AL. FIELD REMINISCENT.

How He Traveled 21 Days With Zebulon B. Vance.

Al. G. Field, the big proprietor of the minstrel aggregation bearing his name, was found in a reminiscent mood by The Citizen as he stood at the base of the Vance monument this forenoon, having walked over to view the monument while his band was giving a concert on the square.

"I was just taking a look," Mr. Field said, "at the monument erected to the memory of my old friend, the late Senator Vance. I have very pleasant recollections of the Senator. I first met him in 1876 when he was making a canvass in the Vance-Settle campaign. I was traveling with Sells Brothers' minstrel men, and Vance was with us for 21 days. We pitched tents at Hillsboro, Danbury, Lenoir, Bakersville, and other towns the names of which I cannot recall. The great North Carolina had dates in some instances identical with ours, and in other cases they were changed to suit so that the people were given a double attraction, as Vance frequently spoke in our tent during several of our performances. And he was about as big an attraction as the circus was. Yes, we spent many pleasant moments together."

At the time referred to, Mr. Field was with the circus in the capacity of a black-face artist in the concert—and had a splendid minstrel show on the concert those days," he commented. When Mr. Field started out with the Sells Brothers' minstrel show, his salary of $15. When he left the tent life 12 years later he wore a high title and received a weekly salary of $100.

"I have been at the head of my own show for 14 years," Mr. Field said, "and tonight's performance will make my twelfth in Asheville."

COMING HOME.

Sergeant Bean Writes From Santiago.

Samuel I. Bean has a letter from his brother, Sergeant Robert R. Bean, of Co. D, Seventeenth U. S. Infantry, dated Santiago de Cuba, August 3. After telling of the landing of U. S. troops at Baiquiri the writer continues: "There was quite a difference in the smell of the atmosphere the day after the landing. The next day it commenced to rain as we took up the march to the Santa Rosa mountains. The growth of vegetation, continually growing and decaying, there came a scent that was very peculiar. But there is some of the most beautiful and picturesque scenery human being ever saw. The once fertile farms and public roads are hardly discernible. The roads along our line of march were nothing more than narrow trails through the dense forest. The growth of shrubbery and small thorn bushes. The order to retrace our steps was given at the time the Rough Riders were attacked by the enemy as quickly as possible for men in a terrible battle. The soldiers and their pack, with his gun, belt and 100 rounds of ammunition. My first intention was to go back to the camp, but I was ordered to stay with the pack. We will sail, most likely, this week for some point in the United States."

AT LOOKOUT PARK.

Miss Besse Osborne's First Parachute Leap.

It is estimated that between 700 and 800 people went to Lookout park yesterday to witness the balloon ascension. The exhibition was an amazingly good one. It was especially notable because of the fact that Miss Besse Osborne, who had never had experience in aerostatics, was the heroine of the aerial feat. Through it all the young woman appeared cool and collected.

After its release the big balloon was blown some distance in a northerly direction and ascended quickly to such a great height that its occupant could not at first hear the signal pistol shot. After the balloon had risen several times Miss Osborne cut loose the parachute and gracefully made the descent.

While the descent was made successfully, the downward trip was far from being a tame and uninteresting one. The parachute was blown by a strong tail breeze. Miss Osborne was suspended in midair and could reach neither tree nor ground. At a certain point she was cured after a time and thrown to her, and with this she was drawn to where she could reach the tree.

ENTHUSIASTIC.

Dr. DuBose Writes in Praise of Asheville.

Rev. Dr. H. M. DuBose of Nashville, editor of the Epworth Era, and general secretary of the Epworth League of Southern Methodists, who attended the conference recently held in Asheville, has published a "Land of the Sky" edition of the Era. The publication contains five half-tone cuts of scenes along the French Broad, and the Blue Ridge House, and is altogether a most creditable work. The introductory paragraph says: "We are not unfamiliar with the mountains and valleys of our great country, and indeed the whole North American continent. We have lived for years in the Sierra Nevada, traveled through leagues and leagues through the Rockies, gazed on the Cascades, the Sierras and the Sierra Madre, and summed under the protecting spell of the Adirondacks and the Catskills, and we have now at last seen the mountains between the seas is there to be found a region which so thoroughly meets all the conditions of sublimity and grandeur as that part of the Southland known as 'The Land of the Sky.'"

