DUNN, N. C., October 2, 1901.

We are glad to see that some of our citizens are taking enough interest in the welfare of our town to circulate a petition to have the cows kept off our streets. The stock law which we enjoy at present, is only half of what is needed. Cows running at large in the town are a great source of nuisance and filth than hogs. It was only yesterday that we heard one of our prominent citizens say that his garden this year had been completely ruined by some body's old jumping cow that broke down his fence and played havoc with his vegetables. The barbed wire fastened above the low railings all over town tells an elegant story of past damage. Most of us know what it is to awake in the middle of the night to the realization of that pleasant fact that there is a cow in your favorite vegetable patch, or in your flower garden. That means get up and run it out. All these nuisances can be easily avoided by a law preventing the running at large of any animals in the town, and we hope that the commissioners when they receive this petition will at once act upon it. There is much danger to small children from vicious cows, and we trust this like all other nuisances will be abated at the next meeting of the Town Board.

The Raleigh Post of Friday says: Former Congressman Fowler, now contesting the election of Hon. C. R. Thomas, or his counsel, have wasted much time and paper in the preparation of the case for the House. Had they have simply said, according to the returns of election, Mr. Thomas was elected; but by throwing out returns of two or three counties which we suggest, and a few townships in others, we are confident Mr. Fowler would have a majority, they would have stated their case as effectively as has been done. For instance, there is no pretense made by Mr. Fowler and his counsel that fraud or irregularity occurred in but two precincts of Craven county, but if only those precincts are thrown out, and the remainder of the returns of the county are admitted, Mr. Thomas will still have a majority; so, to establish Mr. Fowler's claim, because of the alleged frauds in the two precincts, the vote of the whole county should be eliminated it is urged. Upon such flimsy pretext does the ex-Congressman attempt to sustain his pretensions to the seat now filled by Mr. Thomas. Mr. Fowler was not elected and he knows it. Very many Republicans of the district openly opposed and worked against him, while Mr. Thomas had the earnest and active support of all the Democrats. The negroes of Craven, under the leadership of the influential Republicans, either supported Mr. Thomas or refused to vote for Mr. Fowler.

Grief-Himself To Death.
La Porte, Ind., Sept. 26.—Caleb Harvey died here today at the height of his grief over the assassination and death of President McKinley. The physicians say that he literally cried himself to death. He was for hours continuously from the afternoon the President was shot, and while in these paroxysms of grief his suffering was intense. It was found impossible to don'trol or assuage his grief and up to the hour of his death he wailed constantly. The physicians consider the case without precedent.

STEPPED INTO LIVE COALS.
When a child burned his foot, writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for 30 years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infallible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Sores, Bruises and Piles. Sold by C. L. Wilson, 25c.

PROGRESS.
In a community like ours where every one who claims to be a citizen desires also to be a good citizen, and to have at heart an interest in the true growth of the town, we expect to see the progressive spirit manifest on all proper occasions by all who live in town and who are daily the recipients of the benefits of the prosperity and advancement of its growth.

We love to know that Dunn is doing well and the people are being filled with the true progressiveness of all our various enterprises that tend to the welfare of the people. The town officers, we are glad to see, are making progress in their efforts to have clean streets, clean lots, and clean homes all over the place. This is right, and this is true progress. But it is needful to go a little further, and have ordinances that will effectually restrict the roaming at large of all kinds of stock in our midst and especially on the sidewalks, or about the streets at any time, either of the day or night.

If we come truly to this great "desideratum" and all of the people assist the Board of Commissioners by their own observance of the said ordinances, then we may be said to be really making progress in our delightful and thriving little city. SPECTATOR.

Facts About Czolgoz.
Is 5 feet 6 inches in height. Weighs about 130 pounds. Face is oval and wide between the eyes. Forehead is high, round and full. Face narrows down sharply at the chin. Nose is prominent. Eyebrows are arched. Ears inclined to protrude rather than lay close to his head. Eyes blue and rather expressionless. Hair dark brown and slightly curled at the ends. He speaks rather deliberately and his voice is not unpleasant. There is a slight brogue, inherited from Polish parentage. Has a good knowledge of English. Very careless about his dress. Refuses to change his linen, continuing to wear the same shirt he had on the day he shot the President! His hands are shapely, his fingers being long and tapering. More like a woman's hands than a man's. Beard rather sparse, and not like that of a vigorous man. It is more like that of a man weak, both physical and mentally. Not cleanly in his habits. He is opposed to the use of soap and water. Merely dabbles in the basin of water brought to him by the jailers every day.

