DUNN, N. C., January 15, 1902.

No Saloon at Angier.

BARCLAYSVILLE, N. C.,
Jan. 7th, 1892.

To the Editor:

Please allow me space in your valuable columns to say that the first Monday in January 1902 was a big day in Lillington, a grand day for Harnett. A large crowd of the good citizens of the county, gathered to see and to hear, some to see the Steel Bridge that ties bank to bank of the deep C. F. River, and after seeing them to feel proud, as we realize that through the actions of the Hon. Board of Commissioners to receive it, it is all our own bridge. It is grand, a magnificent structure. It is the pride of Harnett, especially when you cross on it.

Mr. Editor, it was not only a Bridge day in Harnett but it was a "no liquor license" day too. Great crowds anxiously awaited the action of the Board of Commissioners on the petition that came from the town of Angier asking the commissioners to grant them further license to sell spirituous liquors, and there was sent in also petitions from almost all the good ladies and a good number of the men of the little town of Angier asking not to grant license; also petitions came in from Black River, Grove, Averasboro, Neill's Creek and other portions of the county, asking not to grant license for any portion of the county.

Both sides were discussed by able counsel, those for license of course had no plea for whiskey and as is generally the case they had only to resort to the money stand point the revenue, the finance derived from the sale of whiskey to found argument, and when all the dollars in the liquor traffic were put in one end of the scale by one side and the other side put in the other end of the scale, the culture, the refinement, the morals, the good of humanity, the whole man, the Dollars was a complete failure and was no comparison; the Dollars was entirely insignificant by the side of man. Of course the dollar is admitted by all, but integrity, true morals, and ardent piety has nothing to compare with them, dollars will not buy them, so it was decided that no license be granted, and Harnett county through this act walked out of the liquor business. Thus old Harnett made a long stride in the cause of morality, in the cause of humanity. By that act our morals shall not be choked out by immorality, but our right to morality shall be guarded, not legislated into us but guarded to us and for us by the law. And so victory to some extent perched upon the Temperance Banner in our county. Rejoicing and joy goes throughout all sections that the liquor traffic is sent backward to some extent from our midst. And now Mr. Editor, in behalf of all the friends of the temperance cause, we wish to say that we heartily entertain the kindest regards for any that may not see as we see or for any that may feel aggrieved. We are sorry indeed that any effort aimed solely at the liquor and its traffic should do any hurt to any one in any way. We want no victory over men—but measures only.

Our object is not public sentiment specially but our sentiment is one word—is not right. Is it good for country and humanity. Hence there needs no further experimenting with the liquor traffic, with the groggery business, our ablest men can not defend her cause and we do trust that our opponents will yet come to see the whole truth of the awfulness, and the horrors that attend the traffic. That the commissioners acted right is without question, from any point of view; they acted with much discretion and honor to themselves and with great good to the country and to all. May many blessings attend them all their days. Let us again return thanks and may the day soon come when the clean sweep can be made of this doubled distilled hot water that it may be swept out of our whole county, State and Nation, and when this is done heaven will smile, and the angels of temperance will dazzle about all glorious with their downy wings always to duty over our sunny-land.

A. W. GREGORY.

TARIFF.

At this juncture, when the national representatives are in session assembled, it is germane to notice some of the questions which, more or less, always occupy a prominent place in the discussions there. Of these questions none is of more interest to the South than the Tariff, since it has always been, though not so much now as in the past, a community of consumers.

Of all products upon which a tariff is placed, that upon steel and steel rails especially, probably illustrates best the fallacy and inconsistency of the idea. Steel rails can be manufactured today at a fair profit and sold at $17.50 a ton. At that price the rail mills would make a larger profit on their product than the flouring mills would make by a profit of 10 cents a barrel on flour—which the flouring mills would be glad to make, but do not. From the best information we have been able to gather, steel rails can be manufactured at about $16.00 per ton. Sold as they were two and a half years ago at $17.50, there was a profit of $1.50 per ton, which is more than the profit on flour at 10 cents a barrel, and that is a larger profit than is averaged by the flouring mills of this country. Yet such rails are now being sold at $28 per ton, making it easy to understand, with such enormous profits, how the steel mills are enabled to pay dividends on shares three-fourths of which are composed of water, and pay such enormous salaries as they do to their officials. We cannot tell just what sum would be required to rebuild these properties, but from what we can learn we are satisfied that they can be reproduced at less than one-half the amount at which they are capitalized. The consequence is that the people and the consumers of the country are being taxed to this enormous extent in order that the trusts and consolidations may pay such dividends, and yet, with this condition of things, we now have a duty of $7.80 per ton on steel rails, and what we have here said of steel rails can also be said of structural steel, which now enters into construction of different kinds to such an enormous extent. If this is not robbery, we would like to find some stronger word to characterize it. Robbery is a strong word, but we use it advisedly and are of the opinion that even a stronger word is needed. What shall be said of an administration that permits this robbery to go on without making an effort to protect the public. It has been said that the republican party is standing behind and thus protecting the trusts and receiving for campaign purposes a part of the money thus extorted from the people. If this is true, God speed the day when such will no longer be the case.
