

GLANCING BACK AT BREVARD

Taken from the files of The Sylvan Valley News, beginning 1895.

(From the file of June 16, 1902)

Winthrop Johnstone celebrated his birthday last Friday by inviting a number of his friends over to spend the day. At 9 o'clock in the morning the invited guests met at T. B. Woods residence, crossed the river in a canoe, then proceeded to Glen Cannon falls where they spent the day. At 4 p. m. they had luncheon at the Johnstone residence and returned at 8. The guests were: Misses Alice Wood, Eva Puett, Dollie Welt, Rose Puett, Jennie Welt, DeWitt Gillespie and Carol Morris.

The dance at the McMinn House Tuesday night was even more of a success than any of the former events of the season, notwithstanding the fact that the weather kept some of the guests away. Those present were: Mrs. C. P. Clarke, Mrs. F. L. DeVane, Mrs. Delavan Tucker, Mrs. Wm. Hewitt, Mrs. R. J. Clarke, Miss DeVane, Miss Brumfield, Miss Mitchell and Miss Piaster, Messrs. Clarke, DeVane, Orr, Brumfield, Riser, Mitchell, Davies, Hass and G. C. Brumfield. The Brevard string band furnished the music and refreshments were served. At a late hour the ball broke up, each guest already looking forward to the time when the pleasure shall be repeated. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke have the faculty of making each of their social functions even more enjoyable than the preceding one, and their hospitality was highly appreciated by the young people.

Dr. G. W. Young has traded a portion of his farm near Ecusta to W. S. Price for his town property. This includes store, goods, building and lot. The store will be continued by Dr. Young. Mr. Price and family will however, occupy the upper story of the building this summer.

Miss Josie Osborne returned home this week after an extended visit to the exposition at Charleston and relatives at Spartanburg, S. C.

Among prominent visitors in Brevard this week are: Governor Calhoun and wife, of St. Louis, J. Frank Wilkes, of Charlotte, Prof. Wm. Main, of New York City, Julian d'Ossie, of Boston, Geo. W. Tilson, of Asheville.

T. L. Clark and family will occupy the V. E. McGaha residence near the Baptist church. Mr. Clark will probably move in this week.

A number of our people have been attracted by the pebble-dash work being done on the J. W. McMinn house.

Col. E. T. Everett was in Brevard this week. He expects to bring his family here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rolfe and two daughters, of Pittsburgh, Pa., are stopping at Dr. Hun's this week.

E. S. Black was ordained deacon of the Presbyterian church at last Sunday morning's service.

A. T. Cooper and family have moved to Asheville. Our people regret to have them leave this community.

J. L. Bell has returned home after an extended visit in South Carolina.

Eugene Lewis came into Brevard last week and left on Monday for Toxaway, where he expects to take a position for the summer.

A number of prospectors are among our people this week. Some are looking for waterfalls, some for farms and others are seeking health and pleasure.

Several workmen arrived here this week from Asheville and Spartanburg and other places. Some will do the pebble-dash work on the Breese building and others will work on the new residence of Dr. Wallis.

Z. W. Nichols has received this week a shipment of souvenir chinaware which consists of plates, pitchers, saucers, cups and fancy dishes of quite a variety. On each one is stamped a perfect picture of either the Franklin hotel or Connetsee falls. The goods were made in Austria and are excellent souvenirs.

It is reported that Jasper Orr, of North Brevard, has sold his home to a Pennsylvanian, and that the purchaser will erect a $30,000 residence on the site where Mr. Orr's house now stands.

The Rev. Mr. Chapman, of St. Philips, will be absent on a visit to his old home during the month of June. He will officiate at St. Philips on Trinity Sunday, his last service previous to his departure.

The settlement between the county commissioners and Sheriff J. C. King for 1901 taxes was made last week. The total tax on real estate and personal property of the county is about $19,000. Of this amount only about $189,28 was uncollected at the time of settlement. Transylvania county can well congratulate herself on the record its tax collector has made this year. Very few, if any counties, can show as good a record as ours this year in tax collections. This is a record breaker—and not only the county but Sheriff King is to be congratulated for his excellent work.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used as the processional.

Miss Ruth Vaughan, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore pink net trimmed with bands of blue velvet ribbon and beautifully fashioned with a very full skirt. A matching turban completed her costume, and her flowers were an arm bouquet of mixed flowers.

She wore a finger-tip length veil and a lace cap caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride's roses and lilies of the valley.
