Raps CWA Board

(Mrs. W. C. Gravely)

In last week's Transylvania Times was mentioned the fact that at one time there was an outlaw in hiding on East Fork. Well, we're mighty proud that we have come into notice at last. We've been trying for the longest to get noticed and at last our "wishes have come true."

Yes, we heard of the gent, and folks that saw him said he seemed to be a real nice fellow. So we're hoping folks won't look down on us just because there was once an out-law parked himself in our corner of Democratic Representatve Is the world.

A few weeks ago one of our East Fork citizens had a letter in the county paper. He spoke about the county paper. He spoke about the Announcement is made in this is-East Fork folks thinking they had sue of The Transylvania Times by been treated badly in regard to the M. Wallace Galloway of Brevard, of CWA work in our county. He left been treated badly in regard to the CWA work in our county. He left several things unsaid that we think should be said, so we're taking the chance of staying out the waste basket and taking advantage of the fact that we pose as a county correspondent for our county paper, we'll just add our bit and state some facts in regard to our roads, etc.
