Could Not Sleep
"I was a great sufferer from indigestion and dyspepsia. I invariably got up my food after meals, and suffered with pains in the chest, and from neuralgic nervousness—could not sleep. My attention was called to Coleman's Guarantee
as a positive remedy. I took one bottle according to directions and not only got relief but a permanent cure. I recommend it without hesitation.

The Speech that made McKinley President.

It was in the convention of 1888 that William McKinley developed into a positive national force. Blaine and Sherman had been in their full vigor in 1884, and I had the clear impression from that time that every turn of the wheel brought McKinley into the full measure of his merited prominence. It was after a very hot day during the Chicago convention that General Ben Butterworth, Major McKinley and myself sat at a table talking over the events of the day. The delegates had brought forward his name. McKinley took a telegraph blank from the table, and during the moments of silence, wrote down some memorable words. He passed it to me with the remark: "If this thing is repeated tomorrow, that is what I am going to say."

"I am here as one of the chosen representatives of my state. I am here by resolution of the Republican Convention, cast without one dissenting vote, commanding me to vote for John Sherman, and use every worthy endeavor for his nomination. I accepted the trust because my heart and judgment were in accord with the better spirit and purpose of that resolution. It has pleased certain delegates to cast their vote for me. I am not insensible to the honor they would do me, but in the presence of the duty resting upon me, I cannot remain silent with honor. I cannot consistently with the credit of the state whose credentials I bear and which has trusted me, I cannot with honorable fidelity to John Sherman, who has trusted me in his cause and with his confidence. I cannot consistently with my own views of my personal integrity, consent to permit my name to be used as a candidate before this convention. I would not respect myself if I could find it in my heart to do, to say, or to permit to be done that which could ever be ground for anyone to suspect that I wavered in my loyalty to Ohio, or my devotion to the chief of her choice, and the chief of mine. I do request, I demand, that no delegate who would not cast reflections on me should cast a ballot for me."

His name was brought forward the following day. Pleading loyal allegiance to John Sherman, he uttered with all the deep sincerity of the man, a declaration that will live to all political history. It reveals the true loyalty and unselfishness of the man, and won for him friends and supporters who afterward joined their hands in making him president.—Senator Hanna in the San. "National."

ROOSEVELT APPOINTS A DEMOCRAT AND AN EX-CONFEDERATE.
President Roosevelt has appointed Dr. J. L. M. Curry to represent the United States at Madrid on the occasion of the coming of age of the young Spanish King, Alfonso XIII. Dr. Curry was minister to Spain at the time of the birth of the King and was present in his official capacity at the palace when that interesting event occurred. The appointment is on this account particularly appropriate. But what will the extreme Democrats say to this honoring of a democrat and a Southern by President Roosevelt? Dr. Curry was minister over Cleveland and he is one of the few survivors of the Confederate Congress. Is it right for him to accept honors from a Republican President? We should like to hear from the Sons of Veterans in this matter.—Charleston, S. C., Post.

SIMMONS ASKS FOR $50,000 FOR ROANOKE CELEBRATION.
Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, to-day proposed a bill appropriating $50,000 for erection of a monument to Virginia Dare, the first white child born in the United States, and also appropriating $50,000 for the celebration on Roanoke Island, N. C., next summer, of the landing July 4, 1584, of the first English-speaking expedition which according to the bill first found footing in the United States.

Schley Coming South.

A Consolidation with Counsel as to a Civil Action Against Publisher of the Maclay History.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 29.—Admiral Schley was joined at his apartments at Richmond to-day by his counsel, Mr. Isidor Rayner, and assistant counsel, Mr. Teague, both of whom came over from Baltimore at the admiral's request in order to consider what further steps, if any, were to be taken in the Schley case. The parties to the conference remained together throughout the morning and well into the afternoon. When representatives of the press sent up cards of inquiry they were returned with the statement that there were no developments and nothing to be made public at the present time. It is understood that the special purpose of the meeting is to decide as to what shall be done in the way of a civil action against the author of publisher of the Maclay history, which was the basis of the recent investigation.

