Mr. T. P. Ragland, Dead.

The many friends of this most excellent young man throughout the county will regret to learn of his departure from an earthly existence which occurred at his home in Lillington Monday, June 3rd. He had been confined to his room about ten days before the end came with fever. He fell from his wagon several weeks ago while crossing the river on the flat, his breast striking the edge of the flat and he never recovered from the injuries received. He was about 34 years of age, and was known throughout the county, having conducted a mercantile business at Broadway, this county for a number of years, recently moving to Lillington and entering business with Mr. Fuquay.
 The writer knew Mr. Ragland personally, and in all our business transactions found him to be a most excellent young man.

To the bereaved ones, we extend sympathy.

We have just received a fresh lot of sweet and sour pickles in kegs and in bottles, don't buy before you see us. We are in the grocery business. Dunn Grocery Co.
