Another Horrible Crime.

Now we have the Anson county lynching. An insolent negro assaults a pure young white woman, accomplishes his lustful purpose after a bloody and desperate struggle, then mangles the prostrate body and flees, leaving her in an unconscious condition. He is pursued with the aid of a blood hound and captured while the blood and hair of the young woman is yet upon him. Meanwhile consciousness returns to the young woman who identifies the guilty wretch. Then he confesses his guilt and tells the details of the sickening crime. Whereupon he is hanged by a mob of three hundred whites in the presence of a large crowd of negroes, who looked on with approval. All this occurred near us, in the county of Anson, last Wednesday. It was an awful crime. The thought of it is revolting. It is easy to see how a community, at first indignant, perhaps, should come to be enraged, and at last rush to do what ought to be done to the guilty party, hang him to a tree; and still further, give vent to their passions in riding the body with bullets, and possibly go further still, burn it to ashes. Yet it is wrong. This is not the way our bible teaches us we should do. This Book teaches only the good and the safe way. Experience shows all that life, reputation, the protection of persons and property, are safest in a community where the law is conserved and courts are appealed to and relied on to redress grievances and punish wrong doers.—Lumberton Robesonian.

Tax Valuations.

There is much inequality in the valuations of property for taxation. It is not right that such should exist. Those who have property ought to be willing to pay their fair proportion of taxes. Instead of shirking their part of the taxes they ought to feel thankful that they own property to pay taxes on. If wealthy citizens are not willing to bear their part of the public burden they should be made to bear it.

The rich man who fails to pay his proper share of taxes by his property being undervalued, though perhaps he does not realize it, robs those who do pay their fair and just part of the taxes.

The theory of government is that the burden of taxation should fall upon the people in proportion to their ability to bear it: he who has much should pay much; he who has little should pay little.

If valuations were correctly made and property properly listed the rate could be considerably reduced.

The Free Press thinks that a good way to bring about equalization of valuation in North Carolina—that is, to have property listed at its real value—would be to have a law requiring the publication of the tax lists in each county. This would show up the inequalities and public knowledge and public sentiment would cause a correction of the inequalities.—Kinston Free Press.

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds: 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by C. L. Wilson. Trial bottles free.

Maude Coleman Wood Dead.

Most Beautiful Woman in America a Victim of Typhoid.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 26.—A private telegram from Charlottesville, Va., announces the death of Miss Maude Coleman Wood, in that city. Miss Wood was pronounced the most beautiful woman in America by a committee from the Pan-American exposition, and her profile adorns all of the medals issued by the board of award. She had typhoid fever.

Acute Dyspepsia

A CANNING FACTORY.
CAPACITY 1000 CANS PER DAY.

I buy peaches and tomatoes. I sell tin cans and pack fruits to order. I use water, steam and syrup of sugar and pack fruits free from adulteration. Bring your peaches to me and I will save you money, labor, time and cost of glass jars. Fruits properly packed in tin cans retain their original flavor. This is lost in glass jars.

Deliver your peaches to me well assorted. "Presses" in boxes to themselves holding one bushel each. "Clearstones" in boxes holding one bushel each. Gather your peaches when just ripe. Let them be uniform in size and ripeness. Such peaches will bring good prices if they have any size.

I shall employ none but neat packers and guarantee satisfaction in prices, cleanliness and quality. You lose no fruits in tin cans. I teach you how to use the same tin can for any number of years. The tin can will not freeze or break and can be filled any number of times during the same season.

All ladies who are interested in canned fruits and catchup are invited to visit the factory. Factory located near Main Street, East Dunn.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Hood & Gratham.

Love is blind, and that may be the reason it makes spectacles of its devotees.

When you want a pleasant physic try the new remedy, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Hood & Gratham's drug store.

Married Same Man The Second Time.

Goldsboro, N. C., August 27.—Special.—The story of fiction of Laura Jean Libby, entitled, "He Fell in Love With His Wife," has been eclipsed in Greene county by an actual occurrence in every day life, where a woman fell in love with her husband, and married him. The pages of fiction, on which are founded the wild and fanciful imaginings of wonderful minds, do not contain a story more strange than the one of which The Post correspondent has just learned and which will be related as follows:

Some several years ago there resided in Pitt county, near the town of Farmville, a young lady named Miss Addie May, who was as well known there then as she is now, and has a father still living, who is a merchant in the town of Farmville. Over across the line in Greene county there resided a young man whose initials we could not learn, but whose surname was Dupree. These two young people met, loved and were married. The young man was somewhat dissipated and after two years of married life, which was not altogether pleasant and congenial, Mrs. Dupree sued for a divorce in the courts of Greene county and obtained it. Some months afterward she met a foreigner who had come into the community by the name of Vescontes. He was intelligent, attractive and handsome, and when he asked Mrs. Dupree to become his wife she readily consented.