Put Yourself in His Place.

How would you like to be your horse? Would you work yourself six or seven hours without water when the temperature is in the nineties? Would you let the head of a rivet stand twisted in the harness till it tore the skin off? Would you put a bridle on yourself that had a loose blinder which flapped you in the eye every time you made a step? Would you tie yourself up with a lazy or slower horse which made you pull more than half the load? Would you give yourself water out of a slimy box or mudhole in the creek where the pigs and poultry bathe? Would you feed yourself dirty corn seven days in the week, and lay that smelled of rats, in a manger on which the hen's roost? Would you stand yourself at feeding time ankle deep in your own excrement, to fight a million flies bred in your own filth?
What would you do if you were your own horse?—Nebraska Farmer.

Opening of Winter Tourist Season.

The Southern Railway, which operates its own lines over the entire South and forms the important link in the great highway of travel between the North and South, Florida, Cuba, Mexico, the Pacific Coast and Central America, announces for the winter of 1901 and 1902 the most superb service ever offered. Its splendid regular service will be augmented by the Southern Palm Limited, a magnificent Pullman train, which will be operated between New York and St. Augustine, Florida.

Survey on Southern Rivers.

Among the new maps and reprints of old maps which the United States Geological Survey has recently issued are the following sections along the Atlantic Seaboard: The Piney Point Sheet showing the shores of the lower Potomac river in the vicinity of Piney Point, Maryland; the Appomattox Sheet of the section of Virginia in the vicinity of that town, exhibiting the relief of the country and showing the location of the grave of Patrick Henry; the Lynchburg Sheet of the section in the vicinity of Lynchburg Va.; the Lynchburg and Appomattox Sheets, being reprints of older maps; the Asheville Sheet showing the mountain country in the western part of North Carolina as far as the Tennessee border; and the Marietta Sheet or Quadrangle of the country including, and to the southwest of, Marietta, Ga. In all of these maps the topography is indicated in great detail by the use of contour lines, and all towns, roads, streams and other features are clearly shown.

A CAROLINIAN'S SUCCESS IN BOSTON.

The election of H. M. Holleman, of Boston, to the presidency of The Harvard Auto Corporation, owners and operators of fourteen large automobile stations in as many cities throughout New England, is one of the developments of the week in the financial world that will particularly interest the people of Boston and North Carolina.

Mr. Holleman is a North Carolinian, being the son of Rev. J. M. Holleman, of Apex, and has, for several years, been engaged in the banking business in Boston where he has succeeded in financing a number of the largest and most successful enterprises in the North. The combined capital of this consolidation will doubtless be several million dollars, and Mr. Holleman will represent the majority financial business, covering New England with thirty-six offices, does the largest business of its kind in the United States. He is also interested in ten other corporations, and it is stated that every financial proposition which he has undertaken has been successful. Who knows but what North Carolina, in Mr. Holleman may have given to the world another young "Napoleon of Finance"—Boston Daily Traveler.

That Railroad Again.

The Raleigh and Cape Fear Railroad is to be extended. Whether the road is to go to Lillington, the county seat of Harnett, or to Fayetteville, or some other point on the Cape Fear River is not known, but certain it is that the road is to penetrate the splendid territory south of Wake county.

Mr. D. L. Gore Envoiced.

Several business men and leading Republicans of this city have written to Senator Pritchard endorsing Mr. D. L. Gore for the position of Collector of Customs at the port of Wilmington to succeed John C. Dancy, colored, who was recently promoted to the position of recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia. Mr. Gore is one of the best known business men and capitalists in Wilmington, and has been identified with the sound money element of the Democratic party. It is understood that Senator Pritchard favors the appointment of such a man in preference to a Republican to the position.—Greensboro Special to News & Observer.
