

MRS. R. M. BLYTHE CALLED IN DEATH

Mrs. R. M. Blythe, of Etowah, died at the local hospital last Thursday, after having undergone treatment for several weeks. Funeral services were held at Pleasant Grove Baptist church Friday afternoon.

Surviving are one son, Lloyd Blythe of Greenville, and two daughters, Mrs. Creed Banks of Etowah and a young daughter, Charlotte. The husband and one son were killed several years ago by a train.

OLD TOXAWAY

(Beulah Rice)

Norman Galloway and son Clinton and friend of Kannapolis were weekend guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. Addie Rice.

Otis Hendrix and Wiley Meece made a business trip to Asheville recently.

Mrs. Harmon Morgan, who has been ill at her home, is reported to be slightly improved.

Mrs. Norma Rice of Kannapolis, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morgan.

Mrs. W. E. Galloway and son Cecil motored to Brevard Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel Morgan, who has been in Kannapolis for the past month, has returned home.

Mrs. M. D. Rice and family and Mrs. Emma Gibson were Friday evening guests of Mrs. Addie Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gambrell and children of Greenville were Sunday guests of Mrs. Addie Rice.

Mrs. W. M. Meece visited her sister, Mrs. Jim Fisher at Reid's Sunday, Mrs. Fisher is reported very ill.

Weldon Galloway of John's Rock CCC camp spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Aiken and daughter of Greenville, were week-end guests of Mrs. Milford Galloway.

W. E. Galloway and son Weldon were Sunday guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Jim Fisher.

Miss Daisy Galloway was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Galloway.

Gaston Chapman, Wiley Meece and H. C. Chappell went to Brevard Sunday to visit Bing Chappell.

Charlie Hendrix and Roy Robinson were Sunday night guests of Wood Morgan.

OAKLAND NEWS

(By Mrs. Lee F. Norton)

S. S. Williams, of Asheville, was here Friday in the interest of the crop loan payments. He was accompanied by his wife who says there is nothing so interesting to her as our beautiful mountains and forests at this time of the year.

Mrs. Clyde Chappell and sons Hovie and Homer were Brevard visitors Friday.

Mrs. Homer Siler is visiting her sister Mrs. John Lyday.

Miss Alebra Burgess spent Thursday at Pisgah Forest.

Thad Guy left last week for Waynesville where he has employment.

John Lyday called Friday morning on T. B. Reid.

Miss Lucy Hall spent the week-end with Misses May and Myrtle Cash.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Reid, of Fairfield, visited their cousin, Mrs. Robert Noland, and Mr. Noland last week at their home in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noland of Asheville spent the week-end here with Mrs. Noland's mother Mrs. S. E. Alexander.

Mrs. Mary Burgess and Mrs. Lee Norton called Sunday afternoon on Mrs. S. E. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bryson, of Rosman, visited friends at Sapphire Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders had as callers Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Reid, of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norton, Mrs. Mary Burgess, Miss Alberta Burgess and Kile Galloway.

Mrs. Lee Norton visited Mrs. F. M. Jordan at her home at Calvert Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson visited friends in South Carolina over the week-end.

Jack Coward of Lake Alfred, Fla., son of George Coward, formerly of Cullowhee, and Jim Price of Cullowhee, have been stopping at Cold Spring Cottage with Mrs. Burgess and family for the past week.

Miss Annie Lyday is spending some time with Mrs. Maggie Nicholson.

Clarence Chappell was a visitor in Rosman Sunday afternoon.

E. A. Reid and son Leo Reid called Sunday afternoon on W. F. McCall.

Lane and Cecil Sanders visited their grandmother Norton Saturday.

We constantly speak of "he men" as if there were "she men."

PISGAH FOREST NEWS

In the death of W. H. Sentell which occurred late Thursday night at his home here the county loses one of its leading citizens. Uncle Henry, as he was commonly known, suffered a stroke of paralysis last spring and has been in failing health ever since. About a month ago, he grew worse and continued so until the end.

