

Wedding and Funeral Together.
John A. Chittenden, of Ashley, Mich., on his death bed, requested that his sister, Louise, and her betrothed, Charles A. Holmsten, be married over his coffin. The wedding originally was to have taken place some weeks hence, but the date was changed to comply with the wish of the dying man, and while he lay in his coffin his sister and her sweetheart joined hands over the coffin while the Rev. John Glase performed the marriage ceremony. Then he delivered the funeral oration, and the newly married couple occupied the first carriage behind the hearse.—Cleveland Leader.

An Epileptic Recd.
An epileptic young woman, whose case is reported in the London Lancet seems to have broken the record for fits. She had 3205 distinct fits in twenty-one days, an average of 152 a day, and in one day had 320 of them. She was cured with chloral hydrate and bromide of potassium.

To Our Lady Readers.
Nine-tenths of the women of the world are afflicted with some of the complaints familiarly known as "Female Disorders," or "Women's Troubles." There is scarcely a family but has an afflicted daughter, a cherished sister, or a nearly loved mother who suffers agonies that are endured in silence to protect her modesty. Proper treatment is postponed from month to month by dread of a physician's humiliating examination, or surgeon's knife. Most of these dangerous diseases can be successfully treated at home, but there is wide-spread ignorance among even the most intelligent classes of women regarding their natural functions and organs of generation, owing to the little information having been published in regard to this subject and a modesty that shrinks from investigation about a disagreeable disease. The "Wife of a Gentleman" contains a series of thousands of cases of this kind of troubles every year. It can be used successfully in the privacy of the home and is cheap and effective. Ask your druggist for McEwen's "Wife of a Gentleman."

Providence, R. I.
Please forward six bottles of Tetterine, C. O. D. I think it strange that it is not sold here in New England, as it is the best cure for Eczema, Ring Worm and all eruptions of the skin. It is a vegetable preparation, and is entirely harmless, and gives relief to all it touches. Two applications of Tetterine completely cure it. I know also a gentleman whose hair has been covered with Eczema, and now he has a beautiful head of hair. I also know a lady who has been cured of her skin troubles by the use of Tetterine. I have also cured many cases of Ring Worm, Scabies, Itch, and all other eruptions of the skin. It is a safe and effective cure for all these troubles. Write to me for a free trial bottle. J. F. Shopshire, 245 North Main St., Providence, R. I.

Tainted Blood
Poisoned my whole system, local troubles being the origin of my suffering. My limbs and arms swelled and sores broke out. A nervous system was shattered and I became helpless. Medical treatment availed nothing.

BILL ARP'S LETTER.
WILLIAM IS AVERSE TO ANOTHER SANGUINARY CONFLICT.
The World to Him Seems Now Contented and Happy.

All is peace and harmony about Atlanta now, but I haven't forgotten when Sherman was throwing his unfeeling shells all over the city. Such a pain, such a stampede, such hopeless terror among women and children I never witnessed. I had gotten my wife and little children away, but I had to stay, and the scene was awful. Everybody and everything that could move was moving. Shells are not so terribly destructive as they were. Where now, my friend? said I. "Anywhere in this direction," said he, with a distressing smile. "I am bound to keep ahead of 'em, the infernal devils. They don't try to get me, but I do." "Where is your car and steer?" said I. "Sold 'em—sold 'em to a free nigger for two hundred dollars cash. He cut a cut enough to keep me in vittles and whisky for a week." "And then what?" said I. "Jin, the conscript camp at Decatur," said he, and he mopped the sweat off his forehead. "Where now, my friend?" said I. "Anywhere in this direction," said he, with a distressing smile. "I am bound to keep ahead of 'em, the infernal devils. They don't try to get me, but I do." "Where is your car and steer?" said I. "Sold 'em—sold 'em to a free nigger for two hundred dollars cash.