I will be in the office at Lillington or have a deputy there to receive your taxes until after the accounts are put into hands of deputies after which time no taxes will be paid at Court House, payment to be made to deputies only.

The law gives me authority to levy and sell property for taxes after November 1. I shall endeavor this year to follow the law more closely than ever before.

November Court convenes this year on November 11th. I shall not have time to make two calls for taxes before Court as heretofore. You must, therefore, pay at office in Lillington by November 25th. Make payment during court week. Meet me at some one of the above named places or have your account turned over to deputies.

Remember that tax claims have precedence over all others of any kind, and must be paid first whoever be the creditor. Thanking you for promptly meeting me and making settlement of your taxes, I am,
Very respectfully,
S. A. SALMON,
SHERIFF OF HARNETT COUNTY.

Special Notice to Subscribers.
Those who are taking THE BANNER, published at Dunn, will have an opportunity to settle for the same, as the editor will accompany the Sheriff on his round, through the county. Please meet us prepared to settle your account as we need the money.
Yours truly,
J. P. FITZMAN, Editor.

He eschews soap entirely. His appetite is ravenous, and he consumes three big meals daily. His breakfast is composed of fried ham and eggs, fried potatoes, homemade bread and butter, coffee.

For dinner he has roast lamb, boiled potatoes, succotash, sliced tomatoes, bread and butter, coffee. At supper he consumes goodly portions of cold ham, boiled eggs, fried potatoes, bread and butter, tea.

No one sees him but his guards and they only speak to him when absolutely necessary. Not a ray of daylight reaches him. His supply of cigars has been cut off. His bed is a plank—nothing more. He has not seen a newspaper since his arrest. His one thought now seems to be of his doom. He is in deadly fear of the electric chair. The spirit of bravado he evinced the first few days of his imprisonment has all gone. He lies almost constantly all day and night long on his plank bed, getting up only at meal times. Asks his guards repeatedly whether death in the electric chair is painless, but gets no answer. Manifestly has no hope of escaping the death penalty. Born twenty-eight years ago in Detroit. Attended public schools in Alpena, Mich., receiving a fair education in common school branches. Father and mother natives of Poland.

A Bazing, Roaring Flood
Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung troubles by C. L. Wilson. Price 50c.

Lane's Depository.
The editor had occasion in the last few days to visit Mr. J. W. Lane's Buggy Depository, next door to his livery stables, and examine his new line of up-to-date and modern buggies. He has the most complete variety of styles and makes we have seen. One of the prettiest and most substantial buggies found in his mammoth stock is the Oxford buggy, manufactured by one of the leading buggy concerns of North Carolina. He is offering these buggies at very close margin and will sell for cash or on easy terms. You find embodied in this line all that is elegant and desirable, together with durability, which go together to give to the public the article desired. It will be worth a trip to call and see his line of vehicles even if you do not care to buy.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!
The store formerly occupied by W. D. Thornton but now by W. D. Thornton & Co. is as heretofore on a boom and his new partner will doubtless add much life and push to their new and attractive stock which is daily arriving, both in price and quality. All we ask is to call and get our prices before buying elsewhere and we will make somebody sit and sing. Just as I am without customers, when they ought to be waiting on a customer were it not for our prices. We have an apology to make in connection with our goods but it is only on prices, they are so low we feel almost ashamed to quote them. Think of it, good brogan shoe 97¢, good shoe for the ladies 65¢. Ladies dress goods so low that we will not astonish you by quoting prices here. Lips are whispering, ears are hearing, hands are painting, eyes are seeing the advantages of buying here. Come one and all and give us a call.
Yours for business,
W. D. THORNTON & CO.