The deceased was 49 years 1 month and 2 days of age. An upright, honest man has fallen but he leaves behind a record that should be a comfort to his friends, for he was respected by all who knew him.

Funeral services were held at the local Baptist church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. I. A. Rineheart, Rev. H. L. Southers and Rev. Hilemon. After services his body was taken to the Little River burial ground.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, three daughters, Corine, Mrs. Curtis Grey and Mrs. Henry Mackey; six brothers, Arthur, Glover, Jethro, Osie, George and Nichols, two sisters, Mrs. Tilden Corn and Mrs. E. C. Orr, his father Rev. John Sentell and three grandchildren, besides a host of other relatives. His brothers were pallbearers and Moore and Osborne undertakers had charge of arrangements.

Mr. Gerald Patton of Rutherfordton was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patton Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Boggs and little son of Turkey Creek spent several days last week with Mrs. W. A. Lyday.

The annual Home Coming Day of the Davidson River Presbyterian church was observed here last Sunday October 1st. An interesting program was presented with Judge R. L. Gash relating the church history after which Dr. R. C. Anderson of Montreat delivered an interesting sermon. The singing was a special feature of the day, with everybody joining in and singing the old hymns. Due to the rain the dinner was spread and enjoyed by all in the church, picnic style. There was no services after dinner due to the illness of Rev. Hutchison of Mills River a former pastor who was supposed to preach.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Simpson of Greenville, spent the week-end with the latter's mother Mrs. D. W. Hollingsworth.

Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. attended the district No. 2 meeting of the Asheville Presbyterian in Montreat Monday, where she gave a talk on Spiritual Life.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stophel moved to Marion, S. C., Saturday where Mr. Stophel has employment. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wyatt are now occupying the house vacated by the Stophels.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Parris spent Sunday with Mrs. Parris mother, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Norman in Canton.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Corn and Mrs. Clarence Ramsey of Inman, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morgan.

The home of Mrs. D. W. Hollingsworth presented a pretty scene last Sunday when several hundred friends and relatives gathered to observe the annual McKinna reunion a bountiful picnic dinner was spread and very much enjoyed.

In the late afternoon the many friends and relatives departed for their homes after spending an enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Ray and little son of Little River spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Hedrick and attended the Home Coming Day at the Davidson River church.

A meeting of all the parents are urged to be present at the school house next Thursday evening Oct. 12th at 7:30 o'clock, where the Parent Teachers Association will be organized.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens of North Brevard spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cheek.

Mrs. Davis of Greenville spent the week-end with her daughter Mrs. T. E. Patton Jr. and attended the Home Coming Day at Davidson River Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Dewey Burns, who was taken to the Lyday Memorial hospital last Tuesday for treatment was returned to her home here Saturday and is slowly improving.

Mrs. James Carter and children spent the week-end visiting relatives on Mills River.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Allen and daughter Elizabeth Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and little son, Miss Nellie Mackey and Messrs. Allen and Lloyd Campfield all of Swannanoa spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buckner of Beech spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Edwards.

The Fair is on and we hope you will enjoy it. Everything is looking fine, and some have evidently made no little effort to make this annual event a success. This is the show place of our efforts. If we

GLOUCESTER NEWS

(Helen Owen)

Our pastor, Rev. Judson Hall, will preach at Macedonia Baptist church Sunday morning October 8th at eleven o'clock. Sunday school will be held at ten o'clock.

Rev. J. B. Kilpatrick delivered a very interesting sermon Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Owen.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Miller and children and Mable Owen were visitors to Sapphire Sunday.

Rev. R. A. Hudson, Homer Powell and children of Pickens were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Booth Price.

Colan Anderson of Piedmont, S. C., spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Price, Bill Briscoe, Edmond Owen, Mildred Price, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd McCall and children and Flemon McCall attended the McCall reunion at Brevard Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stone and children of Greenville, S. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Cad Whitmire and children of Quebec spent Friday night as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Burgan Kilpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Miller and children were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Moore spent Saturday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCall.

