INTEREST KEEN FOR GROWING PRODUCE

Tomatoes Seen As Money Crop By Farmers of County—Market Assured

Increased interest is being shown throughout the county in growing tomatoes and beans for the market, according to County Agent Julian Glazener, since announcement last week in The Times of a definite marketing system for Brevard.

The Skyland Packing and Canning company of Hendersonville, announced last week that a Brevard packing plant would be set up at the B & B Feed store for green tomatoes and beans, and that the canneries of the packing company would also take care of red ripe tomatoes that were not marketed green, or that were of the irregular type and not suited for marketing green.

Announcement was also made last week by the Farmers Federation canneries at Hendersonville that increased operations of that plant would be carried on this summer, and in addition to the yellow tomatoes, red ripens, and other vegetables including okra and beans would be handled by the Federation cannery.

With the two canneries operating twenty miles from Brevard, and with the green market afforded through the local packing plant, it is believed that at least fifty acres will be planted to tomatoes in Transylvania this year, as the canneries will be able to handle any tomatoes that are not marketed on the higher priced green market.

A. H. HARRIS,
Mayor Of Brevard

"Clean-Up" Brevard Is Motto To Be Observed Next Week

Annual Clean-Up Week will be observed in Brevard from May 2 through May 7, during which time residents and property owners are expected to cooperate in giving the town a clean appearance.

The town officials are cooperating in the movement, with the drive being sponsored by the Women's Civic Club.

The town truck will pick up trash and refuse in the four "zones" of the town on scheduled dates, and residents in the four zones are requested to have their trash ready for the truck on the day it is scheduled in the particular section of Brevard.

The zones are laid out with Broad street being the north-south dividing line, and Main street being the east-west line.

Truck schedule calls for Zone 1—east of Broad and north of east Main on Tuesday; Zone 2—east of Broad and south of Main on Wednesday; Zone 3—west of Broad and south of Main, Thursday; Zone 4—west of Broad and north of Main, Friday.

Observing the above dates which the trucks will be in the four zones, residents are requested to place their trash in containers, on the front of their property the afternoon before the truck is to make its rounds. It is necessary to observe this schedule closely, as the truck will be unable to get back over any of the zones.

Request is made by the truck crew that trash be placed in containers where possible, but in any event to have it piled compact, so that loading may be facilitated. There will be no charge for hauling the trash.

Ladies of the Civic Club who are in charge of the four zones are: 1—Mrs. Thor Berg; 2—Mrs. J. C. Wike, Mrs. J. W. Smith, and Mrs. D. L. English; 3—Mrs. A. H. Harris, and Mrs. O. L. Erwin; 4—Mrs. E. R. Pendleton; Mrs. T. P. Ward, and Mrs. John Ashworth. Mrs. Erwin is general chairman. These ladies will ask other residents to assist them in the work of canvassing the zones which they represent in order to make the clean-up drive as effective as possible.

Mayor A. H. Harris, for the town, sets forth purposes of the clean-up drive in the following statement, which should be of interest to every citizen of the community:

Next week, May second to seventh, has been designated as "Clean-Up" week for Brevard and community. Your Mayor and the Board of Aldermen seek the cooperation of every citizen, young and old, in this very commendable effort on the part of the Women's Civic Club, and other public spirited citizens to make our City one we may be proud of.

A schedule of this undertaking will be found elsewhere in this newspaper, and there will be no difficulty in making your plans fit in with all that has been worked out in the matter of trucking and moving trash and other details connected with the work.

The first objective attained in a clean city is that of better health, and living conditions, as a result of better sanitary conditions resulting therefrom.

Then there is the matter of making our streets and homes more attractive, both to our neighbors and to our many visitors, and in this connection I wish to stress, that we each and every one, make each day a "clean-up" day; we can accomplish this by keeping everything nice and neat on our own properties; and when I say properties, I do not mean just our homes, it will apply just as properly to our places of business, whether it be a grocery or dry goods store, barber shop, garage or restaurant. Keep "sleeked up." Unsightly messes of all kinds, including papers, and what not, lying or flying around on a sidewalk in front of a place of business don't look so "hot," and the very little effort required to help the Town boys keep this condition down, might pay pretty well.

The following township offices have been filed on the Democratic ticket: Brevard township: Justice of the peace, F. E. Shuford, C. C. Kilpatrick, J. P. Deaver, T. A. Barnett, T. H. Case, Fred Grogan; for constable, Red Smith and W. L. Wood.

Pisgah Forest Camp Will Be Displayed

A scene from Pisgah National Forest will be on display in the main window of Bon Marche, Asheville from Thursday through Sunday night of this week.

A miniature recreation camp, similar to the one at White Pine on Davidson River, will furnish the front of the display, with a cut-out of the Memorial Archway, and shrubs from the forest in the background.

The display will be one of sixteen which the Bon Marche will show during the next couple of weeks, with other communities of Western Carolina having window displays.

The Pisgah National Forest workers and the Brevard Chamber of Commerce are co-operating in the display, with Messrs Ruff and Cromwell doing the art work and building.

It is plan of the Chamber of Commerce and the Forestry officials to later take the same display to Atlanta, and one or more other northern cities this summer, as an advertisement for the forest's recreation centers and Brevard.

Complete details as to meeting places of the various precincts, and date for the county convention will be announced in this paper next week.

Business property improvements in the uptown section during the past three months have exceeded the total of the past two years, according to conservative estimate of contractors who have been interviewed this week.

Major improvement was that of the Erwin building on Main street which is now owned and occupied by Plummer's. This large store room has been completely renovated, and is now one of the attractive business houses of the town.

Adjoining Plummer's on the east, Clyde Hamilton is having the old bowling alley room made into an attractive and up-to-date cafe quarters, and hopes to have the Canteen Cafe located there within the week. Erwin Galloway is in charge of this work.

On the corner, Macfie's drug store has purchased a new fountain, and is starting other modernization of the store. On East Main, the Farmer's Federation bought and completely remodeled the Allison building, and while removing an eye-sore also made a modern store room.

C. B. McFee and Memory Mull purchased the brick building opposite the court house and made the two rooms over into nice quarters for the Jewelry-store and beauty parlor. Col. W. E. Britt has just completed repairs on the second floor of the Breese building, making two modern apartments. He also plans to improve the first floor offices this summer.

On Broad street, work is now going forward in the Picketts-Ramseyer building recently vacated by R. H.

Plummer, where modern quarters for Galloway's cafe is being fitted up. A. M. Case is in charge of this job.

Memory Mull is building an extension to the Poinsette building on West Main street, and will install his bowling alleys in the improved structure within the next couple of weeks. Office rooms in the Whitmire building over Long's Drug store have been improved, and part of the offices rented.

C. B. Scott, who recently purchased the Burchmeyer building on West Main is now putting the finishing touches to the first floor rooms, and will soon open a grocery and market. Improvements have been made in the front of the A. W. Wheeler & Son building, also on West Main.

Improvements are now being made in the Clayton block, with one of the brick offices already rented to the Sledge Radio shop, and McCrary Realty office expected to be located in the other one as soon as improvements have been completed.

New quarters for the city hall and fire department will be fitted out in the Harris building on West Main, with work to be started there during the coming week. The town recently purchased this building, and expects to move into the new quarters by June 15th.

Major construction completed this spring was the new brick elementary school building which was built by the WPA and county, and occupied by the first three grades of the Brevard school the latter part of March, and the NYA recreation hut on the high school grounds.
