AUTOMOBILE ROUTE.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 24.—Local capitalists have become interested in a project to establish an automobile route from Flagstaff, Ariz., on the Santa Fe Pacific railroad to the Grand canyon. This marvellous phenomenon of nature has been visited this season by hundreds of tourists, each year showing an increase of numbers. The plan is to put on one auto this season, and if it is successful two or three more will be added. The trip to the Grand canyon consumes about seven hours.

EVANGELISTIC EFFORT.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 24.—Charles N. Crittenton, the merchant-evangelist, will close tomorrow night a 10 days' series of revival meetings in this city. The unsavory reputation acquired by the city by recent crimes within its borders has made it the object of special solicitude on the part of religious people. Great interest was felt in the Crittenton meetings, and it is believed that they will result in great good.

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE DAY.

Pittsburg, Nov. 24.—The world's temperance day—tomorrow—will be observed by the pastors of the various churches in this city, who will preach special sermons on temperance. Superintendents of Sunday schools and leaders of young people's meetings will prepare special programs with a pledge-signing feature, as well as distribute temperance literature.

HORSESHOE MAKING CONTEST.

Brooklyn, Nov. 24.—A lively horse-shoe making contest will take place tonight in the Sampson Athletic club to determine who can make the best horseshoes in the fastest time. The winner will get a gold medal and his helpers silver medals.

TEMPERANCE SERMONS.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 24.—The members of the local society of the Women's Christian Temperance union have sent a request to all ministers in the city to observe temperance Sunday tomorrow by delivering a sermon on the topic of temperance.
