INTERMEDIATE G. A. HAS INTERESTING MEET

The intermediate G. A. of the Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon, October 31, at the home of Miss Christine Miller.

Miss Clara Allison had charge of the program, assisted by Misses Mabel Gillespie, Elizabeth Price, Mary Aiken and Christine Miller.

A short social hour was enjoyed after the program.

Plans were made for a quilting party to be held by the girls on Thursday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Hugh Hollifield. The ladies of the W. M. S. will assist the girls in making the quilt. The regular G. A. meeting will also be held at this time.

MRS. NICHOLSON HOSTESS TO FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Mrs. J. S. Nicholson was hostess to the Fortnightly club Thursday afternoon at her home on East Main street. In addition to the members present were also three guests, Mrs. M. G. Pangle, Miss Lucile Smith and Miss Dulcine Hayes, of Brevard College faculty.

Following the routine business, presided over by the president, Mrs. Cordia King, a report of the recent district meeting held in Asheville was given by the delegate, Miss Alma Trowbridge, who also was in charge of the program of the afternoon, discussing briefly three topics, "Afraid of Lightning?" "Ida M. Tarbell at 76" and a humorous feature.

The club gave a cash donation to the nursery school.

A salad course was served by the hostess during the social half-hour.

MATHATASIAN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. BRITTAIN

The Mathatasian club held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Willis Brittain on East Main street.

An interesting program on Sidney Lanier was led by Mrs. Julian Glazener, giving a sketch of his life and works and reading several poems. Mrs. Knox DeLong assisted Mrs. Glazener by reading one of Lanier's compositions, "Marshes of Glenn."

A report of the district meeting held recently in Asheville was given by Mrs. Ernest Tilson. One guest was present, Mrs. Roy Long.

Following refreshments the club adjourned to meet on November 22 at the home of Mrs. C. H. Trowbridge, with Mrs. J. M. Gaines as program leader.

MUSIC CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND DISTRICT MEET

Several members of the Brevard Music Lovers club and the junior music club attended the annual meeting of the western district of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs convening in Asheville Saturday.

Members of the senior music club in attendance were Mrs. A. H. Kizer, Mrs. Knox DeLong, Mrs. O. L. Erwin and Mrs. J. M. Allison.

Junior music club members attending included Edward Glazener, Paul Jones and Dorothy Poole. Alvin Moore, music teacher and director of the club, and Julian A. Glazener accompanied the juniors to Asheville.

Edward Glazener played a piano solo during the afternoon program and Paul Jones gave the local club report, which was followed by an ovation from the audience because of the originality and exceptionally good presentation of the report.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER IS OF INTEREST HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harris are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born Wednesday, November 7, at Mercy hospital in Charlotte.

The little miss has been given the name of her great-great-grandmother, Eleanor Lake Harris.

THREE CIRCLES TO MEET THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The three circles of the Methodist church will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church, instead of meeting in the different homes as is customary.

The business session will be held separately in different rooms of the church, after which all will assemble for an open meeting and social feature.

ENJOY WEEK-END CAMPING TRIP

Several people from Brevard enjoyed an over-night camping trip the past week-end at the Grimshawe cabins in the Sapphire section.

The camping party included: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Grimshawe, Mr. and Mrs. Spurge Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Allison.

MUSICAL HONORS LOCAL SONG WRITER

Mrs. Carl McCrary entertained with a small musical Sunday evening at her home, honoring Mrs. Carolyn Thrash Dorsett's song and melody, "When It's Sunset in the Smokies."

The song was composed by Mrs. Dorsett and the melody was written by the famous musical composer, Luther A. Clark, author of the piano part, "When It's Springtime in the Rockies."

Mrs. McCrary beautifully rendered the song, and Mrs. Madge Wilkins played the melody with much expression and skill.

Prominent among the guests was Dr. Allen Ballentine, of Newark, N. J., who was much impressed with the song and the melody.

Mr. Clark's piano part of the composition will be finished at an early date, after which several musicals will be given by Mrs. Dorsett's friends to compliment her first efforts in song writing.

Mrs. Dorsett's friends predict for her success in her new line and consider her fortunate in having had a publishing offer from Luther A. Clark.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE IN MEET WITH MRS. ENGLISH

The Sarah Taylor circle of young women of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs.

Leon English Jr. for the regular meeting of this organization.

Mrs. English, chairman, presided over the meeting and the business transactions. Mrs. Goode Loftis conducted the Bible study lesson on the parables of Christ.

Refreshments served during the social period concluded the meeting.

OBSERVE EDUCATION WEEK WITH TEA

National education week was observed last week by teachers of the elementary and primary grades, who entertained the parents of the children in these grades with a tea in the elementary school building Friday afternoon.

After the parents had visited their children in the different grade rooms they all assembled with the teachers in the basement rooms of the elementary building where tea was served by the teachers at a get-acquainted social feature.

T. E. L. TO MEET TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Regular meeting of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist church will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. G. F. Gallamore, who will be assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Tell Brown.

Election of officers will take place and all members are urged by the president, Mrs. W. H. Duckworth, to be present.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED AT PARTY

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Margaret Bosse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bosse of Brevard, and Mr. Anson Loomis, of Columbus, Ohio, was announced at a party at the Bosse home Monday night, given by Miss Bosse's sister, Mrs. Bertrand Kaussy. The date for the wedding has been set for December 5, in Columbus, Ohio.

The engagement was cleverly announced by a hunt for pieces of broken hearts, which, when found and put together informed the guests of the approaching event and the names of the couple.

Contests and games appropriate to the idea of an engagement were played and prizes awarded to the winners. The remainder of the evening was spent in hemming dish towels, after which refreshments were served.

Invited guests included members of the Philathea class of the Baptist church and a few close friends.
