Industrial Growth of North Carolina.

Last Friday a dispatch was received from Washington concerning the growth of industries in North Carolina, as computed by the director of the new census, and some of the daily papers published under big headlines the astonishing statement that the "value of the manufactured products of North Carolina now amount to over $9,000,000," and thought that was a big thing! The director of the census had said so. Nine millions indeed! Why, the value manufactured product of the 250 textile mills in North Carolina alone is worth fully fifty million—and more. The raw product itself—the 400,000 bales of cotton (of the 500,000 bales grown in the State consumed by these mills—is worth $16,000,000 before a pound of it touches a spindle!

It is safe to say that the manufactured products of the cotton mills, tobacco factories—about 12,000,000 pounds manufactured at Winston (chewing) and nearly as much (smoking) and cigarettes at Durham—furniture factories, cotton-seed oil mills, etc., etc., foot up a total of over $125,000,000 annually. And yet we are gravely informed by the census bureau that our "manufactured products amount to $9,000,000," and some of our "leading daily" papers print such rot as "news" under a big five dollar head!—Special to Robesonian.

RELIEVED WOMEN
WINE OF CARDUI
has brought permanent relief to a million suffering women who were on their way to premature graves. Mrs. Mitchell was fast declining in health, when Wine of Cardui performed a "wonderful cure" in her case. She suffered with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months stopped her vitality until she was a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way. Then she tried the Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to command Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence.

WINE OF CARDUI
is within the reach of all. Women who try it are relieved. Ask your druggist for a 21 bottle of Wine of Cardui, and do not take a substitute if you find you are not getting relief. Mrs. Mitchell, South Gate, N. C., writes: "Wine of Cardui and Theobald's Blackberry have performed a marvelous cure in my case. I had been a great sufferer with falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and were very painful. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Blackberry, and now the agonies have disappeared, and I am restored to perfect health."

Throw On The Searchlight.

Yes, put us to the most severe test. We court the searchlight of public opinion. We are ready to stand or fall upon the merits of our stock, the lowness of our prices and the liberality of our dealings. If we cannot serve you best we are not deserving of your trade. The only way you can find this out is to drop in here—see our styles—inspect the character of our workmanship—get our prices—and then make your own comparison. We picked out the best makes of clothing in America. We got their Lowest Prices. There is no old stock or shop worn goods here; everything spick-span new and this season's make. An ironclad guarantee goes with every purchase.

GROCERIES.

We can dress you and feed you too. We carry a select line of Groceries at all times and will be glad to serve you. When you visit Dunn make our place headquarters. We have just added to our already large stock the entire stock recently assigned by G. K. Massengill and can give you some extremely good bargains in the line carried by him. The goods are new and going

Wanted to Lynch Aguinaldo.

Two of our prominent citizens who live within a thousand miles of where the writer is domiciled met in the public road the other day, when the following conversation occurred:

"What's the news?"
"They've captured Aguinaldo."
"Captured who?"
"Aguinaldo."
"What's he been doing?"
"Killing folks."
"Excitedly, "Who has he killed?"
"Oh, lots of people."
"Where is the scoundrel?"
"He's in jail."
"More excited, "Let's get a crowd and lynch him."
"It would be too expensive."
"Expensive! What's going to make it expensive?"
"He's too far off."
"Why, ain't he in Moultrie jail?"
"Not a bit of it."
"Well, where is he, then?"
"He's in jail at Manila."
"You mean Camila, don't you?"
"No, I mean what I say."
"How far is it?"
"About 8,000 miles."
"Get up, Jack." As he moved off he was heard to ejaculate:
"Got no time to talk with every fool I meet in the road. Eight thousand miles! Why, that's clean outside of Georgy. Aguinaldo? Don't believe there is such a man in the world. Never heard of such place as Moultrie here. These fellows what don't do nothing but read newspapers are mighty smart. Get up, Jack; lost half hour talking with that slop head when I ought to be home planting taters."—Moultrie, Ga., Observer.

Seven Years In Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from Headache, Backache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed by C. L. Wilson. Only 50c.

All the ignorance and superstition, all the credulity, chump-cry and Rubenism are not in the backwoods. The big city papers are in the habit of representing the country farmer with his long, thin whiskers and a bay rake in his hand as the essence of all that is green and gullible, yet there can be no better field than the city of Chicago for the vender of gold bricks and green goods. In that great city Sunday night a religious fakir, who had been playing for days and nights upon the emotions of the people, arose before an audience of 5,000 and proclaimed himself Elijah, the prophet. "Gaze on me," said he. "I am he that is the living, physical and spiritual embodiment of Elijah and my coming to earth a third time has been prophesied by Malachi, by God Himself, by His son, Jesus, by Peter and thousands years ago by Moses. All who believe me to be in very truth all of this will stand up." And over 3,000 people rose to their feet and greeted the declaration with cheers and hallelujahs. The people in the swamps and mountain coves of North Carolina might well take up collections to send Bibles and missionaries to Chicago.—Charlotte Observer.

Southern Vets Want No Aid.

Towards the close of the business session this morning the greatest excitement was caused by a resolution providing for a monument to the memory of Robert E. Lee.

The resolution was hooted down. The news spread over the streets and there was a rush of veterans to the reunion hall. It appeared for a moment that there would be trouble, and had it not been for the calm explanations of those at the entrance of the hall there would undoubtedly have been several difficulties among the old veterans. It developed that Sam H. Moore, of Huntsville, Ala., presented a resolution calling on the southern members of congress to secure an appropriation of $100,000 for a monument to Lee.

Cries of "No, No," and table it! rang through the hall. Several veterans declared they did not intend allowing the national government to aid in erecting a monument to Lee, as he is a southern idol, and only southerners must rear monuments to him.

Amid great cheering the resolution of Mr. Moore was laid on the table.—Memphis Dispatch, May 29th.

His Final Farewell.

A Billville citizen came to the editor and asked him to write a fitting obituary on the deceased spouse.
"How old was she?" asked the editor.
"I never heard her say."
"She was gentle and lovable, was she?"
"Well, jest tollable!"
"Had bright hopes of the hereafter?"
"Well, to tell the truth, and outlin' but the truth, I think the hereafter wuz most too bright to suit her!"
"But you want to say that she is safe in the Promised Land, don't you?"
The citizen thought a moment. Then he said:
"I reckon you'll have to put it down that way; but—I wuz kinder headin' thar myself."—Atlanta Constitution.

A Raging, Roaring Flood

Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist-deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cough and cold. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung troubles by C. L. Wilson. Price 50c.

A Kansas Yarn.

The following is going the rounds as a sort of contrast to make one appreciate the slow growth of corn in these diggings: "The horrible news comes from Kansas that a boy climbed a corn stalk to see how the corn was getting along, and now the stalk is growing up faster than the boy can climb down. The boy is plumb out of sight. There men have undertaken to cut down the stalk with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it grows so fast that they can't hack in the same place. The boy is living on nothing but raw corn, and he has already thrown down over four bushels of cobs."

Home Training.

Carving is one of the most difficult and essential duties. If mothers would carefully train their children as soon as large enough to wield a knife to carve a fowl or roast of meat, having them practice daily under their supervision until awkwardness and embarrassment are overcome, it would save much perplexity in after life. With the requisite, which consist chiefly of a sharp knife easy to handle and a careful attention to detail, a child of 12 years of age may become an expert in a few weeks, capable of presiding with grace and dignity at the head of the table. This plan has been successfully tried by a wise housekeeper and should be recommended to every lover of an orderly table.—Ex.

FOR MALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER.

The Best Prescription Is Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—its superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
