Harold & Hatcher,
—ATTORNEYS AT LAW,—
DUNN, N. C.

Has The Norfolk & Western Bought The "Angier Road."

Practice wherever service required. Prompt attention to all business. Collections a specialty. Office over DEMOCRATIC BANNER.

It is currently reported—and there are many who believe the report to be true—that the Cape Fear and Northern Railroad has been sold.

Edward W. Pou. F. H. Brooks.
Pou & Brooks,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
SMITHFIELD, N. C.

The Norfolk and Western is said to be the purchaser. No price has been stated, though it is known that it cost over $100,000 to build and equip the road. Its president is Mr. B. N. Duke, of Durham, and Mr. John C. Angier is its general manager.

E. S. SMITH. E. J. BARNES.
SMITH & BARNES,
Attorneys-at-Law,
DUNN, N. C.

This rumor, if true, is a very important one, especially for the Fayetteville and Wilmington sections.

Practice in all the courts of the State. Prompt attention to all business entrusted. Office in the old Post Office Building.

The Cape Fear and Northern is what is commonly known as the "Angier Road," running from Apex, in Wake county, to Angier, in Harnett county, a distance of twenty miles.

H. McLEAN. J. C. CLIFFORD.
McLean & Clifford,
Attorneys-at-Law,
DUNN, N. C.

It is the purpose of the Norfolk and Western, so the report goes on to say, to build the link between Apex and Durham, and thus extend its line (Lynchburg and Durham) from Durham to Harnett and Cumberland counties, and possibly on to Wilmington and the sea.

W. A. STEWART. H. I. GODWIN.
STEWART & GODWIN,
Attorneys and Counselors-at-Law,
DUNN, N. C.

Of course all this is, so far, only a rumor, and it may or may not be true.

Will practice in State and Federal Courts but not for fun.

If it is true, it will certainly be most welcome news to the people along the new line, as it will bring in a new and powerful railway system to develop the resources of the country, and compete for business. Like-wise when the road is extended it will open up to the people of the West and Piedmont sections a short route to the sea.

W. E. Murchison,
JONESBORO, N. C.
Practices Law in Harnett, Moore and other counties, but not for fun.
Feb. 20-1y.

In short, it is a consummation devoutly to be wished.—News & Observer, June 28th.

A Precious Summer Girl.
A correspondent of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch writing from Clyde, N. Y., tells of a young lady in that town who is needed here before the summer is over.

"This young woman," says the Post-Dispatch correspondent, "has the peculiar quality of being poison to insects. The instant that a fly, mosquito or other insect bites or stings her it drops dead." This interesting item of news is, as the boys say, a pointer for the City Council.

Instead of spending $30,000 for petroleum to drive the mosquitoes out of town, why not engage the young lady of Clyde for the season? What a delightful summer girl she would make! Here in Baltimore during August and September she would be the most popular lady in the city and people would flock to visit her. At Atlantic City or anywhere on the Jersey coast she would be worth millions.—Baltimore Sun.

"Dixie" Dying.

"Dixie," says the New Orleans Times Democrat, "is not received now as 'Dixie' once was, and, judging from present indications, this anthem of the Lost Cause is passing from among the popular airs of the day. One can scarcely believe that 'Dixie' is passing. But the fact remains that this air, popular as it may be, is not received with that enthusiasm which marked it in the days gone by, and, in fact, the tune seems to be something other than it was. Even the old Confederates do not shriek over 'Dixie' like they did in days gone by. Why? The future must tell. Maybe voices have grown husky. Maybe the old men are tired and don't want to yell. Maybe Uncle Sam's new policy of throwing his gig into any old island that may suit his fancy has something to do with the change. 'Dixie' dying! One can scarcely believe that 'Dixie' is passing in spite of the changes which have taken place in American politics." This may be true in Louisiana but is not in South Carolina, nor indeed in this section of the South. Every time the tune is played by band or orchestra the audience yells just as vociferously and enthusiastically as ever. What is more "Dixie" now brings hearty applause in Washington and New York where there are many southern people and is even cheered throughout the north. It is not strictly an "anthem of the lost cause," but a song which because of its sentiment and its lively, inspiring time as well as its association with the south's great struggle for independence will never cease to be popular in this section.—Columbia State.

Pay of Southern Governors.

