LOCAL DOTS.

SCHEDULE OF TRAINS LEAVING DUNN.

Northbound—Local Passenger, No. 75, at 1:24 p. m. No. 32, 10:45 p. m.
Southbound—Local Passenger, No. 23, 3:40, p. m. No. 35, 12:35, p. m.

This paper positively will not accept for publication from any one any notice of land sale, or administrator's notice without cash with copy. This applies to all. Rates—medium size $2.50; larger $3.00; administrator's notice six weeks $3.00.

—Cotton 7-60¢ to-day.

—The county commissioners were in session last Monday.

—Make your fruit cakes now. Supplies at Hood & Grantham.

—This section was visited by a much needed rain yesterday morning.

—The Baptist State Convention is in session this week at Winston.

—Rev. R. W. Hines will preach at the Presbyterian church next Friday night.

—Pratts Food for Horse, Cattle, Hogs and Chickens. For sale by Hood & Grantham.

—Cotton took a sudden rise Tuesday and jumped 42 points. Liverpool market this morning was up only 17 points.

—I am offering J. W. Gregory's entire stock of goods at cost.

H. L. Godwin, Assignee.

—Dr. Meadows, of Raleigh, has rented Hotel Divine and will take charge about December 21st.

—Rev. W. C. Barrett filled his appointment at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night.

—The Sheriff has turned the tax books for the several townships over to the deputies. You will now have to pay cost.

—We have just received a copy of Branson's Agricultural Almanac for 1902. It is a most valuable book and costs only 10 cents.

—Mrs. Mary J. Oates advertises a public sale of the furniture at Hotel Divine in this issue. The sale occurs on Saturday Dec. 21st. Read the card.

—Keen, the photographer, will guarantee satisfaction in producing your likeness in your Holiday Photos. You need one to send your friend or sweetheart.

—Sheriff Salmon has appointed Mr. C. H. Biggs, of Neill's Creek, one of his deputies for the county. Mr. Biggs is a thorough democrat and we believe will make an excellent deputy.

—XMAS PHOTOS. Keen, the photographer, is now offering a special Holiday rate on photos. Call and see him at once. He is adding some pretty new styles that will please you.

—December 1st there had been sold on the market at this place 4,246 bales of cotton. There is yet some farmers who have not yet sold and we believe they will realize better prices. The government reports show now only 9,674,000 bales for this season.

—See the offer that the Dunn Hardware & Furniture Co. are making to their customers. Every one that spends a dollar or pays one on account is entitled to a guess at the pumpkin. See their "ad" on the local page of this issue. Who shows but what you may be the lucky one.

—Santa Claus has come to Dunn and made Hood & Grantham's drug store headquarters. He has made a beautiful display of charming toys and cost-ly articles. He extends an invitation to all to call and see the magnificent display and leave orders for gifts to be delivered later.

—Rev. W. A. Forbes preached his farewell sermon to our people Sunday night. He left Tuesday for Fayetteville to attend the Annual Conference which is in session at that place. He has labored faithfully on this charge during the three years among us, and we hope he will be sent back to this field.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Attorneys Stewart and Hatch are attending court at Smithfield this week.

Mr. P. J. Heath left Monday night for his home to spend a few days.

Mr. E. G. Howard, of Sarratoga, spent several days in the city last week with his brother.

Messrs. W. F. Furlless and T. W. Weisiger attended the German at Clinton last week.

Miss Edie Britt, of Newton Grove, was in the city Monday night.

Mr. W. C. Armstrong was in town this week visiting his brother O. J. Armstrong.

Misses Nellie Parish and Esther Smith, of Benson, spent Monday night in the city.

Miss Blanche Cromatic, who held a position in Mrs. J. H. Pope's millinery store this season, left for her home at Parkton yesterday.

Prof. Joseph Kinsey, of Wilson, representing life insurance, spent several days in town this week. He was called home last night by telegram on account of his sick child.

LETTER TO MR. E. F. YOUNG, DUNN, N. C.

Dear Sir:—We cannot repeat too often that its folly to buy a thin paint because when you do so you are paying twice as much as it is worth for a lot of linseed oil contained therein. You add 2 to 3 gallon of oil to each gallon of L. & M. Paint. That's the secret of its low actual cost. It contains more white lead and oxide of zinc than any other paint made. We much wish that you would get our prices, color cards and combinations from Dunn Hardware & Furniture Co.

Sincerely,
LONGMAN & MARTINEZ,
Paint Makers.

Parted at the Mansion.

