ANOTHER "BLACK FRIDAY" PRE DICTED.

London, May 10.—While it is hoped rather than believed that the British market is not committed to a great ex-tent to American railway securities it cannot be denied that the settlement which will begin Saturday is antici-pated with begin expression pated with keen apprehension. It is believed that British specula-tors held aloof a long time, but were tors held aloof a long time, but were unable to resist the attractions of the long-continued boom. The panic was the sole topic of conversation at West End clubs last night, and all kinds of rumors are current regarding incidents of the day. It is asserted that an American who arrived from the conti-nent inquired the price of Northern Pacific and was told that the quotation was 190 in New York and 130 in Lon-don. As he had his stock deposited with New York bankers he was able to sell at 190 in Shorters Court after hours. A prominent young dealer be-came completely unhinged and offered stocks at prices largely below the worst quotations. No one, however, tried to profit by his temporary aberration. The Stock Exchange is very supersti-tious, and ominous talk was heard last night of another "Black Friday."

John C. Calhoun's Only Love Letter.

The story of John C. Calhoun's courtship of his pretty cousin is the most formal and stately chapter in the love affairs of the great statesman. His messages to his youthful sweetheart, which show a studied effort to guard against exuberance, in confessing the gentle passion, are embodied in letters to her mother-all but one. houn's love seemingly would brook no more such a restraint, and he wrote his Florida a tender avowal, impatiently longing for the wedding day, and signed it "Your true lover." This, "The Great Nullifier's" first and only love letter, has recently come to light, and, in. corporated in an article on Calhoun's wooing, in an early issue of The Ladies, Home Journal.

geles Carnival. The city was packed. The population of Los Angeles, according to the census, is more than 100,000, but the streetz must have held almost twice as many to-day. Pasadena, Santa Monica and other neighboring towns in Souther: California, were literally depopulated. The scene on Broadway, where the reviewing stand was located, resembled Pennsylva-nia avenue in Washington on the day of an inaugural parade. Every facade flamed with bunting, flags and pumpas grass plumes, red, green and orange; the colors of the fiesta, prevailing. As each car-riage reached the reviewing stand, the la-dies in it arose and smillingly saluted the President with deep courtesies. The Pres-ident was kept on his feet most of the time returning these greetings. He appar-ently enjoyed the experience hugely, Each ledy carried a bag of rose leaves for us as confetti, and after saluting the Presi-dent she threw a handful of soft petals into his box. Before the parade was over he was ankle deep in pose leaves. This afternoon the ladies of the President's party went to Pasadema and Atook a drive there, while the President made a trip to the National Soldiers' Home near Sonta Monica. It is eighteen miles distant, and he made the journey in electric cars. Three thousand of the President's old comrades of the civil war greeted him there.
