Poll Tax Requirement in Election Law.

Enquiries are often made as to what is required in the Election Law, in regard to payment of tax as a pre-requisite to voting. We therefore print a summary of the provisions of the law, prepared by Senator Simons, bearing on this point, with a request that all persons acquaint themselves with the law, which is as follows:

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF ELECTION LAW IN REGARD TO PAYMENT OF POLL TAX.

Under the provisions of section 13, chapter 89, Acts of 1901, carrying out a requirement of the Constitutional Amendment, no one will be allowed to vote in the next State election unless he pays his poll tax now due by the first of next May. And it also provides that before the person shall be allowed to vote he shall exhibit to the registrar his poll tax receipt, signed by the sheriff or tax collector, and unless this receipt bears date before the first day of next May he will not be allowed to vote. But in lieu of such poll tax receipt the registrar and judges of election are permitted to allow one who has paid his tax within the time allowed required to vote upon his taking and subscribing an oath to that effect. And any person who, having paid his taxes within the time above specified and having lost his tax receipt, shall, upon making affidavit of such loss, be entitled to a duplicate thereof from the sheriff or tax collector. The law also provides that if a sheriff or tax collector willfully fails to give a tax receipt to any person paying his poll tax, or giving a false date, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Of course the act provides that persons who have become of age since the first day of last June, or who were fifty years of age or over on the first day of last June, shall not be required to produce a poll tax receipt, because not required by law to pay poll tax. There is also a like exemption in favor of persons relieved from the payment of poll tax by county commissioners on account of poverty or infirmary.

The section also requires the tax collector, between the first and tenth day of May, 1902, to certify under oath a true and correct list of all persons who have paid poll tax for the previous year, on or before the first day of May, to the Clerk of the Superior Court, and makes him guilty of a misdemeanor for failing to comply with this provision.—Clinton Democrat.

TAXES!

LAST AND FINAL CALL.

Pay your taxes and save cost. The law will be enforced. Unless same is paid I cannot settle with State and county. I will be at the following named places at hours mentioned for the purpose of receiving taxes.

Grove	Troyville, Thursday, Nov. 28, 9 a. m. to 12 m.
Grove	Turlington's X Roads, Thursday, Nov. 28, 2 p. m. to 3 p. m.
Averasboro	Dunn, Town Hall, Friday, Nov. 29, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.
Stewart's Creek	Miller Allen's Store, Saturday, Nov. 30, 10 a. m. to 12 m.
Stewart's Creek	Bunnlevel, Saturday, Nov. 30, 2 p. m. to 4 p. m.

This second call for taxes is made at the request of a number who are not able or cannot conveniently come to Lillington during court week, the law not requiring me to make but one call at each township for taxes. This call cannot be made earlier as court interferes. On Thursday, Dec. 3, I will deliver the books to deputies for the several townships for collection. After that date I will have no deputy at the Court House and will receive no taxes myself, except for township I ride myself, each and every one being required to pay to the township deputy.
Costs will be added by deputies and collections enforced by law unless payment is promptly made. Thanking you for promptly meeting me and settling amount due, I am, Respectfully,

S. A. SALMON,
SHERIFF OF HARNETT COUNTY.

Our Cotton Will be Needed.

The decline in cotton prices the last three weeks, amounting to about one cent per pound, is naturally a disappointment to growers, yet there is no note of real discouragement. The downturn is due largely to bearish speculators in foreign markets, who exaggerate the situation and claim more for our southern crop volume than can be realized. The movement from first hands is liberal, as is to be expected at this time of year.
Yet conservative opinion points to an ultimate yield of less than 11,000,000 bales, rather than more.
What is of still greater importance, our great staple will all be needed. There is industrial depression in Germany, but this means increased activities at spinning centers in England and the United States.
The consumptive demand for cotton goods should prove at least a normal in the old world, and better than that here at home, where there is general prosperity among all classes.
The southern cotton spinners' association, in annual convention at Atlanta this week, is very wisely taking up in earnest the question of increasing our foreign outlet for American made goods.—Home & Farm.

Disappointed Again.

"I, h-have c-come," began the young man, shaking so violently that he almost upset the chair.
"H'm!" soliloquized the farmer. "I bet a doughnut he a chance to get rid of her at last."

"—I have c-come," repeated the caller.
"Well, don't be bashful. You can have her, my boy."
"H-have w-who?"
"My darter. Didn't you come to ask my consent?"

ague c-chill."—Chicago News.

Strikes a Rich Field

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N.
H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them, Only

Fortunate.

"Well, Joshua," said Mr.
Warren to his country cousin, "what was the first thing that struck you when you reached town?"
"A trolley car," replied Joshua, "but fortunately it didn't hit me very hard."—Detroit Free Press.

The Troublesome Corn.

How to Treat This Painful Growth on the foot.

A corn is an overgrowth of the horny layer of some portion of the skin of the foot induced by friction or under pressure in one spot by the shoe, says Youth's Companion. It is situated generally on a prominent portion of one of the toes, more commonly the little toe, but may be on the sole of the foot or even on the ankle bone.
The first thing to do for a corn is to get new shoes that are so snug as not to rub the foot anywhere and so loose as not to make pressure in one spot more than in another.
The top of the corn may be pared with a sharp knife, extreme care being taken, especially in the case of the aged, not to cut the sound skin, or it may be filed down to the level of the surrounding skin, or the entire corn may sometimes be loosened with a dull knife, blade or by the finger nail and extracted from its bed.
When this cannot be done, removal may be facilitated by moistening the corn every other day with glacial acetic acid, the softened part being subsequently scraped away with a dull knife or a small file. A salve containing salicylic acid applied every night will also frequently loosen the corn so that it can be pulled out. This is the basis of many of the popular corn plasters.