Burgan Kilpatrick and son Darius were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Bill Briscoe of Jackson county, and Edmond Owen of Quebec spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Booth Price.

Miss Edna Kilpatrick spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Ella Mae Lall.

L. C. and J. B. Hall were visitors at Calvert Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow McCall and children and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hall visited the Gloucester CCC camp Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Allison spent the week-have improved our stock, shown thought and care in handling it here is where we show it. The production of our soil. No matter what grain, fruit or garden, we are going forward or backward.

To the children—The Fair means much, their exhibits, the work of the boys, the products of the girls, are there to speak for itself. It will stimulate others to try and excel next year.

MANY CCC BOYS TO RETURN TO HOMES

According to officials of the CCC camps located in Transylvania at John's Rock and Balsam Grove, around one-fourth of the boys enlisted are leaving this week for their homes in various parts of the state, some to enter school and others to take up work.

Boys remaining at the camps are re-enlisting for six months' period, with expiration first of next May.

The camps are being reconditioned for winter quarters, a number of local carpenters and helpers being given work.

It is not known just when recruits will be received to fill the vacancies created by the large number of boys leaving.

end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Allison at Cherryfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgan Kilpatrick and children visited Rev. and Mrs. Dillard Owen at Balsam Grove Sunday.

Ruby and Helen Owen and Hardy Kilpatrick motored to Gloucester CCC camp Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Moore spent Monday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kilpatrick.

Ruby and Helen Owen, Hardy Kilpatrick, Archie Moss and Arthur Riddles visited Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Hall on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Overton Kitchen and daughter, Mable, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCall.

One can be forever fussing about the quality of the coffee until he is taken for an abject addict.

SEND YOUR BOY OR GIRL THE TIMES AT 50c PER SCHOOL TERM

In order to make it easy for parents in Brevard and Transylvania county to send the home paper to their boys and girls who are attending schools and colleges in other sections, the price for the paper has been cut for this purpose to fifty cents for the school term.

Happenings in the home community are of double interest to the boys and girls who are away at school, and the home paper will be an appropriate gift.

A GREATER TRANSYLVANIA

Every citizen of the County ought to attend the Fair to be held in Brevard Friday and Saturday and lend encouragement to a movement that really means something to the future of this fine section. Agriculture, Livestock and Poultry form the basis of wealth here. . . . Bring your exhibits, see the other fellows and call by to see us while in town. . . . we're interested in your progress, and can prove to you that the

SCIENTIFICALLY GROWN AND SELECTED SEEDS
SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED AND BALANCED FEEDS
ARE THE MAIN ASSENTIALS IN FARMING, LIVESTOCK AND POULTRY RAISING

Fertilizers

When sowing time in the fall comes, or when you plant your garden and crops in the spring, see us for correct fertilizers at fair prices.

OUR FEEDS

For Cattle, Horses, Hogs and Poultry, are prepared by the best men that a great concern like the Purina Company can assemble. No expense is spared in obtaining the services of the very best minds in preparing feeds. Your stock and Poultry need this feed—the Best.

Complete line of other Feeds, such as Shorts, Bran, Hay, Cotton Meal, Hulls, etc.

OUR SEEDS

Come from Seed Houses where the most highly trained and experienced men devote their entire time and talent to growing, preparation and selection of Seed THAT WILL GROW and bring forth the greatest yield at harvest time.

Garden Seed, Field Seed, Flower Seed—That Grow

TRY OUR CORN MILL

with your next batch, you'll like the kind of meal we make, and corn bread will be a better table food if we grind your corn.

SAVE MONEY on

Groceries

Your neighbor has learned that he can save money by coming to our store for his Groceries. Buy your next supply here, and become a regular customer.

B & B FEED & SEED CO.

The Store with the Checkerboard sign

BREVARD