The proposition in the Alabama Constitutional Convention to raise the salary of the Governor from $3,000 to $5,000 a year has much to commend it. In most of the Southern States the salary of the Governor is so low that a man with no other source of income can hardly afford to accept the office; thus a handicap is placed upon merit. A poor man cannot live upon the salary and maintain the appearance that is demanded by the dignity of the position. The pay of a Governor ought not to be so large that it would cause shrewd and unscrupulous men to scramble for the position, of course, but it should be large enough to offer an inducement to the best talent to strive for it. High-grade executive ability is in demand in the business world at much better than $3,000 per year. The States ought to be willing to pay good men as much as they are worth in civil life, with possibly just a little shading for the honor of public preferment.—Savannah News.

A Canning Factory.

CAPACITY 1000 CANS PER DAY.

I buy peaches and tomatoes. I sell tin cans and pack fruits to order. I use water, steam and syrup of sugar and pack fruits free from adulteration. Bring your peaches to me and I will save you money, labor, time and cost of glass jars. Fruits properly packed in tin cans retain their original flavor. This is lost in glass jars.

Deliver your peaches to me well assorted. "Presses" in boxes to themselves holding one bushel each. "Clearstones" in boxes holding one bushel each. Gather your peaches when just ripe. Let them be uniform in size and ripeness. Such peaches will bring good prices if they have any size.

I shall employ none but neat packers and guarantee satisfaction in prices, cleanliness and quality. You lose no fruits in tin cans. I teach you how to use the same tin can for any number of years. The tin can will not freeze or break and can be filled any number of times during the same season.

All ladies who are interested in canned fruits and catchup are invited to visit the factory. Factory located near Main Street, East Dunn.

Are You Guilty?

An exchange says not to be guilty of abusing your paper in the following different ways:
Don't abuse a paper unless you pay for it.
Don't delay paying your subscription because it is a small matter.
Don't cuss the editor because his opinions do not conform to yours.
Don't abuse a paper if it printed something you don't consider worth reading.
Don't have the paper sent to you two or three years and then leave the country without settling your bill and have the postmaster notify the publisher that you have left the country.

Says He Was Tortured.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ill., "but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured them." Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Cure guaranteed by C. L. Wilson, 25c.

FALCON CAMP MEETING.

This is to be a union meeting of a lot of God's people, who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of sharing it with us, and we hereby extend to you an invitation to come and be with us. Come praying for yourself and others, that all may get the most blessing possible from them, and that our God may greatly glorify himself.

Our services will begin early in the morning and continue till late at night, with just enough intermission for rest and refreshment.

Among the preachers and teachers of the Word for these meetings we will mention Rev. George D. Watson, Rev. John M. Pike, Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Todd and Rev. A. B. Crumpler, all of whom live a full walk in the Spirit, and will give us the "strong meat" of the Gospel.

We shall consider Jesus in His full and complete atonement as Saviour, Sanctifier, Healer and Coming King, and if you are hungry for "The Truth as it is in Jesus" it will be much to your eternal interest to come.

We will have company tents for all who wish to camp and you will only need to bring some quilts, sheets, towels and lantern and make yourself "at home."

The meetings will be held in a large waterproof tent, seating near two thousand people.

In coming by railroad you will buy ticket to Godwin, N. C., a station on the Wilson & Fayetteville Short Cut, and, phone from there to place of meeting for conveyance, which will be free of charge to all who are really coming for God's glory.

You can secure regular board for 50 cents per day, or can buy lunches on the grounds for 5 and 10 cents.

Remember the place, Falcon, Cumberland county, N. C. Time, July 19th to 29th, 1901. Rare opportunity afforded by the visit of these dear people of God and fail not in coming to share in this great spiritual feast. For further information write to Summer complaint is usually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is always kept on hand at the home of ye scribe. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be in easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer-time.—Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

SELECTED IT HERSELF.

A dutiful husband wished to give his wife a handsome lace scarf for a birthday present, and, to make sure of getting one to her liking, he asked her to buy one herself on the pretense that it was for a lady friend of theirs. The finest honiton, valenciennes and brussels lace goods were spread out on the counter, but madam thought to herself:

"What is the use of spending so much money on a present for Amelie?"

So embroidered lace was shown next. Even these were too dear. At length she selected a very plain and ordinary scarf.

"Quite good enough too," she thought and took it home to her husband.

"Have you chosen something pretty?" he asked.

"Oh, yes; very pretty."

"Is it just what you would have chosen for yourself?"

"The very thing."

"Then, my dear, you may keep it. I intended it for you!" exclaimed the husband, delighted with his little scheme.—London Answers.