What proved to be marriage bills of short duration was the nuptial of a young man W. R. Griffin to Miss Lela Norris, of our town. The solemn vows were sealed on Thursday night and on Friday morning young Griffin left for parts unknown, so we are informed. Before the marriage feast he called at Mr. E. G. Taylor's store and forged three orders from Miss Bettie Tripp for goods and as soon as the forgery was discovered papers were issued for the young man and he left on his honeymoon alone. The young bride shows no sign of distress at his departure.

SALE OF HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE.

On Saturday, Dec. 21st, at 10 o'clock, a. m., in front of Hotel Divine, I will offer at public sale, for cash, all the household and kitchen furniture now used at Hotel Divine.
MRS. MARY J. OATES,
Dunn, N. C.

"QUO VADIS."

The attraction at the Opera House last Saturday night was simply superb, and the managers of the house are to be congratulated on securing this excellent troop. The managers will endeavor at all times to secure nothing but the very best troop, and our people may rest assured that nothing but the highest class entertainments will be booked.
"Quo Vadis" is a Roman play, the scene being located during the days of Caesar and early Christianity. It describes those trying times in which Paganism met its death, and Christianity began its career. The impersonations of all the characters were very fine, and the costumes, which were those of the times, were exceedingly beautiful.
The scene in which Lygia, the heroine, was rescued from the horns of the wild bull by Ursus her giant slave, was thrilling and highly dramatic. Our town has never seen a more moral and instructive entertainment.

VALUABLE LOTS FOR SALE.

Those desiring to purchase desirable resident lots in the town of Dunn will do well to see me. I also have one fine milk cow for sale.

Mrs. Mary J. Oates.

B. C. A. DOTS.

Mr. W. P. Byrd has one acre of land from which he has gathered forty bushels of corn this year.

Mr. C. S. Bennett, of Fayetteville, spent Saturday night here. His little "poxy woxy" is all smiles this week.

Miss Stella Bryant and Rosalie Dorman, of Cumberland, spent Saturday and Sunday here with their schoolmates and friends.

Mr. Harvey Stephenson, who has been sick with the typhoid fever for several weeks, is able to be out again. He spent Monday here with friends.

Mr. R. A. Bain, accompanied by Miss Stella Maynard, of Cumberland, spent Sunday here.

Mr. F. H. Taylor and sister, Miss Alice, are teaching the public school at the Williams School House near Angier.

Mr. M. B. Price died suddenly on the 15th inst while at work on his son's house. He was in his usual health and had been at work all day until about three o'clock when, without a moments warning the summons came. He was about 60 years of age. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss.

On the 13th inst at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. S. P. Waddell, near Lillington, his beautiful young daughter, Miss Mary, was led to the hymenal altar by Mr. W. R. Furlington of this place and were joined together in wedlock. Zacheus Marks, J. P., tied the conjugal knot which makes their young hearts beat as one. The attendants were Mr. Kadar Turlington with Miss Mary Harmon; Mr. Geo. Harmon with Miss Lillie Turlington.

The B. C. A. minstrel gave an entertainment at Dunn Monday night of last week. Several who were capable of judging say it was fine.

I observed at court that the judge ordered that all bills of cost must be paid, and to effect his determination he ordered the clerk to issue capias against all persons heretofore convicted who have not paid costs. If any criminals or defendants upon the criminal docket have been remiss in this respect, they should not blame him if he performs his bonded duty by placing the delinquent within the walls of our county jail. Under the order of the court he can do no less and he has professed his determination to perform his whole duty and nothing short of same.

We learn that Mrs. Nancy Brown had the misfortune to have her kitchen and all its contents destroyed by fire last Wednesday. She is a very poor woman and any assistance from the public will be greatly appreciated.

There came near being another serious fire at Buie's Creek last Sunday night. During the prayer meeting service one of the large swinging lamps in the Tabernacle fell and exploded, causing great excitement for a few moments. By hard work the flames were extinguished before any damage was done.

Your correspondent learns that a marriage is to take place in the Bradley Store section today, the third. Mr. Max Hirsch, a musician of Raleigh will be joined in marriage to Mrs. Mattie Beasley, the daughter of Mr. L. D. Matthews. We wish them a long happy and prosperous life.

Last Wednesday Mr. W. B. Daughtry, of Virginia, was married to Miss Della Poole, a former music teacher at Buie's Creek. We trust for them a safe voyage over the sea of matrimonial bliss.

A Good Cough Medicine.

From the Gazette, Toowoomba, Australia.
I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. WOCKNER. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wockner. This remedy is sold by Hood & Grantham.