A soft corn, which is merely a corn that is always moist on account of its location on the inner surface of one of the toes, should be treated by keeping a piece of absorbent cotton between the toes so as to prevent marceration and by bathing it frequently with strong alum water.

Each Died Differently.

Fates of Three Men Who Killed American Presidents.

It is interesting to note that the three assassins of American Presidents each suffered in a different way. John Wilkes Booth, who killed Lincoln, was shot to death; Charles J. Guiteau, who murdered Garfield, was hanged, and Leon Czolgoz, the slayer of President McKinley, was electrocuted.

Lincoln was shot by Booth April 14th, 1865, and for 12 days the latter suffered untold agony in a vain fight through Southern Maryland and tide water Virginia, his broken leg hampering all his movements.
On April 26th, he was surrounded by Federal soldiers in a barn on the farm of Richard H. Garrett, in Caroline county, Virginia, the barn was fired in the light of the flames, Boston Corbett, a soldier saw Booth and shot him through the head. Booth was taken to Mr.
Garrett's house and put on the porch, where he died. His last words were: "Tell my mother I died for my country and what I thought was best for it." His body was secretly buried by the Government authorities, but after several years was surrendered to his family and interred in the family lot in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore.

Charles Guiteau shot President Garfield July 2nd, 1881, and the President died September 19th. Guiteau's trial began at Washington, November 14th, and was prolonged. On January 25th, 1882, the jury rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. The assassin was hanged in the jail-yard at Washington, June 30th.
President McKinley was shot at Buffalo, September 6th, and died in the same city at 2:15 a. m., September 14th. Czolgoz was put on trial there September 23rd, and on September 26th was sentenced to death in the electric chair, which sentence was fulfilled October 29th, one day later than the shortest time allowed by law.
Thus Booth was shot 12 days after the commission of his crime, Guiteau was hanged 363 days after and Czolgoz was electrocuted 53 days after.— Baltimore Sun.

No Color Line at Harvard.

Barber Fined $20 for Refusing to Shave a Negro Student.

The word of a colored divinity student is considered better than that of a barber, according to the decision made to-day by Judge Almy, of the third district court. Cambridge, in the complaint made by Thomas S. Bruce, a third year man in the Harvard divinity school, against Henry Laflamme, the Harvard Square barber. The barber was fined $20 for drawing the color line in refusing to shave Bruce.

Bruce testified that he went into the barber shop about two weeks ago and asked the barber's brother to shave him.
The latter answered that they only treated "special customers," and that Bruce could get accommodated "across the street." Bruce asked about the sign in front of the shop, and the barber replied that it was none of Bruce's business.
Bruce left after waiting ten minutes, although there were two chairs vacant, and the man he had originally spoken to was idle. Bruce remembered that there had been a white sign conversation between the man and the proprietor. Laflamme testified that he had seen Bruce reading in his shop, and that he saw Bruce talking with his brother. He did not know what was said. When he had finished shaving his man the proprietor, passed out of the shop on an errand. Charles B.
Pratt, one of the assistant barbers, corroborated the testimony offered by his boss.

Judge Almy said he did not see that there was anything but discrimination. The story that Bruce told must be taken as to what happened. The judge said the barber could keep out objectionable people from his shop, but not for reasons of race and color. Laflamme paid the fine.—Boston dispatch to New York Sun.

FOR HARNES and Saddle Gores Mexican Mustang Liniment is just what you need. It takes effect at once, and you will be astonished to see how quickly it heals sores.

It's this way:
You can burn yourself with Fire, with Powder, etc., or you can scald yourself with Steam or Hot Water, but there is only one proper way to cure a burn or scald and that is by using

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

It gives immediate relief. Get a piece of soft old linen cloth, saturate it with this liniment and bind loosely upon the wound. You can have no adequate idea what an excellent remedy this is for a burn until you have tried it.

A FOWL TIP. If you have a bird afflicted with Roup or any other poultry disease use Mexican Mustang Liniment. It is called a STANDARD remedy by poultry breeders.

A Remarkable Northern View. Prices Must Advance.

At last there has been found that hitherto undiscovered individual, a northern man who can see things from the Southern point of view, and found, too, of all places, in Boston. The Boston man has written a pamphlet on the Booker Washington dinner, in the course of which he says:
"It is time that the people of the South realize how hopeless it is to win the sympathy of certain circles at the North. To Republican fanatics—the rightful heirs to that band of charlatans who plundered the South in her poverty, oppressed her in her weakness, and mocked at her calamity—the contributions of the Southern people to the prosperity of the nation are without significance. It means nothing to them that for thirty-five years the South has fought the most heroic battle in human history; it means nothing that the South has supported itself, paid promptly its share of the national debt incurred by its coercion; contributed enormously each year to the payment of Federal pensions; developed a system of education for both races, giving one-third of the educational fund to the negro schools; opening up highways throughout the land; wisely discharging the obligations of citizenship, city, State and national, and devoting itself with intelligent loyalty to the interests of the whole country.
To fanatics at the North who, blinded by partisan rage, have never kept a pledge or obeyed a law, the South is but a land to be depopulated, and the Southern people but a people to be persecuted."—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.
