This paper positively will not accept for publication from any one notice of land sale, or administrator's notice without cash with copy. This applies to all. Rates—medium size $2.50; larger $3.00; administrator's notice six weeks $3.00.

—Cotton 8¢ to-day.
—To-morrow, big opening day of the Dunn tobacco market.
—Read the cards of the new law firms in this issue.
—The crop 'out-look in this section is improving.
—Read the financial statement of the town in this issue.
—Watch THE BANNER and trade with those who advertise.
—Our town is now being supplied with a lot of nice watermelons from the country.
—Last Sunday being the 5th Sunday there was no preaching in town.
—The county commissioners will be in regular session at Lillington next Monday.
—Look for a large crowd in town tomorrow. The tobacco opening promises to be a great success.
—Kansas seems to get it in the neck all around—the drouth and Pfeffer and Nation and Lease.

—Mr. C. E. Pope has accepted a position on THE BANNER, Mr. T. H. McNeill having taken a position in Wilson.
—See the change in Layton & Pearson's "ad" this week. They are offering special bargains in ladies' dress goods.

—WANTED—A few customers to use from two to five pounds of Battleboro butter per week. For further particulars see T. C. Young & Co.

—Mr. K. L. Howard, the crack first baseman for the "wild cats" is smiling over the advent of a little girl in his home last Sunday night.
—An order should be issued making some of the side-walks wider so as to give plenty of room for the boxes, barrels, chicken crates etc.

—The games of ball that were to have been played here between Dunn and Durham last Thursday and Friday have been postponed until some future day.

—Last Thursday evening quite a severe hail storm struck about one mile southeast of Dunn, doing considerable damage to crops, especially cotton. Dr. Hudson's farm in Cuberland was almost destroyed.

—If you have visitors we will appreciate it if you will call us up and report their names. It is impossible for us to find out the names of all who visit our town.

—Ex-Sheriff D. B. Hooker, of Pamlico county, spent a few days in Sampson this week prospecting in the timber business. Mr. W. E. Baggett brought him to Dunn yesterday.

—Mr. J. C. Williams, of Giles' Mill, lost a purse several days ago containing about three dollars or less, also some valuable papers. The finder will please return and get a reward of $2.50.

—The protracted service at the Baptist church commenced last Monday night. The pastor, Rev. W. C. Barrett, is conducting the services at present, but hopes to have Rev. Porter with him the last of the week.

—It now seems that we are not to have any more games of ball in Dunn. We have been unable to get a game in several weeks. Our boys must have frightened the neighboring teams.

—Mr. W. D. Felton is erecting a large building near the railroad below the Dunn Lumber Company, where he will operate an extensive planing mill business. The building is 25x100 feet. He will employ a number of men and will ship a good deal of lumber. Dunn goes forward.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Walter Marks is in the city again after several days illness.

Miss Hilda Christman, of Wilson, is visiting in the city, the guest of Miss Laura Pope.

Rev. G. B. Cashwell and family, of Ayden, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. R. E. Lee and little son, Fred, are visiting relatives at Four Oaks.

Miss Minnie Best, of Goldsboro, is visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. C. R. Young returned from a ten day's vacation to Seven Springs Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Driver, of Benson, are spending a few days with relatives here.

Misses Katie and Della Herring, of Sampson, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Brewer Monday.

Miss Alice Radford, who has been spending several days with Mrs. J. P. Pittman, returned to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Jesse Owen and children, of Durham, spent several days in town last week with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gerald.

Miss Nettie Barnes, accompanied by Miss Leona Muse, of Vandemere, left yesterday for Morehead City to spend several days.

Mr. Riley Holder, of Lillington, a good farmer and a reliable citizen was in our office yesterday. He reports crops in his section as being small.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pearsall returned last night from Fuquay Springs, where Mrs. Pearsall has been for several weeks. She is much improved in health.

Miss Hattie Atkinson is visiting her sister Mrs. W. H. Newberry this week instead of Miss Mattie as was mentioned in last issue.

Hon. D. H. McLean left last night for Burlington where he will spend several days in his office. He will go from there to Washington City to investigate some claims against an insurance company. The case is one in which a Sampson county man held a life policy and after the policy was issued engaged with a company of electricians and while at work on the wires was killed. The company now refuses to pay the policy. Mr. McLean feels positive that he will secure a settlement.

—Lumber is now being placed on Mr. E. F. Young's lot for the erection of a handsome residence. Mr. Young will build a home on modern style at a cost of several thousand dollars. It will be the handsomest residence in the county.

—Next Saturday is the regular day set apart by law for the Road Supervisors of the county to meet. Those of Aversboro township will meet in Dunn. It is desired that a full meeting be had as much business of importance is to be transacted.

—"Papa" and "Baby" Jordan go to Marion, S. C., this p. m., where they will play with the Fayetteville team against the Marion team. "Rusty" (Randall) is playing with the Kingston team at Newbern this week.

—The many friends of Rev. A. M. Hassell, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, will learn with regret of his death, which occurred at his home at West End last Sunday morning. He was well known here and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

—If there is no remedy, there should be one provided at once against so many loafers on the street. If you visit the depot just before time for the arrival of the passenger trains you can scarcely push your way through at times to secure a ticket. This is not the fault of the agent for at this hour he has his hands full. There should be a remedy for this.

B. C. A. DOTS.

Protracted meeting will commence at Pleasant Plains 2nd Sunday in August. We hear that Rev. P. D. Woodall, of Rocky Mount, will assist the pastor.

SNOOKS.

—The citizens of upper Sampson have made application for the free Rural Delivery of mail and we are informed that the application has been reported favorable and the route will be established about Sept. 1st. It extends a distance of 22 miles, and all along the route the people will be supplied with mail daily. This will be a great convenience to those people and we trust several routes may be established in Harnett.

—There is a question agitating the minds of the citizens of Dunn,—Who is police while Chief Duncan is escorting prisoners for other counties to jail? The citizens pay tax for protection and if we need no police it would be well to cut this expense off. If we understand it, a police has no right to leave his post of duty to carry prisoners to an adjoining county. Are we right?

—FOR RENT—One large two-story Store House, cut up in rooms up stairs. Apply soon at E. Lee's Hardware Store.

Thief Captured.

A negro tramp was arrested at Mack Baldwin's restaurant by Policeman Duncan yesterday, who broke into a man's house near Benson, by name of Joe Register. When captured several articles were found on his person which were identified by Register as being the articles missing in his home. The negro is about 25 years old and will weigh about 180 pounds. He was carried to Smithfield jail.

Camp-Meeting Notes.

The Camp-meeting at Falcon closed with the morning service Monday. The meeting had continued ten days. It was a great success from every standpoint. Large crowds attended each service, not only those near by came but several from Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia were present.

Those who failed to hear Dr. Geo. D. Watson, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Jno. M. Pike, of Atlanta, Ga., missed an opportunity of hearing two great preachers. This camp will be held every year. A large tabernacle and a number of small houses with a boarding house is to be built on the grounds. The committee will secure the services of some great preachers for next year.
