PAYNE-NOLIN WEDDING SOLEMNIZED HERE FRIDAY
A pretty home wedding was solemnized here Friday morning at the home of Mrs. R. A. Payne, when her daughter, Miss Mickey Payne, became the bride of Mr. Hubert E. Nolin, of Greenville, S. C. Rev. Paul Hartsell, pastor of the Brevard Baptist church, officiated in the presence of a few close friends and relatives of the two families.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar, with a background of greenery and autumn leaves. On either side were floor baskets of white and orchid dahlias and candelabra holding tall white burning tapers. Early autumn wild flowers in blending shades added further to the white and orchid color motif.

The bride was lovely in a traveling suit of brown, with hat and accessories to match. Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom left on a week's honeymoon trip, after which they will return to Greenville, S. C., to make their home.

Mrs. Nolin is a graduate of the Greenwood, S. C., high school, and a former student of G. W. C. at Greenville, S. C. She is a young woman of charming manner and unusual attractiveness, and has a wide circle of friends both here and in Greenville. She has spent much of the time within recent years in Greenville, where she had employment.

Mr. Nolin is a promising young attorney of the South Carolina city, is a graduate of the Greenville high school and of the University of South Carolina. He is also a member of the general assembly of South Carolina.

BEAUTY PARLOR OPENS WITH INFORMAL TEA
An informal tea given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Charles McCrary at her home on 217 Maple avenue, marked the opening of Brevard's new beauty parlor known as Ruth's Beauty Parlor, which is now being operated by Mrs. McCrary at her residence.

About 75 ladies of the community attended the tea during the reception hours of 2:30 to 5:30 and made inspection of the new parlor, which is attractively arranged and adequately equipped to take care of beauty culture service of a varied nature.

The house was tastefully decorated in dahlias and early fall flowers, and the bright sunny room serving as the beauty parlor was rendered more effective by the addition of flowers in harmonizing colors.

Mrs. McCrary received the guests and accompanied them on inspection of the shop equipment. Mrs. Anthony Trantham poured tea during the afternoon.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES TO MEET THURSDAY
The four circles of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular monthly meetings Thursday of this week at the following places:

Circle No. 1 with Mrs. Ed Patton at Davidson River.
Circle No. 2 with Mrs. Bill Fetzer.
Circle No. 3 with Mrs. L. M. Hart at The Pines, Little River.

Young Women's circle with Mrs. Willis Brittain, on East Main street, at 8 o'clock.

A full attendance of members is urged by the different circle presidents to be present at these circle meetings Thursday afternoon and evening of this week.

MATHATASIAN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. PAT KIMZEY
The Mathatasian club held its regular meeting of the new club year Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pat Kimzey, the new club president, who also presided over the meeting.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Jerry Jerome, who gave an interesting sketch of the life of the authoress, Sarah Josepha Hale.

Mrs. J. L. Cobb was elected into full membership. Twelve members were present and one guest, Miss Louise Kimzey.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Oliver Orr, with Mrs. Pat Kimzey as program leader.

KATHERINE ENGLISH HOSTESS AT DANCE
Miss Katherine English was charming hostess at a dance given Friday evening at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. English.

About 25 of the younger set, friends and schoolmates of the young hostess were present to enjoy the hospitality of Miss Katherine on this occasion. Cake and cider were served during the evening.

Y. W. A. ENJOYS OUTING AT MAIDEN HAIR FALLS.
Members of the Gladly Branch Y. W. A. entertained a number of friends with a marshmallow roast at Maiden Hair falls Tuesday evening.

After playing various games the party toasted marshmallows, those present reporting a delightful time.

Members of the Y. W. A. present were: Misses Irene and Margaret Aiken, Katherine Shipman, Elizabeth and Melrose Sitton, Nola and Pauline Gillespie, Allie Belle Morris, Coy and Viola Nelson.

Invited guests and chaperones included: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Glazener, Misses Grace Hamilton, Rhemma and Hybernia Shipman, Messrs. Clyde Hamilton, Dewey Moore, Harold Aiken, Grady and Glenn Shipman, Paul Glazener, Virgil Gillespie and Bill Nelson.

M. G. F. CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR
The M. G. F. Sunday school class, of which Mrs. Oliver Orr is teacher elected new officers for the coming year on Sunday.

Those elected to office were: President, Mrs. T. T. Loftis Jr.; vice president, Mrs. Ernest Tilson; secretary-treasurer, Anna Mae Henderson.

Mrs. Oliver Orr was re-elected teacher of the class of young ladies. The class is studying the life of Paul. All young ladies of the Methodist church eligible to join this class are urged to meet each Sunday morning in the ladies' parlor and enjoy these interesting lessons on the life of Paul.

AUXILIARY AND GUILD WILL MEET THURSDAY

G. A.'S HAVE INTERESTING MEETING ON WEDNESDAY
The intermediate G. A.'s of the Baptist church met with Marcha Ray Snelson and Catherine Case in an interesting meeting Wednesday at the Snelson home.

Mrs. Hugh Holliefield opened the meeting with prayer, after which Catherine Case read the scripture. The president, Elizabeth Price, presided over a short business session, and conducted an interesting program on the topic, "Doorways." Ruth Fulton, Catherine Fulton, Lucile Michael, Ora Hoyt Long and Polly Hartsell discussed the different kinds of doorways through which the Gospel might enter one's heart.

Junie McCall and Betty Loftis were welcomed as new members.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Elizabeth Price on Whitmire street, on October 11th.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE AT MEET IN HENDERSONVILLE
Eighteen members of the Brevard Methodist church attended the zone meeting of the Asheville district held in the Hendersonville Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Brevard was said to have the largest representation present, and a larger number than any other four churches in the district.

Those attending from the local church were: Rev. J. H. West, C. B. West, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Robinson, D. P. Kilpatrick, J. E. Ruffy, O. H. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellers, G. W. Hayes, Mrs. Cordia King, Mrs. Mamie Verdery, T. B. Crary, W. F. Short, W. L. Aiken.

The meeting was presided over by Presiding Elder Litaker, and inspirational talks were made by H. A. Durham, of Asheville, and J. Claude Sales, of Fletcher. Rev. J. H. West, pastor of the local church, gave financial report of this church and its condition at present.

MISS EVA MCFEE WEDS MARION YOUNG MAN
Of much interest to many friends in this community is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Eva McFee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McFee, of Marion, to Mr. R. Allan Poe Jr., also of Marion, the ceremony occurring Sunday, September 24, in York, S. C.

Mrs. Poe is the niece of Mrs. Will Hunt and Mrs. John W. Smith, of Brevard, and has made numerous friends during her occasional visits with her relatives here and also as a student at Brevard high school, from which she was graduated in 1930.

The following from The Asheville Citizen gives more detailed account of the event:

Miss Eva McFee, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. B. McFee, of 9 Rutherford road, Marion, was married at 4:45 o'clock Sunday afternoon in York, S. C., to Mr. R. Allan Poe, Jr., also of Marion. The couple is at home at 9 Rutherford road.

Mr. Poe, formerly student of Asheville high school, is employed by a leading Marion cafe. He was for a time employed by The Asheville Times several years ago.

Mrs. Poe formerly attended Asheville high school and resided in Asheville some 15 years. She is a sister of C. B. McFee Jr., of Asheville, civic leader and salesman at The Men Store, and a sister of Mrs. John E. Jones, of West Asheville.

She graduated from Brevard high school in 1930. Her parents moved to Marion in 1930, where Mr. McFee is proprietor of a jewelry shop. He was watchmaker and jeweler in Asheville for many years.
