FINE SWEET POTATO CROP IN THIS SECTION

Potatoes that are potatoes can be seen at the farm of J. A. Mull on route three, one of the several large beauties which Mr. Mull brought to ye editor weighing 46 ounces and measuring 15 5-8 inches by 18 inches.

Mr. Mull says he is not positive just the kind of potatoes that he is raising, he having kept the seed since he started housekeeping. Regardless of the name, the potatoes are above the average sweet potato in size, color and eating quality.

Another nice batch of potatoes enjoyed by The Times editor was furnished by L. E. Chapman, who has an exceptionally nice crop that he is offering for sale at his home on Route three.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS SALE!

SALE STARTS FRIDAY A. M., OCTOBER 20th, AT 9 O'CLOCK

The Owner TALKS:

For two years I have operated a First Class Department Store in Brevard. And we have had a good business, as you all know. We have made many friends, for which we are justly proud. We have learned to like the people of this vicinity, and we hate to go out of business. But I have other interests which are suffering from my inability to give them my attention, so I have decided to dispose of my store. I invite one and all to come to this sale and share in the many Bargains.

I thank you one and all.

—T. VIGODSKY.
