bringing us wood.

One of our merchants said last week the election that the "Pop-Ticks" were elected he would not put up his stove during the winter, but he changed his mind Monday morning, and now has his stove up.

Advertising is to business what steam is to a locomotive—it moves it. If we all had plenty of customers, then advertising would be worthless. If you would improve your business you should put in a large "ad."

The entertainment mentioned in these columns a few weeks ago will be given in the City Hall about the last of this month, the date has not yet been decided upon.

Mrs. Page who has been running the Hotel Divine will leave soon for Rocky Point where she goes into a similar business. A gentleman of a Boston will take charge of the Divine in a few days.

Several boxes of cotton have been brought to this market this week. Our merchants always pay the top of the market for cotton, also country produce. You will do well to sell your cotton at this market and bring your potatoes, chickens and eggs.

Dunn has occasionally been alluded to as a town of bad morals. This allusion does not make it true. No town in the State has made greater progress in any way during the past five years than Dunn, and it will show as good a record morally as any town can show.

Old Folks.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old People find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at Harper and Hood's Drug Store.

It May do as Much for You

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pain in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures, but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. For sale at Harper and Hood's Drug Stores.

THE ELECTION.

We would be glad to give the entire returns of the election but find it impossible to do so accurately. We will say that the entire State Judicial ticket was defeated by a large majority. There was only two U. S. Representatives elected, they being Hon. John G. Shaw and Lockhart. The Legislature is Republican by 10 votes on the ballot. Hon. E. W. Fox, of this Judicial district was elected by over 1500 majority. Our county ticket was defeated by a very small majority, so small that the result is almost a blank. Mr. G. E. Spence having only 4 majority over Mr. Sexton for treasurer while Mr. Byrd received 91 majority over Mr. T. D. Stewart for Register of Deeds.

The only successful democratic candidate that we have heard of in the county is Mr. J. G. Johnson of Ayresboro township, who was elected township constable by a small majority. We advised Mr. Johnson to give that office also to the Pops. He replied: no, I am not going to do only such a thing, I am going to hold on to it, and if the Pops don't do right I am going to arrest the last one of them. Good.

Advice to Young Men who Think of Marrying

Select the girl, agree with the girl's father in politics and the mother in religion. If you have a rival keep an eye on him. If he is a widower keep your eyes on him. Don't swear to the girl you have no bad habits. It will be enough for you to say that you never heard yourself swear in your sleep. Don't put much sweet stuff on paper. If you do you will be it read in after years, when your wife has some especial pleasure in reading upon the severest

Rather Amusing.

Mr. L. F. Goodrich, our night-watcher, while patrolling the streets by Saturday night ran up on a fellow who had too much mountain dew aboard, and not having the calaboose key made a pen and found him with holes of cotton, which he spent the remainder of the night.

Punishment known to a married man.

Go home at a reasonable hour in the evening. Don't wait till the girl has to throw her whole soul into a yawn that she can't cover with both hands. A little thing like that may cause a coolness at the very beginning of the game. If while wearing your new trousers for the first time, you sit down on some molasses candy that little Willie has left on the chair, smile and sweetly remark that you don't mind sitting on molasses candy at all, and that "boys will be boys." Reserve your true feelings for future reference. If on the occasion of a first call the girl upon whom you have placed your affections looks like an iceberg and acts like a cold wave, take your leave early and stay away. Woman in her hours of freeze is uncertain, coy and hard to please.—E. X.

Personal.

Mr. J. M. Beatty of the Smithfield Herald, was in town last week in the interest of his paper.

Hon. O. J. Spears was in town last Friday and Saturday, and although getting tired in the recent election looks gay, and happy too.

Mrs. — Ricks, of Baltimore, who has been with Mrs. M. L. Denning for some time returned home yesterday. Mrs. Ricks won many friends in our town who will ever have kind remembrance of her.

Mrs. E. F. Young of our town, and Miss Irene McKay of Dickinson, returned from Raleigh yesterday, where they went to attend the marriage of their cousin, Miss Maud Fleming to Mr. J. S. McRae, which occurred in that city on last Tuesday at 12 M.

Mr. and Mrs. McRae has many friends in this section, who extend congratulations.

Short Talk on Advertising

Don't expect the newspaper to do it all. Look out for the show window and the cases and counters.

When you advertise something of special interest in the papers, fill the window with it and have it prominently displayed in the store. Have some neat tickets printed and hung up above or near the goods.

Be sure the clerks all know what is going on. If we were running a store, running a store, we would make it the first rule that every clerk should read every advertisement published, we would have them memorize it just what we were trying to do with each advertisement—just what the goods were and where they came from and how they happened to be so cheap, or so good, or both.

The newspaper is sometimes blamed for the ill success of an advertisement, when the real fault is right in the store. Don't expect spasmodic advertising to pay. Don't ever let an issue of a paper you are using appear without your advertisement.

The day you leave the "ad" out will probably be the very day on which somebody will look for it and, not finding it, go to a competitor. The last "ad" of a series is the one that sells the goods. A man may see your "ad" thirty days in July and not buy until the 31 "ad" welds conviction into his mind.

Its last stroke that makes a horse-shoe—all others were merely preparatory. The shoe was not a shoe till the last blow fell. If that had not been given, it would only be a semblance of a shoe—merely a bent piece of iron.

A sale is secured by the last word that is spoken—by the last word that is read. If it remained unspoken, or unread, the sale would often fall entirely.

Advertising is insurance of business, but you must keep up the premiums or the policy will lapse.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31.—The President to-day issues the following: By the President of the United States of America—A Proclamation: The American people should gratefully render thanksgiving and praise of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, who has watched over them with kindness and fostering care during the year that has passed; they should also wish humanity and faith up-ecate the Father of all mercies for continued blessings according to their needs, and they should by deeds of charity seek the favor of the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29 day of November next as a day of Thanksgiving, and prayer, to be kept and observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let our ordinary work and business be suspended and meet in our accustomed places of worship and give Thanksgiving for our preservation as a nation, for our immunity from disease and pestilence, for the harvests that have rewarded our husbandry, for a renewal of national prosperity and for every advance in virtue and intelligence that have marked our growth as a people.

And with our thanksgivings let us pray that these blessings may be multiplied unto us; that our national counsel may be quickened to a better recognition of the power and good ness of God, and that in our national life we may clearer see and closer to low the path of righteousness. And in our places of worship and raise as well as in the happy reunions of kindred and friends on that lay let us invoke divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely he who has given us comfort and plenty, will look upon our relief of the destitute and our ministrations of charity, as the work of hearts truly grateful and as proof of the sincerity of our thanksgiving. Witness my hand and seal of the United States, which I have caused to be here affixed.

Done in the city of Washington on the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and nineteenth. GROVER CLEVELAND. By the President: W. Q. GRESHAM, Secretary of State.