SURVEYORS' GUIDE.

True North and South Line Soon to be Established.

The stone that is to define the true north and south line for Buncombe county is being fixed. The location being at the site at Riverside cemetery. This is done by the United States Geological Survey, the County Commissioners having appropriated $25 toward the expense. About 30 of these guides for Buncombe county are established in North Carolina. They are of the greatest value to surveyors, as they stand always a true and constant guide. Surveyors are not as it was seven years ago, and that is markedly different from what it was 20 years ago, but with the new method of determining the true north and south line, there will be no further confusion on this account.

SOLDIERS KILLED IN A WRECK

It Occurs on the Louisville and Nashville.

Two Men Dead and Others Will Die.

ABOUT TWENTY-FIVE ARE IN HOSPITAL FROM BRUISES AND SHOCKS.

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 29.—Total deaths from last night's accident on the Louisville & Nashville road, in which a train bearing six companies of the Sixty-ninth New York, was wrecked, remains two private, Peter Farley and Quartermaster Sergeant Frank Gienman, both of Company G.

Sergeant J. J. Manning, Company E, is suffering from a compound fracture of the spine and is likely to die.

None of the others are thought to be seriously hurt although about 25 privates are at the hospital suffering from bruises, shocks and other minor injuries.

The train left Fernandina, Fla., at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, three or four hours after the time set for its departure.

It was going at a high rate of speed. The tender jumped the track, derailing five cars, which rolled down a steep embankment. The soldiers claim the train was running too fast around the curve. The injured were brought here and are being given every attention in the infirmary.

"4. E. Wells was chosen chairman and W. E. Waldrop secretary of the meeting."

SUFFERING IN RUSSIA.

Feeding Trenches of Cottages to Preserve Stock.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 29.—Owing to the failure of the harvest in seven districts the government has adopted measures to relieve the sufferers. The distress is becoming more acute every day. The peasants are despoiling the trenches of their cottages in order to feed their stock. In spite of all that is done cattle and horses are dying from lack of food. Government officials are very slow in getting relief measures into effect. Peasants are expected to starve and unless promised supplies are speedily sent the suffering will be terrible.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—There is still a possibility of a change in the personnel of the American membership of the peace commission. AS TO CUBA AND PORTO RICO

INSTRUCTIONS SENT THE MILITARY COMMISSIONS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Instructions to the Cuban and Porto Rican military commissions were drawn up and approved by the President before he left Washington, and are now ready to be delivered to the president of each before he leaves.

The instructions will not be made public but the general terms are known to be the same as the instructions sent Shafter regarding the government of the Philippines. This will mean that the military commission will take control of Cuba and Porto Rico the same as the military governor now controls that portion of Cuba surrendered to the United States after the Santiago campaign.

Many minor details relative to the evacuation of the island are left to the commissions who will report any difficulty or disputed points to Washington. There has been no doubt that the United States would take full control of Porto Rico but that the instructions to the Cuban military commission settles any question regarding that island that means for the present at least that the United States will assume the government and control of the remainder of the island as has been the case in Santiago.

CAMP THOMAS.

General Condition of Things is Much Improved.

CHICKAMAUGA, Aug. 29.—The work of removing the First army corps from Chickamauga has been completed and army officials are now directing attention of the Third corps.

The Sixth regiment U. S. V., will remain here some time. The Eighth New York is being mustered out and will probably leave for home tomorrow. Conditions at the hospital are rapidly improving. At least half of the sick have been discharged and arrangements are being made to send hundreds of others. The surgeons and nurses are now able to give good attention to all here and a decided change for the better is noticeable.