This match was no more successful than the first. The foreigner was also dissipated and in addition to his bad habits he was lazy, it is said, and failed to provide for his family. On these grounds Mrs. Vescontes sued for a divorce, which was granted. Her last experience with matrimonial life covered a period of several years. After she had been separated from her last husband for some months she again met her first husband, Mr. Dupree, and fell in love with him and he with her, the second time. This peculiar love match resulted in a wedding in Greene county yesterday and Mr. Dupree was the groom and Mrs. Vescontes was the bride. For the second time they were married yesterday, and the writer trusts that their experience on the present happy occasion will be different from the one which preceded it some years ago.—Raleigh Post.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His Malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by C. L. Wilson, Druggist.

A Good Creed.

Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while they can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them; the kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them. If our friends have alabaster boxes laid away full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break lovingly over our dead body, we would rather they would bring them out in our weary and troubled hours, and open them that we may be refreshed and cheered by them while we need them. We would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to announce our friends beforehand for their burial. Post mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward of the weary way.—Anon.

Crops Outlook.

Weekly Bulletin of Government Weather Bureau.

Washington, August 27.—The weekly bulletin of the weather bureau issued today says of general conditions: "The weather conditions of the week ended August 26, 1901 have been generally favorable, except in the middle and South Atlantic and east gulf States and Tennessee, where in nearly all these sections heavy rains have damaged crops and interfered with work and in some districts washed lands and caused unindations.

"Drought conditions still prevail in portions of Iowa, Oklahoma and Texas in the last named State becoming serious in localities and rain is also needed in Michigan, Nebraska, the north Pacific coast States and portions of Kansas and Missouri.

"The temperature conditions have been favorable for best results except in portions of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Montana and Washington. Continued improvements in the condition of late corn is generally reported from the principal corn growing States. Reports indicate that late corn in Iowa has made rapid progress and that the ears are filling beyond all expectations. It shows some improvements in most localities in Nebraska has changed in eastern and middle Kansas and in western and southeastern Missouri elsewhere in the last named States the crop is deteriorating and much complaint is received of ears not filling well. In the States of the Ohio valley, the prospects for late corn are decidedly improved, in some sections fields previously reported beyond recovery will be reclaimed and the indications are that the prospective yield will be largely increased. Cutting has begun in portions of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Spring wheat harvesting is practically finished in all sections, although retarded some by rain in South Dakota and Minnesota. Threshing is general and the yields, are as a rule satisfactory, except in North Dakota, where they continue below expectations.

The weather for the week has been unfavorable for cotton. Complaints are general throughout the entire cotton belt, except in Missouri and Oklahoma, but in Oklahoma the crop has been somewhat damaged by hot, dry weather; some favorable reports are however received from Tennessee, Arkansas and Louisiana. Cotton is backward and in poor condition in Texas, although the late has improved where rain fell; it is opening quite rapidly in portions of Georgia and picking is in progress in these States as well as in many localities in the western portion of the cotton region.

Tobacco is in good condition in the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, and the prospects for this crop are generally favorable in this State as well as in New York. Drying tobacco was slightly injured in Maryland by humid weather and rains were unfavorable in Virginia.

While adverse statements concerning apples continue from a greater number of the principal apple growing States, reports from Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas and Nebraska indicate good prospects for this fruit in portions of these States.

Plowing for fall seeding is in general progress in all sections with soil usually in good condition except in the central Mississippi and lower Missouri valley where rain is needed to put the ground in proper condition for this work."

A COMMUNICATION.
MR. EDITOR.—allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. BROCKMAN, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Hood & Gratham.

Why so Many Women Are Invalids.

The insane desire of fond parents that their children shall "shine" in their studies and accomplishments is one topic vigorously dealt with by Edward Bok in his editorial in the Ladies' Home Journal for September. Regarding the girl's side of this widespread evil he says: "There are parents who, not content with the studies which their daughters have to grapple with at school, load them down with a few special studies in the finer arts. I have in mind now several young girls between the precarious ages of twelve and seventeen, who, after they return from school, have an extra dose of painting, music or languages. 'But my daughter must know something of these things,' is the protest of the fond mother. 'She must be able to hold her own with other girls of her set.' Of course, the girl at this tender age, with such a mental load, soon goes to pieces. She becomes anemic, listless and nervous, and then the mother wonders why! To build her up everything under the sun is tried except a lessening of mental work and the unnatural strain upon the nervous system. The girl develops into what? A bundle of nerves encased in the most fragile frame, her physical vitality sapped almost to the last drop. And in this condition she enters the marriage state! And yet we wonder why there are so few women absolutely free from organic troubles. Is it so inexplicable?"

There is no accounting for love's vagaries. A Chicago man who was recently arrested for marrying eighteen different women, all good looking and some young, was a rheumatic old stick of sandy complexion, with a squint. He was not even glib of speech, and so far as any man could judge he was about the last mortal creature to engage the interest of any woman. Yet all his deceived victims adored him and wanted to get him free. Indeed, he would have been released by their unanimous consent had they not quarreled over the question as to who should have him. This is only one of hundreds of cases. The latest heart breaking old coot is Owen Stickney. Owen hasn't any legs, he hasn't any money, and in the eyes of the sheriff at Rochester, New York, he is a poor spirited creature. Yet the legless wight has induced the beautiful and accomplished young wife of E. H. Green, of Akron, Ohio, to elope with him.

Mr. Green is a prosperous and handsome young man who adores his wife and has been good to her. The men who profess that they understand women will please step up and explain.—Philadelphia Record.
