Mr. William P. Long Dead.

On Monday morning, Sept. 10th, 1917, the messenger whose summons is never disobeyed called at the home of Mr. William Long and carried his spirit to the place prepared for those who love the Lord. He was a loving father, kind neighbor and loyal friend. He leaves five children, four sons and one daughter, to follow his footsteps to the better land. Mr. Long would have gained his 72nd milestone on life's journey had he lived to see the 18th of this month and was one of the oldest members of Bethel church. He was a Confederate soldier fighting nearly the entire term of the Civil War. He was also a soldier of the Cross and did not fear to meet the last enemy, often wishing for it to come. The funeral services were held at Bethel church where a large number assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory, after which his body was laid to rest in the family plot in Oak Hill cemetery.

We shall sleep, but not forever. Then will be a glorious dawn. We shall meet to part, no never. On the resurrection morn.
