PARKING AGREEMENT IMPROVES BUSINESS

Business People Co-operating In Movement To Relieve Congested Areas

Parking space in the uptown business section has been very much improved since business people have agreed to keep their cars off the four main business blocks during daytime.

Saturday was especially noticeable. Usually a parking space in any uptown section is at a premium, but last Saturday saw room for visitors and people seeking to trade at the uptown stores.

In addition to the 43 names listed in last week's paper, the following have also agreed to keep their cars off the main business blocks until Sept 15: Miss Julia Wilson, Williams Grocery, Ralph Lyday, Eck Sims, Miss Lorene Payne, Taylor Peach Store, Wm. C. Austin, and J. B. Jones.

Policeman Frank Duckworth said Wednesday that several others would be asked to sign the agreement during this week, and that those who had already signed were showing fine cooperation.

Quiet Holidays Noted In This Community

No fatalities or accidents of a serious nature marred the Fourth of July holidays in Transylvania county.

Social Security Law Cited By Collector

Title VIII of the Social Security Tax Law, requires every employer who has or has had in his employance since January 1, 1937, ONE OR MORE PERSONS, to file Social Security Tax Returns on Forms SS-1. Monthly, for 1937 and on Forms SS-1a, quarterly subsequent to January 1, 1938, and pay the tax of 2 per cent on all wages or salaries paid for that period. This being 1 per cent for employer and 1 per cent for employee. The 1 per cent for employee is or was supposed to have been paid to employer at the time salaries or wages were paid. However, if this was not done, it does not in any way relieve the employer from the tax.

Who Required to File Returns
Every employer of one or more, provided that the employment is not strictly agricultural, religious, charitable or domestic help in PRIVATE HOME. This naturally includes all other employment.

I am advised by the Collector of Internal Revenue, at Greensboro, that there are still quite a few taxpayers in this County who have not complied with the law. I am instructed by him to contact such taxpayers at the earliest possible date and assist them in bringing this matter up to date.

My work takes me into all the Western Counties and I am very busy, but since my home is in Brevard, I am always here for the week ends, or on Saturday of each week. My Phone number is 73. My Post office address box 596, Brevard. Please contact me and we will arrange a date on which we can get together and get this matter adjusted.

This law has been in effect for more than eighteen months and most every one knows something about it. To delay longer will mean heavy penalties. The law states that EVERY EMPLOYER must comply and the Internal Revenue Collector demands that his Deputies see that this law is obeyed in every particular.

I will be glad to assist you, but it will have to be done by appointment.

Your very truly,
S. E. VARNER,
Deputy Collector.

Fourth July Program In Brevard Was Fine Affair In Every Way

With flags flying and the band playing, Brevard did itself proud on the Fourth of July in the matter of a celebration.

The patriotic parade, supervised by the NYA Recreation center and other interested citizens, was principal attraction, and drew large throngs of people along the line of march from the Primary school building on Broad Street to Franklin Park.

The parade was led by the Brevard band, with Miss Minnie Neill as drum major, and both Miss Neill and the band did an excellent job as leaders.

Boy and Girl Scouts with their troop flags, youngsters on bicycles, tricycles, and on foot, brought up in the rear by cars carrying little tots too small to march made a procession that was colorful.

Chief B. H. Freeman in his car cleared a pathway for the marchers, and Tom Kirby and Carl Hendrix on horseback assisted in handling traffic at street intersections. Lloyd Wood, Edward Wilson, and little Miss Frances Hendrix were "mounties," in the parade.

Arriving at the municipal swimming pool an exhibition was staged with Edwin Wike, Coach Tilson and John Verner in charge. Kenneth Wyatt won the 15-yard dash for children under 12 years; Johnny Michael won first place in the 25-yard free style swim; Harriet Towers won the 35-yard free style swim and the diving contest.

In the older group, Henry Miller won the 35-yard free style; James Curry, 35-year breast stroke; Henry Miller, diving.

Plans are already being made to stage a more colorful parade and program next year.

Dick Holt Winner In Brevard Golf Tourney

Dick Holt, of Greensboro, won the golf tournament at Brevard Country club this week, winning from Hume Loftis by a total of 23 strokes.

Mr. Holt, a counselor at Keystone Camp, was also low scorer in the qualifying rounds, winning first prize in each event. His score in the tournament was 51-45 for the two nine hole games. Mr. Loftis had 55-61, and his handicap was not sufficient to overcome that of Mr. Holt.

Low score in the three days play had not been turned in Wednesday afternoon as The Times went to press.

New Postoffice Building Announced For Brevard

Brevard is to have a new post-office building.

Announcement was made of the allocation of $75,000 for Brevard's building last Friday by the treasury and postoffice departments.

The contract is to be let by June 30, 1939, the announcement stated, with the building here probably completed by the last of next year.

Definite announcement as to exact type and style of building to be erected here has not been made by the postoffice and treasury department, but it is quite probable that additional office space will be provided in the office for the collector of internal revenue, and other federal offices. However, this is surmise.

