PENROSE NEWS

Members of Enon B.Y.P.U. began a study course Monday evening. The subject for study is the manual. Attendance is good and interest is excellent. The course is directed by the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Nicholson, and taught by N. L. Ponder.

Ray Parker in company with Odell McKinney, of Little River, Ed Jones, of Cedar Mountain, Rob Taylor, of Boylston, and others made a trip to Nashville, Tenn., Saturday to get a close-up view of the Grand Old Opry. The tabernacle, as Ray says, was hardly as he had imagined, but rather a disappointing surprise. They saw and heard the whole group of radio performers except the Delmore Brothers. Considering all things they had an enjoyable trip.

Rev. W. H. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brown, C. L. Picklesimer and another music lover visited the big singing convention at Hendersonville Sunday afternoon. The singing program was excellent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mitchell had a pleasant visit last week way down at Jackson, Tennessee.

Weren't we glad for the rain last Friday. Now we can go on enjoying our farm work and hope for much fruit of our labor. We had had no rain for three weeks to a day. And following the rain, a strong west wind carried by us much of the soil from the dust bowl or some where out west.
