

Announcement!

This is to inform my friends and the general public that I have bought out Mr. J. P. Ziegler of the Ziegler Furniture and Undertaking Co., of which I was a member of the business, and while we had prices in both lines a little under the lowest, now you will find a sharp cut in both the furniture and undertaking line, as I have cut more than his profit off the price in saving to buyer.

UNDERTAKING BUSINESS

I will be assisted in the undertaking business by Mr. Thomas Francis who has had long experience in that line with Mr. L. F. Ziegler, and I am prepared to serve any class of trade from the very best to the cheapest.

I wish to state also that I assume all indebtedness against the company and collect outstanding bills as well.

I also do an installment business as well as cash.

Very respectfully,

J. S. NORTHCOTT,
Edenton, N. C.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayes, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. ——— had me get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headaches, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

Divine Worship at The M. E. Church Sunday.

The summer is gone. The pleasant autumn has come. Most people have returned from their vacation. Let all now turn to the House of the Lord on the holy Sabbath day. We owe Him our worship. There will be services at the M. E. Church at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., with sermons by the pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Junior Epworth League at 8:30 p. m. To all of these services the public is invited to come.

War Relic Display

Many people were interested in a window display at the shop of Mr. E. L. Jones, tailor, this week. The Royal Tailors, Chicago and New York, had supplied him with the following war relics, which were on display these three days.
French Helmet belonging to Dragon.
French Trench Coat.
French 75 M. M. Shell.
French head of exploded 75 M. M. Shell.
French Officer's Leather Leg-gings.
German Mauser Rifle.
German Cartridge Box.
Austrian Gold Cord from an officer's boots.
Russian Cossack Cap.
English Officers Coat.
Many of the relics were gathered from the battlefield of the Marne where the German retreat from Paris in the early stages of the war turned to meet the French in pursuit. Each article bears a card which gives the battlefield on which it was found. Some are familiar names and others that were lost sight of in the many battles that extended along the 400 mile front.

FOREHAND-ASHLEY
A quiet but pretty wedding of much interest took place Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Ashley near Edenton when their daughter, Cella, became the bride of Cecil McLellan Forehand, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Forehand.
The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers, palms, ferns and candles. The ceremony which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. W. F. Oale, took place before an improvised altar of cut flowers and ferns, and was witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and bride-groom. The ring ceremony was used.
The wedding music was played by Miss Goldie Perry and just before the marriage Miss Lillian Forehand sang "O Promise Me." "A Perfect Day" was softly rendered during the ceremony.
The bride wore a stylish suit of cocoa brown trimmed in mole skin fur with hat, gloves, and shoes to match. Her only ornament was a handsome pin of diamonds and pearls, a gift of the groom, and her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses.
Immediately following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Forehand left for a northern wedding tour.
