OF THE DEMOCRATIC WORK CONVENTION.

Instructions for J. M. Gudger, jr. for the State Senate-Executive Committee-Meeting Next Saturgave the result of the balloting in the Democratic county convention up to and including the tax collectorship. Following this, the convention took the sense of the delegation on the State Senatorship. The name of Gen. Theo F. Davidson was withdrawn, and it was announced that W. J. Cocke had already withdrawn through a card in the papers. The convention then in-structed for J. M. Gudger, jr., by ac-clamation for the State Senate.

Balloting for County Commissioners was next taken up, the first ballot re-sulting in the nomination of J. E. Rankin, his vote being 135. Ere the second ballot began, however, Mr. Rankin appeared before the convention and de-lined the honor. The convention then nominated R. J. Gaston, J. H. Wood-ward and G. W. Lynch. For coroner the candidates were Dr. Dan. E. Sevier and Dr. W. E. Hemphill. or. Sevier received the nomination on J. W McKoy was nominated for sur-

Salisbury correspondence Charlotte In conversation with Mr. Thomas McBee of Salisbury a few days ago, Dr. S. Westray Battle of Asheville, a retired government surgeon, told of a high tribute paid the magnificent physique of the late Wm. E. Shipp of Charlotte, who was killed n the war with Spain. Dr. Battle said that in a recent conversation with artist Frederic perfect physical manhood was Shipp, and added that Shipp, whom he knew well, had been the model for all his marial figures, and especially cavalrymen.

Received by Superintendent Sprigg of the Asheville Division.

The railroad men of the Asheville livision of the Southern regretted very nuch that W. O. Sprigg, their superntendent, decided to take a similar osition with the Lehigh Valley road They were glad of his promotion, but were sorry that he must leave. Yeserday morning they showed their regret in a practical way. The boys o the road met in the Superintendent's office at 10 o'clock and presented to Mr. Sprigg a handsome set of table ware, 54 pieces of solid silver, the letters "W. O. S." being engraved on each The ware was enclosed in antique oak box, there being a metal plate on top bearing the words "W. O. ame by way of Old Point and Norfolki Sprigg; from his co-workers on Southrn railway, Asheville, N. C., Septem-The engraving was done ber 1, 1898." by Arthur M. Field.
