"Prove all things; hold fast that which is good."

Vol. 11.

DUNN, N. C. NOVEMBER 20, 1901.

No 45.

FOR HARNES and Saddle's Core Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way:

You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a standard remedy by poultry breeders.

This second call for taxes is made at the request of a number who are not able, or cannot conveniently come to Lillington during court week, the law not requiring me to make but one call at each township for taxes. This call cannot be made earlier as court interfers. On Thursday, Dec. 3, I will deliver the books to deputies for the several townships for collection. After that date I will have no deputy at the Court House and will receive no taxes myself, except for township I ride myself, each and every one being required to pay to the township deputy. Costs will be added by deputies and collections, enforced by law unless payment is promptly made. Thanking you for promptly meeting me and settling amount due, I am,

Respectfully,

S. A. SALMON,

SHERIFF OF HARNETT COUNTY.

The New Canal Treaty.

American control of the proposed isthmian interoceanic canal is now absolutely assured. When the canal is built it will be constructed by American engineers and American money and defended by American arms. No other nation on the face of the earth is to have anything to do with it, even in the way of suggestion. The United States is to have a free hand, uncontrolled and unhampered.

Such, in brief, is the purport of the new treaty which has been agreed upon between the United States and Great Britain and which will be sent to the Senate by President Roosevelt immediately after the convening of Congress. All the principles for which the Senate contended when the first Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty was before that body, and which were incorporated in important amendments, have been conceded by Great Britain, and that, without the slightest consideration in return. This, perhaps, is the most remarkable fact connected with the negotiation of the new treaty. All suggestions—and they have been numerous—that Great Britain has imposed a quid pro quo have no foundation in fact. Not only is there no such consideration named in the treaty, but there has not been and will not be any private understanding or promises to be redeemed in the future.—Washington Post.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

Applications for Statehood.

Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico want to have their stars placed in the field of blue. However, in the belief of the New Orleans Times Democrat, "the indications point to the failure of all three applications unless the personal sentiments of Mr. Roosevelt have great weight with Congress and he interests himself in the matter. The president has always confessed to a weakness for the far west, has been a frequent and hearty welcome request there, and he raised a large part of his 'Rough Riders' in the very territories which now ask for admission into the Union." The paper dismisses an interesting suggestion in the following paragraph: "It was suggested the other day that if one of the applicant territories asked to come in under the name of McKinley it would probably succeed, in the present sentiment of the country in regard to the late president. We scarcely believe this, and hope it will not be tried. Wholly regardless of the question of whether it is advisable to give the name of so recent a president to a state it is impossible to conceive of a worse title for a sovereign state of the Union than McKinley."

Does the Farm Pay?

The question has come up in the mind of doubtless every young man about to take up his work in life; and it is one of those questions "answered both affirmatively and negatively." The farm does not pay if wrongly managed. It does pay if properly managed. Perhaps both propositions are correct as a rule. Yet we know of many farms that do pay, and still they are not properly managed. On the other hand we know of not a single farm, properly managed, that does not pay. There should be but a single proposition, this: Does a farm properly managed pay? We answer without the slightest hesitation: It not only pays but it pays well. Where energy, enthusiasm and knowledge are combined with good farm management and executive ability, there you will find a paying farm and a successful farmer. If you know how to properly prepare fertilizer and treat the soil, and how to grow them, there is no question—you will grow a paying, remunerative crop. The same is true with all classes of live stock, horticultural products, dairy products; in fact any agricultural specialty: managed with skill and thoroughness, will bring its reward.

White Man Turned Yellow

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His Malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 25c. Sold by C. L. Wilson, Druggist.

He Could Wait.

"Here's the devil to pay!" exclaimed the old man, coming in with a handful of bills. "Don't worry about him, dear," said the wife; "he knows that you'll settle with him hereafter!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Infantile Pride.

"Poh! My papa wears even in' clothes every time he goes to parties." "That ain't anythin'. Our minister wears his night clothes every time he preaches."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Correct in yourself the traits you dislike in others.

A man never smiles when he shows his teeth to the dentist.

Some people are long on mock modesty and shy on the real thing.

Much that passes for philosophy is nothing but downright imprudence.

Happy is the man whose smile is the same in prosperity and adversity.

A man who says he enjoys a church social may not be a liar, but he is not above suspicion.

What a brilliant world this would be if men could only acquire brains as easily as they can umbrellas!

When a man tells you some woman has mistreated him you always have a handkerchief to help the woman's version of the story.—Chicago News.
