HORRIBLE BUTCHERY.

MRS. LIZZIE NARAMORE KILLS HER SIX CHILDREN.

Mother While in a Fit of Insanity -An Axe and a (lub Used in the Murderous Work-The Children's Ages Ranged from Ten Months to Ten Years-The Mother Attempts

Suicide by Cutting Her Own Thron:

Cold Brook, Mass., March 21 .- Mrs. izzie Naramore, while in a fit of insanity this afternoon, killed her six children at her home, a farm house half mile from this village, and then tried to take her own life. The children ranged from ten years to a babe ten months, and their lives were taken by the mother with an axe and a club. She laid the bloody drenched bodies on the peds, two on one bed and the other four on a bed in another room and then attempted to take her own life by cutting her throat with a razor. When discovered she was in the bed on which the bodies of four children were lying. Although she cut a deep gash in her throat and suffered the loss of much children in two beds were found. Mrs Naramore was alive, but was very weak from loss of blood. Mrs. Nara-more was removed to the village hotel and at a late hour to-night the attend ing physicians were confident that she would survive.

During the evening a number of neighbors of the family saw and talked with Mrs. Naramore and to them she told how she killed her six chilled h dren. At the time the party of villagers found Mrs. Naramore she was asked how she did the deed, and she said that she took the lives in four different rooms and as fast as she killed one child the body was placed in a bed. The children were three boys and three tris. Ethel. 10 years old, the oldest while the ages of Walter. Charile. Chester, Bessie and Lena, ranged from 8 years to 10 months, Lena being the baby.

Antwerp, March 21.-The steamer Antwerp, March 21.—The steamer Chemnitz, of the German-Australian Steamship Company, and the British steamer Tay collided last night in the Flushing roadstead. The Tay sank and only three of her crew were saved. The Tay had put into the Flushing roadstead owing to the prevailing roadstead owing to the prevailing storm. Fourteen persons perished, in-cluding the wives of two sailors, who boarded the vessel on a farewell visit.

DROWNED IN A FLOOD. Verona, Italy, March 21 .- Later details of the breaking of a dam which caused the flooding on March 20th of the town of Cologna, by which a number of houses were wrecked, are to the effect that a number were injured, fifteen persons were drowned. The police and firemen are working strenuously at rescues. GENERAL LEE SICK.