Question as to what location in Brevard will be used for the building will be entirely with the postoffice department, with size, price, and accessibility of the new building to be deciding factors in selecting the site.

Interested citizens have been active for the past several years in the matter of securing a federal building here, and there was a general back-slapping and hand-shaking here Friday night and Saturday morning upon definite announcement of the building.

Congressman Zebulon Weaver of Asheville definitely promised several months ago that the next building allocated to the eleventh congressional district would be built in Brevard—and the announcement Friday made the declaration officially approved.

Other appropriations made at the same time, include: Ahoeskie, $70,000; Siler City, $70,000; Madison, $75,000; Red Springs, $70,000; Hamlet, $75,000; Concord, extend and remodel post office, $85,000; Kings Mountain, $73,000.

Band Concert Not Be Given Friday Evening

The weekly band concert will not be held Friday evening, due to the fact that revival services are being conducted in the court house by the Rev. Woodrow Flynn.

The boys played at the donkey ball game Wednesday evening, and at the Fourth of July parade last Monday. At the concert last Friday evening several hundred people were in attendance, and many complimentary remarks have been heard about Leader Revis Frye and the members of the band.

State and Federal Funds Insure Parkway In Pisgah

Announcement was made Wednesday by E. L. McKee, state highway commissioner, that the Rosman to Sunburst road by Balsam Grove would be completed with federal forest service and state highway funds.

Completion of this highway link will give Transylvania two connections with the proposed Blue Ridge Parkway, which is an assured fact now that there will be no dead ends on the Wagon Road Gap-Tennessee Bald link which is expected to be the next link of the national scenic highway connecting Shenandoah and the Great Smoky Mountains National parks.

Highway 284 from the Boylston road to the top of the ridge in Pisgah Forest at Wagon Road gap will be completed this fall, and with completion of the forest service road connecting with the Gloucester road, Transylvania county will have a connecting road at either end of the 21 mile link of the scenic parkway.

In addition to the work on the Rosman-Sunburst road, provision has also been made for connecting the Pisgah Motor Road to Elk Pasture, which will also connect with the Blue Ridge Parkway.

The survey on this Sunburst link was completed Wednesday, Mr. Walker said, and work will be started on the construction as soon as this is practicable. The link ties in with State Highway No. 284 at Woodrow, near Sunburst, and CCC enrollees are working on still another road which will carry the highway across the divide and down to Rosman. The Rosman end of the project is now within three miles of the top of the mountain and is being pushed as rapidly as possible.

Mr. McKee explained that the State Highway and Public Works commission is cooperating with the United States Forest service in making accessible where possible remote links of the Blue Ridge Parkway, so as to aid construction and to prevent "dead end" parkway links before the entire parkway is joined up.

Forestry and state highway officials have been working with members of the Western North Carolina Advisory committee for several months on the connecting roads which will preclude the "dead ending" of the Blue Ridge Parkway link, and members of the boards of commissioners of Haywood and Transylvania, as well as the public affairs committee of the Brevard Kiwanis club have held numerous conferences recently in regard to the matter. Excellent cooperation has been had in the move from both the national forest service and the state highway commission.

COUNTY TAX RATE $1.62 ON HUNDRED

Town of Brevard Also Hopes To Keep Rates Same as That of Last Year

Tentative tax rate for Transylvania county was set at $1.62 on the hundred dollar valuation by the board of county commissioners in meeting here Tuesday.

Notable increases in the budget were the old age assistance levy and the aid to dependent children. The former was raised from .046 cents on the hundred to .14, and the latter from .0375 to .08. Saving was effected in the capital outlay for schools of seven cents, and 5-cents on the hundred dollars on debt service.

The tentative budget will be on file in the register of deeds office for 20 days before adoption.

Among other matters of business taken up by the board was that of proposal to abandon the county home. The commissioners discussed the offer made from another county to "board" the county poor, and decided to take no action in the matter this year.

Town of Brevard tax rate will in all probability remain the same as last year—$1.40 on the hundred dollar valuation, according to tentative budget adopted by the board of aldermen in meeting Tuesday night.

Final adoption will be after the budget estimates have been on file for public inspection for twenty days in the office of the clerk.

Matter of delinquent water rents was taken up at the meeting and discussed at length. Decision was made to set up a water department and to employ a competent man to have complete charge of collections and installations of water.

Belk's Team Leading Local Softball Loop

The Belk's team virtually sewed up the first half pennant last Friday when they took the WOW team into camp by a score of 6-1. Ashworth was responsible for the Belk win hitting two home runs one with the bases loaded to make the score 4-1 after the WOW had taken the lead in the first inning.

There is a chance that the Woodmen may get another try at the Belk team should the College win from the all-star aggregation.

The second half will not begin until the 18th so as to allow time for some practice games and rest for the teams. The second half schedule will probably be announced next week.
