

GLANCING BACK AT BREVARD

Taken from the files of The Sylvan Valley News, beginning 1895.

(From the file of Oct. 5, 1908)

Gen. John S. Verner, a prominent lawyer of Columbia, S. C., came in Saturday, and is stopping for an outing with H. P. Clarke.

Walter Wood, Jess Pickelsimer, Thos. Galloway and Briscoe Ledbetter left this week for school at Chapel Hill.

A young man by the name of Sanders, son of Sam Sanders of Hogback, met with a painful accident eight days ago. It seems he was chopping wood and made a mislick, the ax striking his foot just back of the toes, cutting all off except the little toe. Dr. English was called and reports Mr. Sanders as doing well. The amputated part was stitched back on.

W. A. Ferrett, of Allegheny, Pa., who has been in Brevard the past six months, has returned to his home very much improved in health. He is so favorably impressed with our climate that he will return to spend the winter here after a month's visit at his home.

Sam Nichols, whose pleasant countenance has been one of the drug store fixtures during the past season, has accepted a position in Asheville and left Wednesday to assume his new duties.

Mrs. J. J. Andrews and daughter, Miss Blanche, of Tarboro, who have been visiting Mrs. W. W. Piper, returned to their home Saturday.

W. E. Breese, Jr., is busily engaged in getting out the town tax. A few more days and the list will be in the collector's hands.

Eliza Cox and sister, Miss Minnie, who recently came to Brevard from Cleveland, S. C., have rented rooms in Dock A. H. King's residence and are housekeeping.

Will Stradley, of Hendersonville hotel notoriety, was a Brevard business visitor yesterday.

Fred Miller has gone to Raleigh to attend A & M College.

Jim Aiken will pay the highest market prices for 10,000 bushels of tops and fodder.

Mrs. Wharton reports that school is progressing well. She guarantees your children will learn if you will see they are prompt and regular in attendance. She has turned in the following honor roll: Sixth grade, best, Bessie Carmichael, Eula McLean, Edith Kilpatrick, Juanita Allison. Second best, Jennie Weiff, Ruth Wharton, Mary Young, Ophie English. Third, Clay McLean, Azilee King; Third Grade, Eloise Huggins, Loree Gallamore, Allie Cantrell, Marie Clark, Florence Aiken, Coy Aiken.

en, Leota Aiken, Walter Whitmire; second grade, Ruby Clarke, Mabel Clarke, Flora Grace Whitmire, Lindsay Wharton, James Young, Furman Stamey, John King; first grade, Chester Tinsley, Webb Hart, Walter Decker, Dan Wilson, Julian Wilson, Lionel Stradley, Walter Hirst, Marshall Huggins, Gordon Reeves, Daisy Snelson, Strohle Snelson, Esther Wharton, Jimmie Hamlin, Durcilla Hamlin, Fannie May Carmichael, Clyde English.

T. D. England has gone to New York to replenish his stock of goods. He will probably tell our readers about it when he returns.

Cases of dry goods and notions are arriving so large at T. W. Whitmire's that they had to be opened on the street.
