About Producing Great Men.

The most interesting aspect of the subject of producing supremely great men is what may be called the superstitious aspect of it. There is no other subject that we know as little about, few others about which so much has been written. The weariest weight of dull nonsense on the book-shelves of the world are the endless volumes whose authors pretend to give a logical account of supremely great men. Why Shakespeare, why he came when he did, why he did what he did—the "influences" that shaped his mind and the whole multitudinous folderol have wasted much time of industrious men and simple readers.

And in one sense it is perfectly true that a democracy cannot afford to be straining after the production of great men, even if it knew how to produce them: for the business of a democracy is to give every man a chance to develop what small or great measure of power is in him. The great men will take care of themselves when they come. How to entice nature to bring them forth—that is so far beyond us that Mr. Schurman's reproach seems academic and fantastical; and, if "all our higher institutions of learning must bear the reproach," as he said, what a task he lays on our institutions of learning! They may produce scholars, but scholars are mere hewers of wood and horny-handed sons of toil beside Great Men.—World's Work.

Wife Wants Cash or Husband.

Rosa Becker began suit against Caspar Becker and his wife, Amelia Becker, in Common Pleas Court No. 5, yesterday, to recover $50,000 damages for the alleged alienation of the affections of the plaintiff's husband, John Bernard Becker, who is a son of the defendants. The plaintiff says she was married to the defendant's son on September 25, 1900, and before a week had elapsed her husband's parents induced him by persuasions and coercions and scandalous stories to desert her, and that they transported him to parts unknown, alienated his affections and helped to conceal his whereabouts.

Mrs. Becker is now the mother of an infant child, on whose behalf, as well as her own, she brings the suit, alleging that the defendants have deprived her and the child of the natural love, society support and protection of a husband and father, and have subjected her and her child to much suffering, humiliation and hardships.—Philadelphia Record.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yields to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by C. L. Wilson. Trial bottles free.

Wasted Time.

The time wasted in waiting for other people would have sufficed to make any one of us learned in some science or some foreign tongue. Perhaps we have laid down some urgent work to meet an engagement, only to find that the one whom we are to meet has failed to come or to come at the appointed time. Waiting for meals, delayed trains and cars, for attention and change in stores—these and many other time wasting annoyances belong to busy town life rather than to the rural life, which we are taught in books to associate with carelessness in regard to the value of time. Annoying as these intervals of idleness must often be, it is a pity to make them worse by impatience. Accepted as inevitable, they may often be of use in securing our brief intervals of refreshing quiet in the strain of a busy day. Sometimes they are of use in observation, study or meditation. At the worst they ought to confirm us in the purpose never to levy upon others an unwilling tax of time by our careless or self-indulgent tardiness.—Congregationalist.

A Canning Factory.

CAPACITY 1000 CANS PER DAY.

I buy peaches and tomatoes. I sell tin cans and pack fruits to order. I use water, steam and syrup of sugar and pack fruits free from adulteration. Bring your peaches to me and I will save you money, labor, time and cost of glass jars. Fruits properly packed in tin cans retain their original flavor. This is lost in glass jars.

Deliver your peaches to me well assorted. "Presses" in boxes to themselves holding one bushel each. "Clearstones" in boxes holding one bushel each. Gather your peaches when just ripe. Let them be uniform in size and ripeness. Such peaches will bring good prices if they have any size.

I shall employ none but neat packers and guarantee satisfaction in prices, cleanliness and quality. You lose no fruits in tin cans. I teach you how to use the same tin can for any number of years. The tin can will not freeze or break and can be filled any number of times during the same season.

All ladies who are interested in canned fruits and catchup are invited to visit the factory.

Factory located near Main Street, East Dunn.

The Same Old Story

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

Rules Governing Applications For Pardon.

Clerk of the Court J. H. Withers received the following notice from the Governor's Private Secretary in reference to pardons:

Raleigh, N. C., July 20, '01—His Excellency, the Governor, has made the following rules with reference to applications for pardons:

Rule 1. Notice must be given by the applicant for pardon, or someone in his or her behalf, for not less than two weeks, such notice to be inserted in a conspicuous place in some newspaper published in the county for two weeks. If there is no paper published in the county, then the same to be posted at three public places in the county as follows: At the court house door, at the post-office door at the county seat, and at the post-office door nearest the place where the crime was committed, for which pardon is asked.

Rule 2. Such notice to be substantially as follows: STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, County, Notice is hereby given to the public that application will be made to the Governor of North Carolina for the pardon of ———, convicted at ——— term of the Superior Court of ——— county, for the crime of ———, and sentenced to ——— for a term of ———.

Rule 3. The same requirements, with reference to notice, obtain in matters of commutations or respites as well as in pardons.

Rule 4. Proof that the notice, as above required, has been given must accompany the petition or application for pardon.

Rule 5. These rules take effect from and after this day. These rules are made that the greatest publicity possible may be given to all applications for pardons in order that all persons interested may have an opportunity to be heard before the Governor.

P. M. PEARSON,

Private Secretary.

The attention of parties applying for transcripts of records, is called to the foregoing rules. By strict compliance with the same, delay will be avoided.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was yellow jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Only 25c, sold by Wilson, Drug-gist.

All this talk about European Tariff combination can be discounted and squelched by a tariff on tourists. A head tax of $10,000 on each American going to Europe would take the bread out of the mouths of the kickers over the water.—Jersey City "Journal."

Job Couldn't Have Stead It

If he had itching piles. They are terribly annoying; but Bucklen's Arnica Salve will cure the worst case of piles on earth. It has cured thousands. For injuries, pains or bodily eruptions it's the best salve in the world. Price 25c a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. L. Wilson.

Some curious crank has reared up on his hind feet and asked, "What does the Democratic party stand for?" We suppose because it is tired of running for nothing.—Yellow Jacket.

The Best Liniment for Strains.

Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by Hood & Grantham.
